2022 PERMANENT CAPTAINS: The Crimson Tide selected the 2022 permanent team captains at Alabama's annual postseason banquet on Dec. 4. The group of three consisted of Will Anderson Jr., Jordan Battle and Bryce Young. Anderson Jr. and Young were selected as permanent team captains for a second straight season, making them the sixth and seventh players to be named twice under head coach Nick Saban. The pair joins DeVonta Smith (2019-20), Dont'a Hightower (2010-11), Mark Barron (2010-11), Rashad Johnson (2007-08) and Antoine Caldwell (2007-08) as the only two-time honorees since Saban's arrival.

ALABAMA'S ALL-AMERICANS: Alabama had six total players earn All-America honors from one of the five major outlets (AFCA, Associated Press, FWAA, The Sporting News, Walter Camp). Will Anderson Jr. was named a first-team honoree by all five organizations to become the Crimson Tide's 41st unanimous All-America selection and the 26th under head coach Nick Saban. Saban's 26 in Tuscaloosa alone tops the historical totals of all but five programs - Ohio State (37), Oklahoma (35), Notre Dame (34), USC (29) and Michigan (28). In addition to Anderson Jr., Jordan Battle, Brian Branch, Jahmyr Gibbs, Kool-Aid McKinstry (CB/PR) and Byron Young all earned second-team recognition from at least one of the five major outlets.

NCAA RECORD FOR 10-WIN SEASONS: Alabama's Iron Bowl victory against Auburn on Nov. 26 was the Crimson Tide's 10th of the 2022 campaign. The win over the Tigers secured the Tide's 15th consecutive 10-win season, setting the NCAA record for the most 10-win seasons in a row. It broke Alabama's tie with Florida State and head coach Bobby Bowden for the longest such record in college football history. In the Tide's previous 10-plus win seasons, UA finished with a 12-2 record in 2008 and 2014; 14-0 in 2009; 10-3 in 2010; 12-1 in 2011; 13-1 in 2012 and 2017; 11-2 in 2013 and 2019; 14-1 in 2015, 2016 and 2018; and 13-0 in 2020.

SUGAR BOWLING: Alabama's matchup with No. 9/11/9 Kansas State on Dec. 31 will be the Crimson Tide's 17th in the Sugar Bowl. The 17 appearances are the most by UA in any bowl and eight better than the Cotton, which holds second place at nine. Alabama owns a 9-7 all-time mark in the Sugar Bowl with the most recent contest coming in the 2017 College Football Playoff Semifinal against Clemson on Jan. 1, 2018. That pairing finished in favor of the Crimson Tide, 24-6, on the way to the program's eventual 17th national championship.

NEUTRAL SITES: Alabama is 97-51-4 (.651) all-time in 152 neutral site contests. The list includes all Alabama-Auburn games not played on campus, including Legion Field from 1948-88. Under head coach Nick Saban, the Crimson Tide is 29-7 (.806) in neutral site games.

DOMES SWEET DOMES: The Crimson Tide is 33-8-1 (.798) all-time in domed stadiums. Under head coach Nick Saban, Alabama owns a 25-5 (.833) record in domes, including a 24-2 (.889) mark since 2009. Saban's record under an enclosed roof includes a 16-5 mark in postseason contests (SEC Championship, bowl, BCS Championship, CFP Championship).

EARLY BIRD GETS THE WIN: Since head coach Nick Saban's arrival in 2007, Alabama has played in 25 games that kicked off at 11:30 a.m. CT or earlier. The Crimson Tide is a perfect 25-0 in those matchups, including a 2-0 mark this season. Alabama first secured a 20-19 win at then-No. 22 Texas on Sept. 10 before defeating Austin Peay, 34-0, on Nov. 19 in the Tide's final non-conference matchup of the regular season.

ALABAMA vs. THE BIG 12: Alabama holds an 11-14-2 (10-14-2 NCAA) record across 27 games against current Big 12 teams. The Crimson Tide has squared off with eight of the 10 member teams, missing only Kansas and Kansas State.

SABAN vs. NON-CONFERENCE FOES: Alabama head coach Nick Saban owns a 102-20 (.836) career record against non-conference opponents in the regular season and postseason across his four stops as a collegiate head coach. His record against non-conference opponents in both the regular season and postseason at the Capstone is 71-7 (.910). Saban has only two losses to non-conference opponents during the regular season, both of which came in 2007 (21-14 vs. Florida State [in Jacksonville] and 21-14 vs. ULM). Under his direction, the Crimson Tide currently holds a 56-game winning streak against non-conference foes in the regular season, including a 42-game home winning streak at Bryant-Denny Stadium as part of a 44-1 mark at home.

SABAN vs. AP TOP 25 OPPOSITION: The Crimson Tide's 30-24 win over then-No. 11 Mississippi State on Nov. 12 was Nick Saban's 99th career win, and 77th at Alabama, against the Associated Press Top 25. Saban moved past Joe Paterno (86) for the most career wins against the AP Top 25 when he defeated then-No. 22 Auburn on Nov. 28, 2020. The late Florida State legend Bobby Bowden ranks third all-time (82), while Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant is fourth (66). Former Duke, Florida and South Carolina coach Steve Spurrier is fifth (64). Saban's winning percentage against AP ranked teams (99-46, .683) tops Bryant (.592), Bowden (.557), Spurrier (.529) and Paterno (.512).

Most Wins vs. Opponents Ranked in the Associated Press Top 25

Coach	Wins (Pct.)
NICK SABAN	99 (.683)
Joe Paterno	86 (.512)
Bobby Bowden	82 (.557)
Paul "Bear" Bryant	66 (.592)
Steve Spurrier	64 (.529)

BEATING THE BEST: The Crimson Tide is 75-20 (.790) against the Associated Press Top 25 since the start of 2008. That record includes a 3-2 mark this season with the Tide's 49-26 win at then-No.20 Arkansas on Oct. 1; a loss at then-No. 6 Tennessee on Oct. 15; a 30-6 win over then-No. 24 Mississippi State on Oct. 22; an overtime loss at then-No. 15 LSU on Nov. 5; and most recently a 30-24 win at then-No. 11 Ole Miss on Nov. 12.

DOMINATING THE AP TOP 25: Alabama's win over then-No. 14 Miami in the 2021 Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game last season was head coach Nick Saban's 22nd career win by 25-plus points against a ranked opponent. Saban is the all-time leader for the most wins by 25-plus points in the Associated Press Poll era (since 1936), sitting just ahead of Bobby Bowden's previous record of 20. Saban is also the NCAA record holder with 24 career wins of 20-plus points against AP top-15 opponents, including Alabama's 27-6 win against No. 4 Cincinnati in the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic on Dec. 31. An astounding 21 of Saban's 24 career 20-plus point wins against AP top-15 opponents have come while at Alabama.

50-PLUS vs. RANKED OPPONENTS: Under head coach Nick Saban, Alabama has posted 50-plus points against Associated Press Top 25 teams on seven occasions, while three of those seven occasions came in 2020. The most recent instance came on Jan. 11, 2021 at the College Football Playoff National Championship Game when the Crimson Tide defeated then-No. 3/3/3 Ohio State, 52-24. Below is a look at Saban's 50-plus point games vs. ranked teams.

Most Points by UA vs. Ranked Opponents Under Saban

Rank	Opponent	Date	Score (Points)
1.	#21 Texas A&M	Oct. 18, 2014	59-0 (59)
2.	#15 Auburn	Nov. 29, 2014	55-44 (55)

ALABAMA IN THE AP POLL: Alabama's No. 5 ranking in the Dec. 4 release of the Associated Press Poll marked the 244th consecutive week that the Crimson Tide has appeared in the poll. That streak is the longest active streak in college football. The 244 weeks more than doubles second-place Georgia with the Bulldogs appearing in the poll for 97 consecutive weeks. Alabama's 244 straight weeks tops the Crimson Tide's previous program-long streak of 71 consecutive weeks under head coach Gene Stallings in the mid-1990s.

ALABAMA IN THE AP SINCE 2008: Alabama began the 2008 season at No. 24 in the Associated Press Preseason Poll. The Crimson Tide opened the year with a dominant 34-10 win over then-No. 9 Clemson in Atlanta, and since that win over the Tigers, UA has not been ranked lower than No. 17 in 242 polls that have followed. According to College Poll Archive, the Tide has now spent 96.7 percent of the 14-plus years ranked in the top 10. A whopping 85.7 percent of that time Alabama has been ranked in the top five. The Crimson Tide has also been ranked No. 1 a total of 109 times since 2008. Only 13 other teams have earned the No. 1 ranking over that time, with the second-most appearances coming from Clemson at 23 and Georgia close behind in third at 22.

38 OF 54: The Dec. 4 release of the College Football Playoff Rankings had the Crimson Tide as the No. 5 team. Alabama has made 38 total appearances in the top four of the 54-week, all-time selection committee rankings. Of those 38 top-four appearances, UA has been No. 1 a total of 24 times. Only six other teams have been ranked No. 1, with the Tide doubling the 12 appearances at No. 1 by second-place Georgia. Clemson is third with eight appearances atop the poll, while LSU, Mississippi State and Ohio State are all tied for fourth with three appearances per program, while Tennessee rounds out the group with one total week atop the poll. The Crimson Tide finished the 2020 season as national champions making Alabama the only No. 1 seed in the initial rankings to go on and win it all in the history of the Playoff.

ALABAMA HAS THE MOST WINS SINCE 2008: Dating back to the start of the 2008 season, Alabama has won 186 games, which is the most in the Football Bowl Subdivision. That total is 19 more than second-place Ohio State, who has totaled 167 wins over that stretch.

Total Wins (since 2008) (as of Dec. 4, 2022)

Team	Wins	2008+09+10+11+12+13+14+15+16+17+18+19+20+21+22

NON-OFFENSIVE TOUCHDOWNS IN THE SABAN ERA: Alabama recorded its 90th non-offensive touchdown of the Nick Saban era at then-No. 6/8 Tennessee on Oct. 15 when Dallas Turner picked up a fumble and returned it from 11 yards out. Since Saban's arrival in 2007, no team in college football has totaled more non-offensive scores than the Crimson Tide. During Saban's tenure, Alabama recorded a single-season record 15 in 2016, which led the Football Bowl Subdivision and was the most in a season by any FBS team in the last 20 years. The Tide also scored a non-offensive touchdown in 10 straight games dating from to the CFP Semifinal against Michigan State on Dec. 31, 2015 to the Texas A&M game on Oct. 22, 2016 for 14 non-offensive touchdowns in that span – four interceptions, four punt returns, five fumble recoveries and a kickoff return.

ALABAMA IN THE CFP POLL

The College Football Playoff was introduced during the 2014 season with the first ever rankings being released on Oct. 28, 2014. The selection committee members meet weekly on Mondays and Tuesdays to produce rankings. The committee's rankings are announced on ESPN each Tuesday evening for the final six weeks of the season. Alabama holds the record for the most games played (13) and wins (9) in the history of the CFP. The Crimson Tide is also the only team to have appeared in seven of the eight College Football Playoffs. Alabama has gone 6-1 in CFP Semifinal matchups and owns a 3-3 mark in CFP National Championship Games, claiming titles in 2015, 2017 and 2020.

ALABAMA IN THE AP RANKINGS

Alabama has been ranked in 855 of the 1,216 Associated Press college football polls since 1936, according to the AP Poll Archive. The Crimson Tide owns a 528-136-8 (.792) all-time record in games when ranked in the Associated Press college football poll, including a 169-24 (.876) mark under head coach Nick Saban. Alabama is also ranked in the AP poll for the 244th consecutive week, topping its previous streak set in the mid-1990s when UA was ranked for 71 straight weeks under head coach Gene Stallings. The 244 consecutive weeks is the second-longest stretch by any program in the poll's history, trailing only Nebraska's all-time mark of 348 consecutive weeks. Alabama has started nine seasons at No. 1 (2022, 2021, 2018, 2017, 2016, 2013, 2010, 1978, 1966).

SCORING IN ALL KINDS OF WAYS vs. ULM: Alabama scored three non-offensive touchdowns as part of the Tide's 63-7 win over ULM on Sept. 17. The Crimson Tide recorded a pick-six by Will Anderson Jr., a blocked punt for a score from Malachi Moore, and a punt return touchdown by Brian Branch against the Warhawks. The three non-offensive touchdowns were the most by a Tide team since Sept. 17, 2016 at Ole Miss. That game in Oxford saw Eddie Jackson return a punt for six, Da'Ron Payne score on a fumble and Jonathan Allen follow suit with a 75-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

YOUNG ON THE ALABAMA CAREER LISTS: Despite being the starter for only 26 games, Bryce Young has made his mark on the Crimson Tide's career passing lists. Below is a look at where Young ranked after the regular-season finale against Auburn.

Alabama Passing Touchdowns List

Rank	Player	Years	Passing TDs
1.	Tua Tagovailoa	2017-19	87
2.	AJ McCarron	2010-13	77
3.	BRYCE YOUNG	2020-PRESENT	75

Alabama Passing Yards List

Rank	Player	Years	Yards (Att.-Com.)
1.	AJ McCarron	2010-13	9,019 (686-1,026)
2.	BRYCE YOUNG	2020-PRESENT	8,035 (609-928)

TWO IN A ROW WITH 3K: Bryce Young has put together one of the most impressive stretches by an Alabama starting quarterback across the 2021-22 seasons. In his first campaign as the Crimson Tide's starter in 2021, Young set the single-season record for passing yards at UA with 4,872. He followed that up by throwing for 3,007 yards across 11 starts during the 2022 regular season, one that saw him miss 1.5 games due to injury. The 3,007 yards marks just the eighth 3,000-plus yards passing season by a Crimson Tide quarterback and made Young the first signal-caller in Alabama history to produce multiple, and back-to-back, 3,000-plus yard seasons.

STARTING WITH A TOUCHDOWN: Junior quarterback Bryce Young has thrown for at least one touchdown pass across all 26 games that he has started for the Crimson Tide. Young's touchdown pass to Jermaine Burton in the second quarter of the Tide's Nov. 19 matchup with Austin Peay pushed him past Tua Tagovailoa for the most consecutive games with at least one touchdown pass in Alabama history.

BRYCE AGAINST THE BEST: Since stepping into the starting quarterback role to start the 2021 season, quarterback Bryce Young has elevated his game each time a ranked opponent has appeared on the Crimson Tide's schedule. In 12 games against ranked teams, Young has posted an NCAA passer rating of 152.79 with an NFL rating of 106.33. He has thrown from 3,769 yards in 12 games for an average 314.1 yards per game with 30 touchdowns and six interceptions. Young is averaging 8.3 yards per attempt in the 12 games while completing 63.5 percent of his passes (287-452).

BRYCE MOVING THE CHAINS AS A RUSHER: Bryce Young has been credited with 46 rushes on the season for 195 net yards. Included in those 46 'rushes' are the 16 times the junior quarterback has been sacked. On Young's 30 carries where he has tucked the ball and run, he has accounted for 11 first downs and four touchdowns. He has accumulated 303 rushing yards on those 30 carries for 10.1 yards per carry average.

JALEN MATCHES MAC, NAMATH: Jalen Milroe made his first career start on Oct. 8 against Texas A&M and finished 12-of-19 for 111 yards and three touchdowns. His three touchdown passes matches Mac Jones (vs. Arkansas, 2019) and Joe Namath (vs. Georgia, 1962) for the second-most touchdown passes in the starting debut by an Alabama quarterback (since 1958). Only Bryce Young (vs. Miami, 2021) had more with his four against the Hurricanes last season.

RUSHING AGAINST THE AGGIES: Jalen Milroe rushed for 83 yards on 17 carries in his starting debut against Texas A&M on Oct. 8. Milroe's 83 rushing yards are the most by a Crimson Tide quarterback in their starting debut since 1958. The previous high for rushing yards in a starting debut was 79 by Steadman Shealy at Georgia Tech to open the 1979 campaign.

MILROE STEPS IN: Redshirt freshman Jalen Milroe took over the reins at quarterback following an injury to Bryce Young early in the matchup at then-No. 20/19 Arkansas on Oct. 1. Milroe led the Tide to five touchdowns and 35 total points across his eight drives (not including drives at the end of each half). He finished his day 4-of-9 passing for 65 yards and a touchdown while adding six rushes for 91 yards and a score on the ground.

LONG RUSH BY MILROE: Jalen Milroe took off running for a 77-yard gain at then-No. 20/19 Arkansas on Oct. 1. His big play came on a 3rd-and-15 with the Tide at its own 20-yard line and helped set up an eventual touchdown for the Crimson Tide. Milroe's 77-yard scamper topped Bryce Young's 63-yard rush from earlier this season against Utah State on Sept. 3. Prior to Young's rush, the longest carry by a quarterback was 60 yards by Jalen Hurts against Mississippi State on Nov. 12, 2016. The Alabama program record for a rush by a quarterback is 85 yards which came from Danny Woodson against Temple on Sept. 7, 1991.

SPREADING THE WEALTH: Alabama quarterbacks have completed 265 passes for 3,339 yards through 12 games this season. Those catches and yards have been spread across 20 different pass-catchers, including a group of six players with 25-plus catches and a collection of 10 receivers who are over 100-plus yards on the season. Of the 10 with 100-plus yards receiving, all but two are averaging 12.6 yards or better per reception. The Crimson Tide is led in receptions by running back Jahmyr Gibbs with 42 while wide receiver Ja'Corey Brooks paces UA in receiving yards at 623. Alabama's 20 receivers is tied with Tulane and Michigan for the most wideouts used by any single team this season.

DO IT ALL, JAHMYR GIBBS: Although Jahmyr Gibbs is listed as a running back, the junior transfer has proven valuable to the Alabama offense as a pass-catcher as well. He currently leads the Tide in receptions with 42 while adding a team-high 136 rushes for 850 yards. Gibbs has led the Tide in rushing attempts in eight of his 11 games played while pacing the wideouts in catches in five contests.

GIBBS IN THE PASSING GAME: Jahmyr Gibbs has put together some impressive numbers as a pass-catcher this season. The junior leads Alabama in receptions (42) while ranking third in receiving yards (378) and tying for third in receiving touchdowns (3). His receptions are the sixth-most by a Power 5 back while his yardage total is third and his receiving scores tie for first. Entering the bowl game, Gibbs ranks third all-time for receptions by a Crimson Tide running back in a single season. He trails only Najee Harris (43) and Kevin Turner (48).

ALL-PURPOSE LEADER: Junior Jahmyr Gibbs has been key to the Crimson Tide's success this season, contributing a team-high 1,455 all-purpose yards through his 11 games played. Gibbs is averaging 132.3 yards per game to rank fourth in the SEC and 20th nationally while his 1,312 total yards are the 31st-most by any single player in the country, despite his absence in 1.5 games this season.

BIG PLAY GIBBS IN FAYETTEVILLE: Jahmyr Gibbs had a huge afternoon in the Crimson Tide's 49-26 win at then-No. 20/19 Arkansas on Oct. 1. The junior totaled 206 yards from scrimmage on just 18 carries, breaking two runs of 70-plus for a score with a 72-yarder and a 76-yarder to seal the win. Gibbs averaged 11.4 yards per carry on the afternoon, which was the highest yards per carry average by an Alabama running back with at least 15 carries since Shaun Alexander in 1996. Alexander averaged 14.6 yards per tote as part of his school-record 291 rushing yards across 20 carries against LSU. Gibbs' performance in Fayetteville is also just the 10th game by an SEC student-athlete in this century in which a ball-carrier averaged at least 11.4 yards per tote on 18-or-more rushing attempts.

200-PLUS FOR JAH: In just his fifth game at Alabama, running back Jahmyr Gibbs eclipsed the 200-plus yard mark, totaling 206 yards at then-No. 20/19 Arkansas on Oct. 1. Gibbs' 206 yards are the 15th-most yards in Alabama single-game history, tying him with Shaun Alexander (vs. Vanderbilt, Sept. 12, 1998) and Najee Harris (at Ole Miss, Oct. 10, 2020). Including Gibbs' effort, there have been just 19 200-yard rushing performances in Crimson Tide history, 10 of which have come during the Nick Saban era.

LEADING THE WIDEOUTS IN AUSTIN: Jahmyr Gibbs recorded nine receptions for 74 yards at Texas on Sept. 10 to lead UA in both categories. His nine catches are the most by an Alabama tailback during the Saban era, topping the previous high of seven by Najee Harris against Ohio State in the 2021 College Football Playoff National Championship. They are also the most receptions by any pass-catcher in a game since John Metchie III had 13 at Auburn on Nov. 27 of last season, a game that went into four overtime periods. A week prior to that, Metchie III totaled 10 receptions against Arkansas in a four-quarter game with the Hogs.

GIBBS STARTED HOT: Running back Jahmyr Gibbs made an instant impact for Alabama in his first career start on Sept. 3 against Utah State. The junior finished with nine rushes for 93 yards for an average of 10.3 yards per carry while adding one reception for five yards. Gibbs' 10.3 yards per carry average is the highest by a Tide back in his debut since Siran Stacy averaged 12.1 ypc in his UA debut on Sept. 16, 1989. Stacy carried 14 times for 169 yards and four touchdowns against Memphis as a junior.

BROOKS AND LATU MAKING THEIR CATCHES COUNT: The Crimson Tide duo of Ja'Corey Brooks and Cameron Latu have each accounted for a first down or a score better than 70 percent of the time on their catches so far this season. Brooks, who is tied for second in receptions on UA with 37, has converted 20 first downs while scoring a touchdown a team-high seven times to go with a two-point conversion. Brooks' 28 'money' plays account for an impressive 75.7 percent of his receptions. Latu's numbers are even better at 80.0 percent of the time, as the tight end has recorded 17 first downs and three scores across his 25 total catches.

ALABAMA IN THE COACHES POLL

The Crimson Tide has enjoyed much success in the coaches' rankings over the past half century. The United Press International debuted the coaches poll in 1950 and ran the poll through the 1990 season. USA TODAY has administered the poll for the past 31 seasons (1991-2021) with the AFCA coming on the title sponsor of the poll at the start of the 2021 season. Alabama was ranked No. 1 in the 2010 preseason coaches poll after starting out the 2009 preseason poll at No. 5. Alabama remained in the top five the entire season, reaching No. 1 after defeating Florida in the SEC Championship and holding the position to claim the national championship after defeating Texas in Pasadena. The Tide then claimed the No. 1 spot to close out the 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2020 seasons. The Tide has compiled four UPI (1961, 1964, 1973 and 1979) and seven USA TODAY (1992, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2020) coaches poll national titles.

BIG CHUNKS ON THE GROUND: Alabama is second in the SEC and sixth nationally in yards per rush at 5.64. The Crimson Tide has totaled 2,367 rushing yards on 425 carries for the season and is averaging 197.2 rushing yards per game.

600+ YARDS OF TOTAL OFFENSE: Alabama has eclipsed the 600-yard marker 14 times in program history, including seven times dating back to the start of the 2020 season. The Tide most recently went for 600-plus on Sept. 24 when UA posted 628 yards against Vanderbilt in the SEC opener. Alabama went over 600 yards twice in 2021, rolling up 671 yards against then-No. 25/21/22 Arkansas on Nov. 20, a performance that followed a 606-yard effort against Southern Miss on Sept. 25. The Tide eclipsed 600 yards on four occasions during the 2020 campaign, including a season-high 723 at Ole Miss on Oct. 10 of that season.

500+ YARDS OF TOTAL OFFENSE: Alabama has recorded 500-plus yards of total offense 55 times in the last 112 games (dating to the start of the 2015 season), including seven of the 12 games in 2022. The Crimson Tide went for 559 against Utah State, 509 against ULM, 628 in the Vanderbilt contest, 555 at then-No. 20/19 Arkansas, 569 at then-No. 6/8 Tennessee, 527 against Austin Peay and most recently 516 against Auburn in the regular-season finale. Alabama's offense recorded 500-plus yards seven times in 2021, eight times in 2020 and nine times in 2019, with the 2018 roster setting the Alabama single-season record with 500-or-more yards in 12 of the 15 total games.

400+ YARDS OF TOTAL OFFENSE: Alabama has gained 400-plus yards of total offense in 59 of its last 68 games, dating back to the start of the 2018 season. The only nine instances in which the Crimson Tide did not eclipse the 400-plus yards of total offense mark during that span was: vs. Tennessee on Oct. 19, 2019 (373); at then-No. 11/9 Florida on Sept. 18, 2021 (331); vs. LSU on Nov. 6, 2021 (308); at Auburn on Nov. 27, 2021 (388); vs. then-No. 3/3/3 Georgia in the CFP National Championship Game on Jan. 10, 2022 (399); at Texas on Sept. 10 of this season (374); vs. Texas A&M on Oct. 8 (399); vs. Mississippi State on Oct. 22 (290); and most recently in the matchup at then-No. 11/11/9 Ole Miss on Nov. 12 (317). Alabama is 8-1 in those nine games.

30-OR-MORE IN 59 OF THE LAST 68: Alabama's offense has scored 30-or-more points in 59 of the last 68 games (dating back to the start of the 2018 season). Included in that stretch is a streak of 34 consecutive games with 30-plus points that set the FBS record. The Crimson Tide's streak started with a 42-3 win over Duke on Aug. 31, 2019 and ended with a 20-14 win over LSU on Nov. 6, 2021. UCF previously held the record of scoring 30-or-more points in 31 straight games from 2017-19.

40-OR-MORE SINCE 2018: Alabama has scored 40-or-more points in 46 of the last 68 games. Forty-six leads the nation for the most total games of 40-plus points since the start of the 2018 season. Ohio State has the second-most instances of scoring 40-or-more points over that stretch at 41, while Oklahoma is third with 34.

Scoring 40-or-More Points (since 2018) (as of Dec. 4, 2022)

Team	40-or-More Points/Total Games	Percent
1. ALABAMA	46/68	67.6%
2. Ohio State	41/62	66.1%
3. Oklahoma	34/64	53.1%
4. Clemson	34/67	50.8%
5. UCF	28/61	45.9%

OPENING DRIVE TOUCHDOWNS: The Crimson Tide has won 50 of its last 51 games when scoring a touchdown on the first offensive possession of the game. The most recent instance came against Austin Peay on Nov. 19 when Jase McClellan found the end zone from one-yard out to open the day's scoring. The Tide's lone loss when scoring a touchdown on the opening drive during that stretch came at Texas A&M on Oct. 9.

SCORING STREAK CONTINUES: Alabama extended its school record for consecutive games with a score to 295 thanks to a five-yard rush by Bryce Young in the first quarter of the Iron Bowl on Nov. 26. The Tide was last held off the scoreboard in a 9-0 loss to Auburn on Nov. 18, 2000. Alabama owns a 237-58 (.803) record over the course of the current streak.

BALL PROTECTION: In the last 206 games (dating back to the start of the 2008 season), Alabama has turned the ball over only 222 times (120 fumbles, 102 interceptions) for an average of 1.08 turnovers per game. Since 2009, the Tide has turned the ball over only 204 times in 193 games (1.06/game). The 204 turnovers since 2009 includes 82 interceptions in 5,220 attempts (one interception every 63.7 attempts) by UA starting quarterbacks and 32 lost fumbles in 5,128 carries (one fumble lost every 160.3 carries) by the Tide's top two running backs.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

FOUR TRIPS AND FOUR AWARDS: Alabama's Will Anderson Jr. spent the week of Dec. 5-12 on the road attending four separate awards shows. He would come home with four new awards to add to the Crimson Tide's trophy case. Anderson Jr. was first named the Nagurski Trophy winner for a second straight year on Dec. 5 in Charlotte. He became just the second player to earn the award twice joining only Pat Fitzgerald (1995-96). The junior then traveled to Houston where he was selected as the winner of the Lombardi Award on Dec. 7. He returned home to Tuscaloosa the very next day to be crowned the Bednarik Award winner virtually as part of the ESPN College Football Awards. Anderson Jr. closed out his week by traveling to Newport Beach, Calif., where he was selected as the Lott IMPACT Trophy winner on Dec. 11. The Tide linebacker became just the second player to sweep all four awards in the same year, a feat that Manti Te'o accomplished in 2012.

ANDERSON JR. - UNANIMOUS ALL-AMERICAN (AGAIN): Will Anderson Jr. was selected as a unanimous All-American this season. He paired that with his unanimous All-America honors from the 2021 campaign to become the first Alabama player to ever earn unanimous honors twice during their career. His 2022 recognition represented the 41st unanimous All-America honors earned in Crimson Tide history, including the 26th under head coach Nick Saban. He was also the 41st two-time unanimous All-American in college football history and just the 12th defensive player to do it twice. Additionally, he was the sixth two-time unanimous selection at linebacker/defensive end and only the fourth two-timer in Southeastern Conference history. Anderson Jr. became the first two-time honoree since Jonathan Taylor (Wisconsin, 2018-19) and the first defensive player since Eric Berry (Tennessee, 2007-08).

THE TERMINATOR: Will Anderson Jr. has put together an impressive 2022 campaign. The junior paces the Crimson Tide in tackles for loss with 17.0 (-72 yards) and sacks at 10.0 (-54 yards). This comes one year after Anderson Jr. led the nation with 17.5 sacks and 34.5 tackles for loss (an NCAA record since 2000). Those impressive numbers placed Anderson Jr. second on Alabama's single-season tackles for loss list behind only Derrick Thomas (1988 - 39.0) while he was third on UA's single-season sacks list, trailing Thomas once again (1988 - 27.0 and 1987 - 18.0). His totals as a junior and sophomore, paired with his 10.5 tackles for loss and 7.0 sacks from 2020, moved him into the top three of both career lists for the Crimson Tide. Below is a look at where the two-time Nagurski Trophy winner ranks heading into bowl season.

Alabama Career Sacks List

Rank	Player	Years	Total Sacks (Yards)
1.	Derrick Thomas	1985-88	52.0 (-408 yards)
2.	WILL ANDERSON JR.	2020-PRESENT	34.5 (-201 YARDS)
3.	Jonathan Allen	2013-16	28.5 (-205 yards)

Alabama Career Tackles for Loss List

Rank	Player	Years	Total TFL (Yards)
1.	Derrick Thomas	1985-88	68.0 (-465 yards)
2.	WILL ANDERSON JR.	2020-PRESENT	62.0 (-272 YARDS)
3.	Wallace Gilberry	2004-07	60.5 (-223 yards)

HISTORIC PACE FOR ANDERSON JR.: Will Anderson Jr. has put himself on a historic pace for sacks and tackles for loss compared to past Alabama greats. In 40 career games, Anderson Jr. has 34.5 sacks, which averages out to .86 sacks per game. Derrick Thomas finished his Alabama career with 52 sacks in 49 career games, a ratio of 1.06 sacks per game. For comparison, Jonathan Allen and Kindal Moorehead rank third and fourth in career sacks, respectively. Their sacks-per-game ratio were .50 for Allen and .52 for Moorehead. Anderson Jr. is actually averaging more tackles per loss per game (1.55 or 62.0 in 40 games) than Thomas did (1.39 or 68 in 49 games).

SPENDING THE DAY IN THE BACKFIELD: Linebacker Will Anderson Jr. has made it his mission to keep opposing offenses in the backfield, whether it be by way of the sack or a tackle for loss. For his career, Anderson Jr. has accumulated 34.5 sacks and 62.0 tackles for loss. He has recorded at least one tackle for loss in 29 of his 40 career games while notching at least half a sack in 23 matchups. Of the 29 games with a TFL, he has posted multiple tackles for loss 22 times and has recorded multiple sacks in 10 contests.

PRO FOOTBALL FOCUS ON ANDERSON JR.: According to Pro Football Focus, Will Anderson Jr. has been one of this season's top defensive performers. The site has credited him with being part of 14 sacks to lead all Power 5 players. He is also second among all P5 defenders in total quarterback pressures (sacks, hits, pressures) with 57 while ranking third in quarterback hurries (36).

WHERE THE DEFENSE RANKS NATIONALLY: Alabama ranks among the top-20 in the country in numerous defensive statistics entering bowl season. Below is where the Crimson Tide sits heading to the Sugar Bowl.

Alabama Defensive Ranks in 2022

Category	Total	Rank
Yards per Play	4.52 ypp	4th
Passing Efficiency Defense	109.6	8th
Third Down Conversion Defense	29.4%
Scoring Defense	18.0 ppg	9th
Fourth Down Conversion Defense	34.8%
Team Sacks	3.00 spg	14th
Total Defense	311.3 ypg	15th
Passing Yards Allowed	186.0 ypg	16th
Red Zone Defense	76.9%	18th

KEEPING THE GROUND GAME IN-CHECK: The Crimson Tide defense limited Vanderbilt to a season-low 14 yards rushing in their Sept. 24 matchup and has kept seven of 11 total opponents below 80 yards in 2022. The Alabama defensive unit has limited 17 of its last 27 opponents (dating back to the 2021 season) to less than 100 yards rushing. The impressive stretch comes after the 2020 campaign that saw seven opponents go over 100-plus and the 2019 season where 11 opponents eclipsed the 100-yard marker. Both the 2020 and 2019 schedules were 13 games long.

THIRD DOWN DEFENSE: The Tide ranks second in the SEC and eighth nationally in third-down conversion defense at 29.4 percent (53-of-180). Below is a look at how each opponent has fared against the Alabama defense on third down this season.

Third Down Conversions

Team	Conversions	Total Tries
Utah State	3	17
Texas	3	12
ULM	4	17
Vanderbilt	1	13
Arkansas	5	17
Texas A&M	5	17
Tennessee	5	10
Mississippi State	7	22
LSU	5	12
Ole Miss	8	16
Austin Peay	3	13
Auburn	4	14

TURNOVERS, TURNOVERS, TURNOVERS: Alabama has forced at least one turnover in 100 of the last 112 contests (dating back to the start of the 2015 season). During the current run, Alabama has forced 175 turnovers (111 interceptions, 64 fumbles) and returned 40 of those miscues for touchdowns.

HOLDING OPPONENTS UNDER 200: Alabama's defense limited Vanderbilt to 129 yards of total offense on Sept. 24. That impressive effort marked the 58th time in the last 206 games (since the start of the 2008 season) that the Crimson Tide defense has held the opposition to fewer than 200 yards of total offense. Alabama has limited three opponents to sub-200 yards so far in 2022, including the season-low of 129 by the Commodores.

Fewest Total Yards Allowed under Nick Saban

Yards Allowed	Opponent	Date
78	at Vanderbilt	Sept. 23, 2017
84	Chattanooga	Nov. 21, 2009
90	Kent State	Sept. 3, 2011
92	ULM	Sept. 26, 2015
92	LSU	Jan. 9, 2012
108	Tennessee	Oct. 21, 2017

SHUTOUTS SINCE 2007: Since head coach Nick Saban arrived in 2007, Alabama has recorded 26 shutouts, including 12 in Southeastern Conference play. With its 34-0 win over Austin Peay on Nov. 19, the Crimson Tide defense has 12 more shutouts than its nearest competitor over that span. Ranking second in shutouts during that time is Ohio State with 14.

HARD TO FIND THE END ZONE AGAINST THE TIDE: Since the start of the 2009 season, no team has allowed fewer touchdowns than the Crimson Tide. Alabama has surrendered only 334 touchdowns over the last 193 games. That is 57 fewer than the second most in the nation (Wisconsin with 391).

Fewest TDs Allowed (since 2009) (as of Dec. 4, 2022)

Team	Touchdowns
1. ALABAMA	334
2. Wisconsin	391
3. Iowa	396
4. LSU	430
5. Florida	436

TOUGH SLEDDING ON THE GROUND: Alabama's defense has been a force in the run game since head coach Nick Saban's arrival on campus. More recently, the Tide has given up just 78 rushing scores in the last 112 games (dating to the start of the 2015 season). Since Saban arrived in 2007, the Tide has allowed the fewest rushing touchdowns in the nation at 136, a total that is 36 fewer than second-place Iowa.

Fewest Rushing Touchdowns Allowed (FBS teams since 2007) (as of Dec. 4, 2022)

1. ALABAMA	136
2. Iowa	172
3. Utah	194

10 POINTS OR LESS: Alabama's trademark has been its defense ever since head coach Nick Saban's arrival on campus. Since that first season in Tuscaloosa, Saban-coached defenses have held the Crimson Tide's opponents to 10 points or less on 102 occasions. Dating back to the start of the 2015 season, UA's defense has limited the opposition to 10 or fewer points 46 times across 112 total contests.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

50-PLUS FOR REICHARD: A 50-yard field goal from Will Reichard closed out the first-half scoring in Alabama's 30-6 win over then-No. 24/24 Mississippi State on Oct. 22. The three-point make was the fifth for Reichard from 50 yards or better during his career and third this season. Reichard is tied with Leigh Tiffin (2006-09) for the second-most 50-yarders in an Alabama career. The Crimson Tide record holder is Van Tiffin (1983-86) at seven, with the elder Tiffin using a kicking tee for the entirety of his career.

PATs FOR REICHARD: Will Reichard owns the Crimson Tide's career record for made PATs. Entering this weekend's Iron Bowl, Reichard has made 234-of-236 career PATs. The senior recorded nine PATs against ULM on Sept. 17 to move past the former record of 186 (188 attempts) by Adam Griffith from 2013-16.

REICHARD MOVING UP THE CAREER LISTS: Placekicker Will Reichard has been a consistent presence in the kicking game for Alabama during his time at the Capstone. Reichard ranks among the top-five with 61 made field goals and a school-record 417 kicking points. Below is a look at where Reichard currently ranks.

Alabama Career Points List

Rank	Player	Years	Points (FG/PAT)
1.	WILL REICHARD	2019-PRESENT	417 (61/234)
2.	Leigh Tiffin	2006-09	385 (83/136)
3.	Adam Griffith	2013-16	357 (57/186)

Alabama Career Field Goals List

Rank	Player	Years	Field Goals (Attempts)
1.	Leigh Tiffin	2006-09	83 (111)
2.	Philip Doyle	1987-90	78 (105)
3.	Michael Proctor	1992-95	65 (91)

OPPOSING MARKSMEN: Opposing kickers have been near perfect against the Crimson Tide in 2022, hitting 14-of-17 field goals. Over the last four seasons, opponents are hitting 65-of-73 (89.0 percent) of their field goals against the Crimson Tide. That total includes a perfect 20-of-20 season in 2019.

McKINSTRY THE RETURNER: Kool-Aid McKinstry took on the Crimson Tide's punt returner responsibilities this season and has excelled so far. The sophomore has totaled 317 yards on 20 punts to average 15.8 yards per return. His yardage total and 17.3 yards per return average each rank second among all Division I returners.

RACKING UP RETURN YARDS: Alabama's punt return game has been an effective weapon for the Crimson Tide this season. The unit has amassed 420 return yards to lead the nation while averaging 16.8 yards per return, good for sixth in Division I.

BIG DAY FOR RETURNERS vs. ULM: The Crimson Tide's punt returners accumulated 262 yards against ULM on Sept. 17. The 262 yards broke a 75-year-old school record of 204 which was set on Nov. 22, 1947. It was 64 more punt return yards than the Tide totaled in 15 games during the 2021 season. Last year, JoJo Earle (88 yards) and Slade Bolden (87 yards) led the Tide in punt return yards. Against ULM, Kool-Aid McKinstry recorded 136 punt return yards while Brian Branch added 68 yards and a touchdown.

KOOL-AID AND THE WARHAWKS: Sophomore Kool-Aid McKinstry has taken on the Tide's punt returner role so far in 2022. He excelled in that role against ULM on Sept. 17, recording 136 yards on five punts for an average of 27.2 yards per return. The 136 yards are the third-most in a game in program history, trailing only Javier Arenas who set the school record with 153 against Tulane (Sept. 6, 2008) and owns the No. 2 spot with 147 in a matchup with Mississippi State (Nov. 15, 2008).

SERIES NOTES

THE ALABAMA-KANSAS STATE SERIES: Alabama and Kansas State will meet for the first time in the history of the two programs. The Crimson Tide has squared off with eight of the current 10 programs that make up the Big 12, missing only Kansas and the Wildcats. In 27 games against Big 12 opponents, Alabama holds an 11-14-2 (10-14-2 NCAA) record. The Tide's most recent pairing against a Big 12 team came on Sept. 10 of this season when UA traveled to Austin to take on then-No. 22 Texas. A late field goal by Will Reichard secured the 20-19 win for the Crimson Tide.

SABAN vs. KANSAS STATE: Alabama head coach Nick Saban has never faced Kansas State across his four stops as a collegiate head coach. Saban has only squared off with three current Big 12 programs - Oklahoma (2-1), Texas (2-1) and West Virginia (1-0). He holds a 5-2 overall record against those three schools, including a 4-1 mark during his time at Alabama.

GENERAL NOTES

ALABAMA DEGREES: Alabama's success on the field over the past 15 seasons under Nick Saban has coincided with the Tide's success in the classroom. The 2022 squad is no exception as the Crimson Tide entered the season with 14 student-athletes who already had their degrees in-hand and wore an SEC Graduate patch on their jersey in the season opener against Utah State. The list of graduates includes Bret Bolin, Darrian Dalcourt, DJ Dale, Justin Eboigbe, Emil Ekiyor Jr., Tyler Harrell, Amari Kight, Cameron Latu, Seth McLaughlin, Jaylen Moody, Kendall Randolph, Will Reichard, Jackson Roby and Tyler Steen. Additionally, the Tide saw 12 student-athletes earn their degree at the University's December graduation ceremonies. The group was comprised of eight student-athletes on the current bowl roster including Will Anderson Jr., Jordan Battle, Bolin, Dale (master's), DeMarcco Hellams, Henry To'oTo'o, Bryce Young and Byron Young. Since Saban's arrival in 2007, Alabama football has seen a total of 639 degrees earned, including 100 master's.

CHAMPIONS IN THE CLASSROOM: Alabama's achievements in the classroom have been most impressive during national title seasons. Those six squads (2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2020) included 139 student-athletes who had earned their degrees prior to game time. Last season, a total of 18 graduates suited up for UA in the College Football Playoff Semifinal against Cincinnati while the 2020 squad featured an NCAA-leading 25 graduates on its roster entering bowl season.

NEW HIRES: Saban's 2022 coaching staff features four new faces including Joe Cox (tight ends), Coleman Hutzler (special teams/outside linebackers), Travaris Robinson (cornerbacks) and Eric Wolford (offensive line).

ALABAMA'S TV RECORD: Alabama's matchup with Auburn on CBS was the Crimson Tide's 471st televised game. Alabama has compiled a 327-140-4 (.699) all-time record in televised games (not including pay-per-view, tape-delayed or closed-circuit telecasts).

191 NATIONAL TV APPEARANCES IN 205 GAMES: Alabama's contest Sugar Bowl matchup with No. 9/11/9 Kansas State will be the Tide's 191st nationally televised game since the start of the 2008 season, including every contest since the start of 2014.

ALWAYS IN THE HUNT: Since the 2008 season, Alabama has played in 172 of 178 regular season games that have had national championship implications. The final three games of the 2010 campaign and the final three weeks of the current season marked the only six regular season contests without direct national championship implications over the last 14 seasons.

170-9 UNDER SABAN WHEN LEADING AT THE HALF: Under head coach Nick Saban, Alabama is 170-9 (.950) when leading at the half. UA is also 153-4 (.975) when leading by seven or more points at the break during the Saban era. The Crimson Tide has held the lead at the half in 88 of its last 112 games (dating back to the start of the 2015 season).

SABAN MOVING UP SEC WINS LIST: Alabama head coach Nick Saban's 148 conference wins (including SEC championship games) are second on the SEC career conference wins list. Saban is first in league history for SEC regular season winning percentage at .827 (148-31). He is also second in SEC history in winning percentage in all games at .846 (237-43). Additionally, Saban is second on the league's career wins list at 237 victories.

MOST WINS BY ACTIVE HEAD COACH: Alabama head coach Nick Saban's 279 career wins are the most career victories by an active FBS head coach. Entering bowl season, Saban ranks just ahead of North Carolina's Mack Brown, who has 274, with LSU's Brian Kelly close behind in third, collecting 272 career wins across his stops.

Most Wins by an Active FBS Head Coach (as of Dec. 4, 2022)

	Coach	Current School	Wins
1.	NICK SABAN	ALABAMA	279
2.	Mack Brown	North Carolina	274
3.	Brian Kelly	LSU	272
4.	Kirk Ferentz	Iowa	197
5.	Willie Fritz	Tulane	196

SABAN AT No. 1: Alabama head coach Nick Saban has coached the most games as the Associated Press Poll's No. 1 team among active head coaches. Following the Oct. 8 victory over Texas A&M, Saban has coached 98 games as the nation's top-ranked team, which is 77 more games than second-place Dabo Swinney, who has totaled 21 games at No. 1. The third coach on the list is Kirby Smart at 15.

SABAN LEADS IN WINS vs. TOP-FIVE TEAMS: Alabama's 27-6 win over No. 4 Cincinnati in the 2021 College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic on Dec. 31 was Nick Saban's 29th career victory against a team ranked in the top five of the Associated Press Top 25 Poll, the most in college football history. Saban's 29-15 career record in top-five contests gives him a .659 winning percentage, which is also college football's best. Following Saban on the all-time victory list are Bobby Bowden (18/.378 winning percentage), Barry Switzer (15/.516), Woody Hayes (15/.516), Steve Spurrier (15/.429) and Lou Holtz (15/.419).

AGAINST THE TOP 10: Alabama owns an 84-79-1 (.515) all-time record against teams ranked in the top-10 of the Associated Press poll. Since the start of the 2008 season, the Crimson Tide has posted a 35-13 (.729) overall record against top-10 teams, including a 20-7 (.741) mark versus the top 10 since the inception of the College Football Playoff. In Saban's six national championship seasons at Alabama, his teams have gone 18-2 (.900) against top-10 opponents.

MORE THAN A DECADE AT No. 1: With Alabama's Aug. 15 preseason ranking at No. 1, the Crimson Tide has been ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll at least once each season since 2008. The 15-year streak is the longest by any program and coach in the history of the AP rankings. The previous long streak by any one team was seven seasons by Miami (Fla.) from 1986-92. The previous streak by one coach is six straight seasons, which was accomplished by Frank Leahy at Notre Dame in 1943 and continued from 1946-50 following an absence while Leahy served in the Navy.

TOUGH TO GET SABAN'S TIDE TWICE: During his tenure at Alabama, head coach Nick Saban has suffered 27 total losses. Of those 27 losses, the Crimson Tide and Saban have had the opportunity to face the team that beat them at a later date on 22 occasions. In those 22 rematches, Alabama owns a 20-2 mark when avenging its previous loss. The only two times the Crimson Tide has fallen in back-to-back games against the same opponent is LSU (2010-11) and Ole Miss (2014-15). Alabama has not yet had the opportunity to bounce back from a loss against Utah (2009), Clemson (2018), Georgia (2021), Tennessee (2022) and LSU (2022).

SIX RINGS IN 12 SEASONS: The Crimson Tide's win in the 2021 College Football Playoff National Championship Game helped Alabama claim its sixth national title in 12 seasons, making UA the first team in the Associated Press Poll era (since 1936) to win six championships over a 12-season span. The only other team in college football history to win six titles in a quarter of a century or less was also Alabama, coming across a 19-season stretch from 1961-79.

THREE DECADES OF SABAN: Alabama head coach Nick Saban has claimed six national titles during his time with the Crimson Tide and seven across his collegiate head coaching career. With Alabama's win in the 2021 College Football Playoff National Championship Game, Saban became the first head coach to win an Associated Press/Coaches Poll National Championship in three different decades - the 2000s, the 2010s and the 2020s. Saban's first national championship came in 2003 at LSU, six seasons before he came to Tuscaloosa and captured the crown in 2009. The 2010s saw Saban win national titles in 2011, 2012, 2015 and 2017, while his most recent one came on Jan. 11, 2021.

SIGN WITH THE TIDE, LEAVE WITH A RING: Since Nick Saban's arrival at Alabama in 2007, members of each one of his recruiting classes have won at least one national championship. The 2009 class tops the list with three to their name while the 2008, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2014, 2015 and 2017 classes each achieved two national titles during their time in Tuscaloosa. The 2007, 2013, 2016, 2018, 2019 and 2020 classes can each claim one national title with the latter group still having time to add to that number.

BAMA IN THE NFL

LEADING THE WAY TO THE NFL: Alabama has had more draft picks over the last 14 drafts (113) than any other program in the nation. An impressive 41 of those picks have been first-round selections. The list of 113 features 12 Super Bowl champions, 27 Pro Bowl selections, 14 First Team All-Pro members and one Offensive Rookie of the Year. The 2022 Draft featured seven former Alabama standouts that heard their name called across the three-day event, including first-rounders Evan Neal (New York Giants) and Jameson Williams (Detroit Lions).

2022 NFL DRAFT: The Crimson Tide saw seven former players selected in the 2022 NFL Draft, including two first-round picks in tackle Evan Neal (No. 7, New York Giants) and wide receiver Jameson Williams (No. 12, Detroit Lions). Wideout John Metchie III (Houston Texans) and defensive lineman Phidarian Mathis (Washington Commanders) were each taken in the second round with third-rounders in linebacker Christian Harris (Houston) and running back Brian Robinson Jr. (Washington) closing out day two. Defensive back Jalyn Armour-Davis rounded out the group of seven, going in the fourth round (Baltimore Ravens). Alabama has now produced multiple first-round picks in 11 of the last 14 NFL Drafts with single first-round selections in 2009, 2015 and 2016.

SABAN AND FIRST ROUND NFL DRAFT PICKS: Since the advent of the NFL Draft, Alabama head coach Nick Saban has produced the most first rounders of any NCAA Division I head coach with 46 players chosen in the opening round of the draft, including 41 while at Alabama. The Crimson Tide's two first-round selections in the 2022 NFL Draft extended Saban's all-time mark, producing 13 more first-rounders than second-place Joe Paterno (33). After the 2021 NFL Draft, Alabama became the first school in the modern draft era to have four wide receivers drafted in the first round in a two-year span (2020 – Henry Ruggs III, Jerry Jeudy; 2021 – DeVonta Smith, Jaylen Waddle) and one of just two schools (Oklahoma) to have quarterbacks selected in the first round in back-to-back years (2020 – Tua Tagovailoa; 2021 – Mac Jones). With the first-round selection of Tagovailoa in the 2020 NFL Draft, Saban has produced at least one first-rounder at every starting position on offense and defense during his illustrious collegiate head coaching career.

Most NFL First Round Draft Picks by Head Coach (Through 2021 Draft)

	Coach	School(s)	First Round Picks
1.	NICK SABAN	Toledo, Michigan State, LSU, Alabama	46
2.	Joe Paterno	Penn State	33
3.	Bobby Bowden	Samford, West Virginia, Florida State	32

CRIMSON TIDE IN THE NFL: Alabama entered Week 1 of the 2022-23 NFL season with a league-leading 58 players on active 53-man rosters. In total, the Crimson Tide currently has 71 players on an NFL roster (including reserve/practice squad). The Crimson Tide is represented on 28 of the NFL's 32 teams with only the Arizona Cardinals, Buffalo Bills, Kansas City Chiefs and San Francisco 49ers not currently rostering a former UA player. Below is a look at where former Crimson Tide standouts are currently playing.

LEADERS IN THE LEAGUE: Every year, the National Football League allows each of its 32 teams to name up to six captains. The start of the 2022-23 season saw eight former Crimson Tide players selected as one of the permanent captains for their respective squad. The list of captains to start the year included Jonathan Allen (Commanders), Najee Harris (Steelers), Derrick Henry (Titans), Jalen Hurts (Eagles), Mac Jones (Patriots), Xavier McKinney (Giants), C.J. Mosley (Jets) and Tua Tagovailoa (Dolphins). Since Week 1, Eddie Jackson (Bears) and Kareem Jackson (Broncos) have each been selected as permanent captains by their teams. Most recently, Josh Jacobs (Raiders) was named a permanent team captain prior to the start of Week 15.

TOTAL: [299-86-1, .776] 294-86-1 (.773)

• Saban has compiled a 284-69-1 (.804) record as a college head coach. He has claimed seven national championships — six at Alabama — 11 conference championships and 23 of his teams will have played in postseason bowl games, including a trip to the BCS National Championship Game following the 2003, 2009, 2011 and 2012 seasons and the College Football Playoff Semifinals in seven of the last nine seasons including six of the last eight CFP National Championship Games.

• Saban is the only coach to win four BCS national championships, the only coach to win back-to-back BCS national championships and the only coach to win three CFP National Championships. He has won seven titles in his last 17 years coaching college football, most recently capturing the CFP National Championship following the 2020 season. Saban is one of three college coaches in the poll era (since 1936) to win three national championships in four years (2009, 2011-12). His title in 2020 moved him past Paul "Bear" Bryant for the most national championships in the poll era with seven.

• In 2009, Saban produced Alabama's first national championship in 17 years by guiding the Crimson Tide to a 14-0 season with dominant wins over Florida in the SEC championship and Texas in the Citi BCS National Championship Game. He then followed that up with his second BCS championship in three years with a 21-0 shutout of LSU following the 2011 season at the Allstate BCS National Championship Game. Saban made it back-to-back BCS national championships in 2012 with a 42-14 win over Notre Dame in the Discover BCS National Championship Game. He took down Clemson, 45-40, to capture title No. 5 following the 2015 season in the CFP National Championship Game and took home his sixth national championship - and fifth at Alabama - in 2017 with a 26-23 overtime win over Georgia in the 2018 CFP National Championship Game. Saban's most recent title came in dominating fashion as the Crimson Tide defeated Ohio State, 52-24, in the 2021 CFP National Championship Game in Miami Gardens, Fla.

• In addition to the on-field success, the 2011 team was also recognized with the Disney Spirit Award, which was presented to snapper Carson Tinker, for the team's response to the community following the tornado that devastated Tuscaloosa on April 27, 2011. The Tide also had extensive success in the classroom that year with 38 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections, a league record, and produced an Academic All-American in Barrett Jones.

• A five-season run at LSU (2000-04) produced a record of 48-16 (.750), one national championship (2003), two Southeastern Conference championships and three SEC West Division championships. The Tigers constructed a 28-12 (.700) record against SEC opponents under Saban's guidance. He was named the 2003 National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and earned both the Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award by the Football Writers Association of America.

• Saban served as head coach at Michigan State from 1995-99, his second stint at the East Lansing school as he also spent 1983-87 as the Spartans' defensive coordinator/secondary coach. Saban led MSU to a 34-24-1 (.585) record as head coach, including four postseason appearances. In 1999, Saban led his final Spartans team to a No. 7 national ranking as MSU finished in a tie for second in the Big Ten. The Spartans defeated Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State in the same year for the first time since 1965 and recorded six wins at home for the first time since the 1912 season.

• Saban's first head coaching position came at the University of Toledo in 1990, as he guided the Rockets to a record of 9-2 that year, finishing as co-champions of the Mid-American Conference. The Rockets ranked among the NCAA leaders in both total defense (12th at 284.8 yards) and scoring defense (16th at 16.2 points) and missed posting an undefeated record by a mere five points.

• A native of Fairmont, W.Va., Saban is a 1973 graduate of Kent State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in business. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1975. Born October 31, 1951, Saban and his wife, the former Terry Constable, have two children, Nicholas and Kristen. They have one granddaughter, Amélie, and one grandson, James.

• At Michigan State, the Sabans started the Nick's Kids Foundation, which is dedicated to raising awareness for deserving organizations throughout the state of Alabama and the southeast. Thanks to the generosity of the donors and the efforts of Nick and Terry Saban, the Nick's Kids Foundation has donated over $10 million dollars to many deserving organizations and causes since arriving in Tuscaloosa.

• Personally, Nick and Terry have given over $1 million dollars to their First Generation Scholarship at The University of Alabama and have pledged $1 million dollars to The Crimson Standard Initiative. They have also made major contributions to their church, St. Francis Catholic Church, to build the Saban Catholic Student Center that was completed in August of 2016. Their most recent project is the Saban Center.

2022 RECAPS AND BOX SCORES

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 3 • BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM • TUSCALOOSA, ALA.
ATTENDANCE: 98,321 • TV: SEC NETWORK

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Alabama junior quarterback Bryce Young combined for 295 yards of total offense and six touchdowns to lead the top-ranked Crimson Tide past Utah State, 55-0, in front of 98,321 fans at Bryant-Denny Stadium. The Tide opened the season with a win for the 16th straight year under head coach Nick Saban.

Young finished the night with a team-leading and career-high 100 yards rushing (five rushes) while throwing for an additional 195 yards on 18-of-28 passing with five touchdowns. Running back Jahmyr Gibbs also played well in his Crimson Tide debut, finishing with 93 yards on nine carries. Juniors Traeshon Holden (five catches, 70 yards, two touchdowns) and Jermaine Burton (five catches, 35 yards, two touchdowns) combined for 10 receptions, 125 yards and four touchdowns to lead the aerial attack.

Redshirt senior Jaylen Moody paced all Tide defenders with five tackles, including one for loss and one quarterback hurry. In all, Alabama's defense accounted for five tackles for loss, four quarterback hurries and a forced fumble on the way to the team's first shutout in a season opener in 34 years.

The shutout victory marked the first time in 34 years that Alabama has opened the season without allowing a point to its opponent (defeated Temple, 37-0 on Sept. 10, 1988). Additionally, the 55-point margin is the largest margin of victory in a season opener in the Saban-era.

RV/22 TEXAS (1-1)	19

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 10 • DKR-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM • AUSTIN, TEXAS
ATTENDANCE: 105,213 • TV: FOX

AUSTIN, Texas — Alabama pulled out a 20-19 win over Texas at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium in Austin, Texas, on the strength of a 33-yard field goal by kicker Will Reichard with 10 seconds left on the game clock.

Reichard's effort as time wound down marked the first game-winning field goal in the last 30-seconds of a game for Alabama during the Nick Saban era - and first such win since the finale of the 2005 campaign. Reichard opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 52-yard field goal, which matched his career long.

After trading scores in the first half, resulting in a 10-10 tie going into the break, Texas hit three field goals in the second half, while the Tide responded with a touchdown and Reichard's game winner, both in the fourth quarter.

Running back Jase McClellan led all rushers with 97 yards on six carries, including an electrifying 81-yard touchdown in the first quarter. Running back Jahmyr Gibbs led the Tide with 74 receiving yards on nine catches, including a seven-yard touchdown catch from quarterback Bryce Young in the middle of the fourth quarter. Young went 27-of-39 for 213 yards and a touchdown while adding 38 rushing yards on seven carries.

Defensive back DeMarcco Hellams led the Tide defense with 10 tackles, including eight solo stops, while linebacker Jaylen Moody, defensive back Kool-Aid McKinstry and linebacker Will Anderson Jr. all recorded sacks on the day.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Alabama scored three non-offensive touchdowns and broke a 75-year-old school record for punt return yards with 262 in the Crimson Tide's 63-7 victory over ULM inside Bryant-Denny Stadium.

Quarterback Bryce Young threw for 236 yards and three touchdowns on 13-of-18 passing to help the Crimson Tide compile 509 yards of total offense on the day.

The Alabama ground game combined for 273 yards on 39 carries with four running backs rushing for 40-plus yards. Running back Roydeell Williams led the way with eight carries for 58 yards and a touchdown. Fellow running back Jahmyr Gibbs led the Tide in receiving yardage, totaling 65 yards and a touchdown on four grabs.

Defensive back DeMarcco Hellams led the Tide defense with nine tackles. Linebacker Henry To'oTo'o finished with eight tackles, two tackles for loss and a sack, while linebacker Will Anderson Jr. added five tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss, one sack and his first career interception return for a touchdown.

The Crimson Tide broke a 75-year-old school record by accounting for 262 total punt return yards — a record that was originally set on Nov. 22, 1947 when the Tide combined for 204 yards in a win over LSU. Kool-Aid McKinstry led the way after fielding five punts for 136 yards, the third-highest in a game in program history, trailing Javier Arenas who set the school record with 153 yards vs. Tulane (9/6/08) and has the second most with 147 against Mississippi State (11/15/08).

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Alabama flexed its muscle on both sides of the ball in a dominant 55-3 victory over Vanderbilt in the Southeastern Conference opener for both programs.

The Crimson Tide accumulated a season-best 628 yards of total offense that included 400 yards through the air while limiting the Commodores to just 123 yards of total offense and 14 rushing yards in the victory.

Quarterback Bryce Young finished the game with season-highs of 385 passing yards on 25-of-36 through the air, including four touchdowns, resulting in a 195.9 quarterback rating. Wide receiver Ja'Corey Brooks led all receivers with a career-best 117 yards and a pair of touchdowns on six catches — all of which came in the first half.

Jase McClellan (11-78-1) and Jamarion Miller (9-63-2) combined for 141 yards and three touchdowns on 20 carries to lead the ground attack.

Linebacker Will Anderson Jr. added three tackles for loss (-17 yards) and 2.5 sacks (-16 yards) as part of his five total tackles to lead the defense. Linebacker Henry To'oTo'o had six tackles and added a tackle for loss (-4 yards) to help make up the Crimson Tide's eight total tackles for loss in the contest (-40 yards).

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1 • DONALD W. REYNOLDS RAZORBACK STADIUM • FAYETTEVILLE, ARK.
ATTENDANCE: 75,579 • TV: CBS

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — The No. 2/2 Alabama football team piled up 317 rushing yards and tallied five rushing touchdowns on its way to a 49-26 win at No. 20/19 Arkansas.

Running back Jahmyr Gibbs led the Crimson Tide on the ground, compiling a career-high 206 rushing yards and a pair of touchdown runs. Both of his scores came in the fourth quarter when he scored from 72 yards and 76 yards to put the game out of reach.

The Crimson Tide played a majority of the contest without starting quarterback Bryce Young who suffered a shoulder injury midway through the second quarter and did not return. He finished with 173 yards through the air on 7-of-13 passing and accounted for a pair of scores (one each passing and rushing). Redshirt freshman Jalen Milroe stepped in for Young and had a strong performance combining for 156 yards of offense both through the air (65 yards and a touchdown on 4-of-9 passing) and with his feet (six rushes for 91 yards and a touchdown).

Wide receiver Kobe Prentice led the game in receiving, with 82 yards on four receptions, including one that went for a score.

Linebacker Henry To'oTo'o led the Tide defense with 10 total tackles, while defensive back Kool-Aid McKinstry tallied six solo stops. Linebacker Jaylen Moody and defensive lineman Jaheim Oatis both tallied sacks in the game. Defensive back DeMarcco Hellams forced a fumble and went on to recover it to complete the turnover.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Alabama's goal-line stand on the game's final play allowed the Crimson Tide to hold off Texas A&M, 24-20, inside a sold-out Bryant-Denny Stadium. Texas A&M had an opportunity to win it on the game's final play, but quarterback Haynes King's pass to the short corner of the end zone came up just short.

For a second consecutive week, it was the Crimson Tide's ground game that was the difference. After racking up 317 rushing yards in the win at Arkansas on Oct. 1, Alabama accounted for 293 total yards on the ground Saturday, led by running back Jahmyr Gibbs' 154 yards on 21 carries.

Quarterback Jalen Milroe, who made his first career start in the contest, rushed for 83 yards on 17 carries while also adding 111 yards through the air on 11-of-19 passing and three touchdown passes. Wide receiver Jermaine Burton led the Tide with 48 yards on three catches, including a touchdown, while wide receiver Ja'Corey Brooks tallied 44 yards on two receptions, including a touchdown.

Defensive back Brian Branch led the Alabama defensive unit with nine tackles including two tackles for loss and a pair of pass breakups. Cornerback Terrion Arnold finished with eight tackles and an interception while defensive back DeMarcco Hellams totaled seven tackles. Linebacker Will Anderson Jr. had just two tackles including one for loss, however, his eight quarterback hurries were the second-most in a single game in program history.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — The No. 3/1 Alabama football team fell at No. 6/8 Tennessee, 52-49, following a 40-yard Vols field goal that snuck over the crossbar and through the uprights as time expired. Tennessee's victory snapped a 15-game losing streak to the Crimson Tide in the series.

Coming back from a shoulder injury sustained at Arkansas on Oct. 1, Crimson Tide quarterback Bryce Young threw for a season-best 455 yards on 35-of-52 passing, including two touchdowns. Running back Jahmyr Gibbs rushed 24 times for 103 yards and three touchdowns on the day. A total of nine Alabama receivers caught passes against Tennessee, led by tight end Cameron Latu who reeled in six balls for 90 yards and a touchdown.

Defensive back DeMarcco Hellams led the Tide with 10 tackles including five solo stops, while also recording an interception. Defensive back Brian Branch totaled nine tackles with four solo stops while linebacker Henry To'oTo'o tallied five solo tackles and nine overall. Linebacker Dallas Turner scooped up a Volunteers fumble and returned it 11 yards for a defensive touchdown.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12 • VAUGHT-HEMINGWAY STADIUM • OXFORD, MISS.
ATTENDANCE: 65,923 • TV: CBS

OXFORD, Miss. – No. 9/10/11 Alabama scored on five of its last six possessions of the game, including four of its five second-half drives, to pull out a 30-25 come-from-behind victory over No. 11/11/9 Ole Miss Saturday night inside Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Trailing by as many as 10 points in the first half, the Crimson Tide chipped away at the deficit, using key stops on defense and clutch plays on offense to take and hold onto the lead in the second half.

Kicker Will Reichard went 3-for-3 on field goals with all three coming in the second half, including a pair in the final quarter. Reichard converted the game-winner from 23 yards out with 11:19 to go in the contest and then hit from 49 yards away to stake the Tide to a six-point lead with 1:29 left.

Quarterback Bryce Young finished 21-of-33 for 209 yards through the air with three touchdowns to lead the Tide's offense. Running back Jase McClellan paced Alabama in rushing with a career-high 19 carries totaling 84 yards. Jermaine Burton, Ja'Corey Brooks and Cameron Latu each caught a touchdown pass in the win with Burton leading UA in receptions (5) and Brooks leading in yards (61).

Defensively, Alabama was led by Byron Young's 11 tackles, which included a pair of sacks, to go with two quarterback hurries and a pass breakup. DeMarcco Hellams matched Young with 11 tackles while Terrion Arnold had 10 tackles, including nine solo stops, and a pair of pass breakups.

1926 ROSE BOWL

Alabama 20, Washington 19

PASADENA, Calif. (Jan. 1, 1926) — Trailing 12-0 at halftime, Coach Wallace Wade's Alabama team battled back in the second half to capture a thrilling 20-19 win over Washington in the Crimson Tide's first bowl outing. It was a game that was long remembered as one of the best contests in Rose Bowl history and Alabama's victory brought new and permanent national respect for Southern football.

Washington's great halfback, George Wilson, lived up to his pregame billing. He rushed for 134 yards and completed five passes for 77 yards and two touchdowns. But injuries put him out of the game for 22 minutes. It was during those 22 minutes that the Crimson Tide scored all of its points.

During the 38 minutes that Wilson was healthy and on the field, the Huskies scored three touchdowns and gained 300 yards. During the 22 minutes he was on the sidelines nursing an injury, Washington gained just 17 yards and failed to score, giving up all three scores that Alabama would need to win in the third quarter in what many considered the greatest Rose Bowl game played to that point.

"As George Wilson went, so went Washington," wrote famed sportswriter Damon Runyan. "If there was ever a one-man football team, George was it. When Wilson was on the field it was a ball game."

Wilson was named the game's most outstanding player, but his greatness was not enough to prevent an Alabama victory. Alabama had some stars of its own as quarterback "Pooley" Hubert and halfback Johnny Mack Brown wreaked havoc on the Washington defense, especially when Wilson was not on the field.

"He is a great football player, this George Wilson — one of the very greatest," Runyan wrote. "His brief absence probably made a big difference to Washington, but, still 'Pooley' Hubert was always on hand for Alabama. It was a great team that the South sent to California to take its part in the Tournament of Roses, probably the greatest that ever came out of the South."

Wilson missed the third quarter, and that's when Alabama scored its 20 points, all in seven minutes. First it was Hubert scoring from the one with Bill Buckler kicking the point after. After holding Washington and forcing a punt, Grant Gillis faded back from his own 41 and found Johnny Mack Brown at the Husky 25, who eluded one tackler and continued untouched on a 59-yard touchdown pass and run.

A fumble gave Alabama another chance at the Washington 30. On first down Hubert told Brown to run as fast as he could for the goal. "When I reached the three, I looked around," said Brown. "Sure enough, the ball was coming down over my shoulder. I took it in stride, used my stiff arm on one man and went over carrying somebody. The place was really in an uproar."

Washington scored a final time in the fourth quarter but couldn't overcome the Alabama lead.

1927 ROSE BOWL

Alabama 7, Stanford 7

PASADENA, Calif. (Jan. 1, 1927) — Alabama head coach Wallace Wade's Crimson Tide was invited to return for the 1927 renewal after another perfect season. His great backs of 1925 were gone, and he was not wealthy in reserves. But it was a team wealthy with colorful nicknames: "Lovely" Barnes, "Goofy" Bowdoin, "Snake" Vines and "Rosy" Caldwell.

The game matched two of college football's legendary coaches: Wallace Wade of Alabama and Glenn "Pop" Warner of Stanford. As usual, the Rose Bowl stadium was packed with record crowd of 57,417. Gross receipts were $218,047 — the highest ever. Approximately $100,000 was refunded.

Both teams entered the game undefeated and would end the game there, as well, with Stanford finishing 10-0-1 and Alabama 9-0-1 and sharing the national championship. Stanford was the No. 1 team in the nation under the Dickinson System, and awarded the Rissman Trophy, while Alabama was No. 1 in the Helms System (The Associated Press poll would not begin until 1936).

For Stanford, it was All-American Ted Shipkey doing most of the damage against the Crimson Tide. Stanford dominated the game statistically (305 total yards to 98) but played "stale" as one writer described it throughout. Fumbles were frequent and Stanford missed on two chances to score inside the 10-yard line. Stanford scored first on a 20-yard pass play from George Bogue to end Ed Walker, who ran the final 15 yards for the touchdown. Bogue, who had missed an 18-yard field goal earlier in the first period, then kicked the point-after and Stanford had a 7-0 lead that would last until the game's final moments.

After scoreless second and third quarters, it appeared Stanford was on its way to a shutout, but Alabama center Clarke "Babe" Pearce blocked a punt by Stanford's Frankie Wilton, giving Alabama the ball on the 14-yard line. Into the game went 170-pound Jimmy Johnston at halfback. A dislocated shoulder had prevented him from playing much that season, but he had been regarded as one of the finest backs in the South prior to the injury.

Wu Winslett started the march with a run for three yards, then Johnson raced forward for seven to the Stanford four-yard line. Winslett smashed for three yards to the one. Then Johnson banged into right guard, the resistance crumpling under his charge. It was 7-6 now and a ruse was coming up next.

As the teams lined up for the crucial extra point attempt with the crowd respectfully hushed, captain Emile Barnes barked signals. Suddenly, someone shouted "signals off." Stanford's line stood at ease in anticipation of another signal sequence. At that moment center Gordon Holmes snapped the ball to Winslett, who touched it down. Unrushed and with plenty of time, Herschel Caldwell smoothly kicked it through the posts and over the bar.

The 7-7 game ended three plays later.

1931 ROSE BOWL

Alabama 24, Washington State 0

PASADENA, Calif. (Jan. 1, 1931) — Head Coach Wallace Wade's last Alabama team before he left for Duke typified the personality of the coldly efficient strategist. Alabama crushed Washington State, 24-0, before a crowd of 60,000. Wade announced on New Year's Eve that he planned to start his second team. The sportswriters were incredulous. But Wade, who felt Alabama was two touchdowns better, meant it and, in fact, did open with his second unit.

The Cougars entered the field dressed completely in red from head to toe. Their helmets, jerseys, pants, socks and shoes were red. The ploy seemed to work early on, as the Cougars held the upper hand most of the first quarter but didn't come close to scoring.

Late in the period Wade inserted his first string and things began to pop. The Crimson Tide rushed for 21 points in the second quarter — much like its 20-point third quarter in 1926 that spelled defeat for a stunned Washington team — and another field goal in the third to win, 24-0. Much of the damage was done in a wild, six-minute stretch.

After 13 straight plays on the ground, from its own 39, Alabama left end Jimmy Moore returned and sped into his own backfield when the march reached the WSU 43-yard line. He received the ball from fullback Johnny Cain, took a few steps and spiraled a long pass downfield. Left halfback John "Flash" Suther gathered it in full stride on the Washington State 22 and raced untouched to the end zone to complete the 43-yard scoring play.

Crimson Tide center Jess Eberdt intercepted a Cougar pass on the WSU 47. From the WSU 41, Moore again passed, hitting end Ben Smith on the Cougar one where he outfought three Cougar defenders to make the catch. "Monk" Campbell powered in for the score from a yard out on the next play.

Lightning struck quickly the next time Alabama got the ball. Campbell, on a beautifully setup fake to Moore, shot through left guard, wriggled free of a State man's clutches and bolted 43 yards to score. In that quick stretch, the Crimson Tide had settled the issue for the day.

Wade's second team was on the field in the third quarter when the final points were registered. Guard J. B. "Ears" Whitworth, later head coach at Alabama, kicked a 30-yard field goal for the game's final points.

It was a dominant victory for the Crimson Tide. Alabama ran for 232 yards and passed for 101 for a total of 333 yards of total offense. Washington State only mustered 204 total yards and only once seriously threatened to score, fumbling its only real scoring chance on the Alabama 1-yard line.

Alabama 29, Stanford 13

PASADENA, Calif. (Jan. 1, 1935) — "Dixie Howell, the human howitzer from Hartford, Ala., blasted the Rose Bowl dreams of Stanford today with one of the greatest all-around exhibitions football has ever known," was the lead written by legendary sportswriter Grantland Rice. Alabama blasted Stanford, 29-13, with Howell teaming with the incomparable pass catching end, Don Hutson, to electrify the crowd of 84,474 with a 22-point second quarter explosion.

Stanford's "Vow Boys," named for their vow as freshmen to never lose again to USC after a loss to the freshman team in 1932, were now juniors. There was nothing tricky about Alabama's game this day — the Crimson Tide relied on the lethal, immortal connection of Howell and Hutson to pass for 214 yards.

In the entire calendar year of 1934 — including the 1934 Rose Bowl game — this Stanford team had given up a total of 21 points. In the 13 minutes before halftime in the 1935 Rose Bowl game, Alabama scored 22. In those 15 minutes, Alabama completed eight-of-nine passes for 150 yards and gained another 106 yards on the ground. Howell gained 96 yards in the air on four completions to Hutson and three more to end Paul "Bear" Bryant. Howell also had a sensational 67-yard sprint for a touchdown.

Alabama had the ball for four plays in the first quarter and collected four yards. Stanford actually opened the scoring. Recovering a fumble on the Alabama 29-yard line, Stanford — carried by Bobby Grayson, "Bones" Hamilton and "Buck" Van Dellen — thundered through the Alabama defense and marched straight to a 7-0 lead. Then came the Crimson Tide's reinforcements.

Howell completed a 17-yard pass to Hutson, then threw completions of 12 and 15 yards to other receivers before Howell scored from the five early in the second quarter to tie the game. As rules allowed in those days, Stanford chose to kick off as if to show Alabama's score was a fluke. Howell started the ensuing possession with a 25-yard pass to Hutson, then passed to Bryant for 18 and then back to Hutson for five more. On fourth down with the ball on the Stanford six, Hutson held while Riley Smith kicked a 22-yard field goal for a 9-7 Alabama lead. Still not convinced, Stanford stubbornly kicked off again.

On the second play following the kickoff, Howell swung to his right and swerved for the sidelines and raced 67 yards for a touchdown that sent the crowd to its feet, agog at this masterly piece of running. Alabama now led, 16-7.

Joe Riley replaced Howell at quarterback, but the results were similar. He hit Hutson with a 54-yard pass for a touchdown on Alabama's next possession to end the half and seal the verdict with a 22-7 Crimson Tide lead.

From the Alabama 41, the duo struck again. Hutson caught Howell's long spiral on the Stanford 30 and sprinted in from there for his second touchdown, this one spanning a total of 59 yards to close the scoring.

When Howell left the game in the fourth quarter after a 52-yard punt, he had accounted for 239 yards of total offense (71 yards rushing, 160 yards passing), while completing 9-of-12 passes, punted six times for an average of 43.8 yards, and returned four kickoffs for 74 yards. All told, he amassed 313 all-purpose yards. Hutson finished the day with eight catches for 164 yards and two scores.

1938 ROSE BOWL

[2] California 13, [4] Alabama 0

PASADENA, Calif. (Jan. 1, 1938) — Head Coach Frank Thomas' 1937 Alabama team was not one of his best, but none was better coached or accomplished quite so much with what it had. After four previously victorious trips to Pasadena, Alabama finally faced the other side of the outcome in its fifth Rose Bowl appearance as the Golden Bears of California dominated the Crimson Tide, 13-0.

This Crimson Tide team had experienced several close calls in the season on the way to this Rose Bowl berth. Sandy Sanford literally kicked his team to Pasadena, winning two crucial games with field goals. In the Tulane game, Sanford booted a 32-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter when Alabama had only six men on the line of scrimmage. The illegal formation was undetected by officials and the Tide won, 9-6. Later in the season, Sanford beat Vanderbilt, 9-7, with another late-game field goal. In the Rose Bowl, however, there was no opportunity for Sanford's heroics.

California, coached by Leonard B. "Stub" Allison, demonstrated too much power and speed, better balance, and some exceptionally skilled and rugged players in center Bob Herwig, end Perry Schwartz, quarterback Johnny Meek, guard Vard Stockton, and halfback Sam Chapman, the latter soon to become a major league outfielder.

But the star of the game was Vic Bottari, a junior tailback who started his career as a virtual nonentity on the Golden Bear squad. Bottari scored both touchdowns against Alabama on almost identical plays in the second and third quarters, quick, well-escorted trips around right end of three and five yards, respectively. Bottari rushed for 137 yards and both touchdowns in the game.

The scoring started soon after California's Sam Chapman punted to Alabama's safety, who was hit so hard by end Perry Schwartz that the ball squirted to the turf, and Schwartz recovered. California punched over the first touchdown to culminate a 63 yard, 13-play land march. Alabama couldn't check driving, brutal power smashes accompanied by paralyzing blocking. Bottari scored from four yards out to give the Golden Bears a lead they would never lose.

The second scoring drive, this one in the third quarter, was an uncanny resemblance of the first. California took over on the Alabama 48-yard line, and Chapman and Bottari led another hard-charging ground march that took nine plays (no passes) to reach paydirt. Bottari again punched it in, this time from 5 yards out. Chapman missed the extra point, but it wouldn't matter.

Alabama threatened twice in the game, reaching the Bears' 2- and 7-yard lines, but they fumbled both times. In fact, because of the four fumbles Alabama lost, the Cal victory was criticized as one wrought with bad breaks for the Tide that, inversely, were good breaks for the Bears. But the consensus was that those "breaks" were actually forced fumbles caused by strong, hard tackling by the Cal defenders.

1942 COTTON BOWL

[20] Alabama 29, [9] Texas A&M 21

DALLAS (Jan. 1, 1942) — It was the early days of World War II, so the nation's attention certainly wasn't focused on football, but what the crowd at the Cotton Bowl Stadium witnessed on the first day of 1942 would be long remembered as one of the most unlikely football games ever played. Alabama's opportunistic Crimson Tide whipped Texas A&M, 29-21, under very bizarre circumstances.

The Crimson Tide made only one first down while A&M had 13. Alabama gained only 75 yards total offense, as opposed to 309 for the Aggies. The Tide completed just one pass while A&M completed 13 and Alabama ran just 33 plays, as opposed to 81 by the Aggies. Yet the Tide led 29-7 midway in the fourth quarter and held off an Aggie rush at the end to wind up with what remains to this day one of the most amazing bowl wins in history.

In spite of all the statistical anomalies, the only significant statistics were seven Alabama pass interceptions and five fumble recoveries, for a total of 12 turnovers by A&M. Perhaps only one fact made the difference in this game — Alabama had Jimmie Nelson while the Aggies didn't.

The Aggies scored first. Leo Daniels set up the touchdown on his first play in the game by returning a punt 44 yards to the Alabama 18-yard line. Three plays later — on the second play of the second quarter — Daniels pitched a pass to end Herman Cowley for a 12-yard touchdown. Jake Webster's kick gave A&M a 7-0 lead.

Alabama responded less than three minutes later. Daniels fumbled and Alabama tackle Don Whitmire recovered the ball on the Aggie 25. Nelson connected with Holt Rast on a 17-yard pass to the Aggie 8. On third down, Nelson crossed up the Aggie defense on a beautifully executed reverse as he started to the right, then handed the ball to halfback Russ Craft, who raced to the left to go the eight yards for a touchdown.

Nelson stopped an Aggie threat with an interception in the end zone at the end of the first half to preserve the tie. Nelson then put the Tide ahead for good, taking Derace Moser's low line drive kick at the 28 and following a convoy of blockers to complete a 72-yard kickoff return for a touchdown and a 13-7 Crimson Tide lead. Hecht's try for the extra point was blocked.

Late in the third quarter, Nelson again scored. Daniels fumbled a Nelson punt and Alabama end Sam Sharp recovered at the Aggie 21. On the first play, Nelson started to the right, cut back through the Aggie left tackle and managed to avoid six tacklers on a 21-yard touchdown run. Hecht's conversion gave the Tide a 20-7 lead.

Early in the fourth quarter, an interception led to a 31-yard field goal by Hecht for a 23-7 Alabama lead. A Nelson punt that rolled dead on the Aggie 4-yard line enabled the Tide to the margin a short time later. Passing from his own 10-yard line, A&M's Moser fired a pass to Aggie end Jake Webster, who tipped it into the hands of Rast, who promptly returned the intercepted pass 12 yards for a touchdown. Hecht's conversion kick was blocked.

Alabama claimed its fourth victory in six bowl games. Alabama coach Frank Thomas clearly had his team prepared for the Aggies, the nation's leading passing team. The victory was a typical Alabama bowl victory as the Tide simply wasted few scoring opportunities; seizing every break and making them pay off.

1943 ORANGE BOWL

[10] Alabama 37, [8] Boston College 21

MIAMI (Jan. 1, 1943) — Stung by two first quarter Boston College touchdowns, Alabama's All-American center Joe Domnanovich called his team into a huddle as they awaited a kickoff. "Don't give up," he said, simply but firmly. "We haven't had a chance to go with the ball yet. We're going to receive and we're going to run them into the ground."

Twenty minutes later, at halftime, Alabama was in front, 22-21, and won the game, 37-21.

Mike Holovak, the Eagles' swift-striding right halfback, scored on runs of 65 and 35 yards to put Boston College in front early. Then Alabama went to work.

Russ Craft, Dave Brown, Johnny August and Russ Mosley tore off big chunks of turf and the Eagle defense caved in. Bobby Tom Jenkins raced 40 yards for one score. Boston College made a comeback effort and went ahead 21-19 just before halftime, but George Hecht booted a 25-yard field goal to put Alabama on top, 22-21, at intermission. The Tide added 15 more points in the second half.

Wheeler Leeth scored on a 14-yard pass from Mosley, Ted Cook grabbed a 17-yard scoring aerial from August, Jenkins scored twice on runs of 40 and one, and August faked a pass and ran around right end for a 15-yard score. Hecht kicked a field goal and two extra points and Domnanovich even put two points on the board by tackling an Eagle in the end zone for a safety.

Bill Cullingham, a columnist for the Boston Post, wrote, "When you're beaten as clearly and as splendidly as was Boston College today, the only thing to do is stand and salute as the victors go by. It was a fine game, played in the truest tradition of sportsmanship, brilliantly won and gallantly lost in a magnificent setting, so in taste with the times that none who saw it will ever forget it."

1945 SUGAR BOWL

[11] Duke 29, Alabama 26

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 1945) — To say that the 1945 Sugar Bowl game was charged with drama every minute, it wouldn't be much of an exaggeration. The lead changed four times. The outcome was uncertain until the last second.

The heart-throbbing finish pulled 72,000 people out of their seats. In the final analysis, it was the power and experience of Duke's Navy trainees that prevailed over Alabama's inspired wartime civilian group, 29-26.

Harry Gilmer hit the tough Duke line hard for important gains and made many tackles, personally downing the Blue Devils ball carrier after every kickoff. One of Gilmer's passes stood out. Forced far back, Gilmer tripped over one Duke man. Two more Blue Devils got a piece of him. Suddenly, he broke loose for an instant, leaped high, and whipped the ball 41 yards to Ralph Jones, a big end.

On the game's final play, Gilmer fired another long pass to Jones, who just missed scoring a touchdown on a 33-yard gainer to Duke's 25. It was written and said that, at the time, never had one so young performed so brilliantly in a bowl game.

Duke led early, 7-0, but Gilmer's aerial attack set up three Crimson Tide touchdowns before Duke could score again, making it 19-13 at halftime.

Trailing 20-19 early in the fourth quarter, Alabama threw back the Blue Devils on the Tide 12. But the Crimson Tide surged forward again, this time with Hugh Morrow intercepting a Cliff Lewis pass and running 78 yards for the score.

Duke took the kickoff and drove to the Alabama 1-yard line before the Crimson Tide held on a goal-line stand, getting the ball back on downs.

With three minutes remaining, Alabama coach Frank Thomas took a calculated risk and sent in orders to give up two points through an intentional safety. Thomas hoped for a long, high punt from the 20 by John Wade, who would have plenty of time.

The strategy backfired. The punt sailed 40 yards. Duke's George Clark returned it 20 yards to Alabama's 40, from where the Blue Devils cracked the Tide defense for the winning touchdown in two inspired runs.

1946 ROSE BOWL

[3] Alabama 34, [11] USC 14

PASADENA, Calif. (Jan. 1, 1946) — This was Alabama's sixth trip to the Rose Bowl and, although the Crimson Tide had enjoyed great success against the West Coast powers, a lot of that region's news media and fans had always said, "You've never played USC." There wasn't much of that commentary after the outcome of this one as Alabama won, 34-14.

At halftime, Alabama led 20-0. Troy's 21 plays had resulted in a net loss of 24 yards. Not until the score was 27-0 in the third quarter did USC make a first down.

Alabama's "wooden horse" toppled the men of Troy like no team ever before. USC had won eight straight Pasadena battles since 1923. Fortunately, Alabama head coach Frank Thomas was merciful. For Thomas it was his last bowl trip as a coach. His health began to fail in 1946 and he was forced to give up coaching in 1947. He died May 10, 1954.

Alabama outgained USC 351 to 41. Troy's running offense netted just six yards.

Harry Gilmer, the Crimson Tide's extraordinary passer, threw only 11 times, resulting in one touchdown. But he ran for 116 yards on 16 carries. Hal Self scored twice, sneaking over from the one and on a 24-yard Gilmer pass. Gilmer went over from the one, and Lowell Tew hit left guard from the two for points and Norwood Hodges scored up the middle on a one-yard plunge. Hugh Morrow kicked four extra points.

The resounding victory assured Thomas a place among the all-time coaching greats. Some 15 years later, Alabama team captain Tom Whitley remarked: "Coach Thomas's system would go today. He used innovations no scout could capture with notes and against which no defense could be surely set."

1948 SUGAR BOWL

[5] Texas 27, [6] Alabama 7

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 1948) — It is a peculiar fact that some of the most celebrated backs in the Southeastern Conference came to grief in New Orleans in their final game. Names coming to mind of those so ill-fated are Billy Cannon (1960), Johnny Majors (1957), Hank Lauricella (1952), and Harry Gilmer (1948).

Three years before, Gilmer, the Alabama sharpshooter, had heard the multitudes' roar of applause in the Sugar Bowl. It was a far cry from the reaction of 72,000 fans who saw Texas thwart Gilmer and the Crimson Tide, 27-7. He completed only three of his 11 passes and ran for a mere five yards. Loudest cheers went to Texas quarterback Bobby Layne. He sent the ball aloft 24 times and made connections ten times for 183 yards.

Both ground attacks were virtually ineffective as Alabama rushed for 41 yards and Texas to 59.

The Tide was not outplayed to the extent the score would indicate. The difference could have been a touchdown. The first half ended in a 7-7 standoff. Texas' last three touchdowns were achieved by defensive alertness. Or, to say it another way, Alabama committed three expensive errors — having a punt blocked, having a pass intercepted and run back for a touchdown, and fumbling deep in its own territory.

The left side of the Longhorns' line swarmed into the backfield when Norman Mosley tried to punt from Alabama's 25 in the third quarter. Left tackle George Petrovich blocked the kick and left guard Vic Vasicek recovered in the end zone for a touchdown.

Alabama appeared to wilt after that but displayed the heart to stall Texas drives twice within its 10. Then, with six minutes left and the Tide gambling to tie or win, Gilmer was rushed hard and threw desperately over oncoming Longhorns' upraised arms. End Lewis Holder intercepted the soft, short, high pitch. He raced for the red flag at the corner of the field 18 yards away, just making it in.

A few plays after that, Holder pounced on a Gilmer fumble five yards from another touchdown. Layne scored that one on a sneak.

In addition to the times they reached the promised land the Longhorns, in writing a brilliant finale to Blair Cherry's first season as head coach, missed the boat on several other occasions. In the second quarter Texas went from the Alabama 46 to the 12 where Rebel Steiner knocked down Layne's fourth down pass intended for Billy Pyle, who was a great back all afternoon.

Again in the third quarter, Texas went from the Alabama 45 to the 27 where another passing attack died. But the Steers came back knocking and went to the seven before bogging down. Layne finally attempted a field goal from the 15, but it was partially blocked. Texas also missed a third score in the fourth period when a 65-yard drive carried all the way to within one foot of the Crimson Tide goal. But there the center of the Crimson forward wall rose up and smacked down Jimmy Canady on a try through the middle.

The result was a shock to Alabama followers who expected the large senior contingent, stars of freshman and sophomore appearances in bowl games, to finish in grand fashion. Texas was faster, more powerful, and deserved to win.

1953 ORANGE BOWL

[9] Alabama 61, [14] Syracuse 6

MIAMI (Jan. 1, 1953) — New Year's Day 1953 was the first on which football fans could see, through the medium of television, bowl games in Pasadena, Dallas, New Orleans, and Miami. Receipts increased greatly with bigger checks for competing schools and their conference brethren.

Meanwhile, Alabama crushed Syracuse, champion of the East, 61-6, in the Orange Bowl. Many in the crowd of 66,280 left in the third quarter so they could see more of other bowl games on TV at home.

Because the game was lasting so long, an Orange Bowl committee man reportedly approached the timekeeper and suggested the game, nearly three hours old at the time, might be sped up because it was about to be cut off the network.

Fifteen records were set in the fiasco, televised nationally by CBS. Even the deepest Alabama substitutes among the 46 Crimson Tide players were record-minded. "We didn't want to leave any still standing," explained tackle Van Marcus.

Alabama rushed for 286 yards and passed for 300. Its total offense of 586 yards and the sum of 818 for both teams were Orange Bowl records.

It was a close contest for a quarter when Alabama led, 7-6. After two periods the score was 20-6. And in the second half, "I just couldn't stop them," said Coach Harold (Red) Drew, a native of Maine who came to Alabama as end coach under Frank Thomas and developed Don Hutson, Paul Bryant, and Holt Rast, among others.

Soon after the game the Orange Bowl committee signed contracts with the Big Eight (then Big Seven) and the Atlantic Coast Conference. Their representatives met for the next five years.

1954 COTTON BOWL

[6] Rice 28, [13] Alabama 6

DALLAS (Jan. 1, 1954) — Rice's Dicky Moegle rolled back the Crimson Tide with one of the greatest exhibitions of football history, scoring touchdowns on runs of 79, 95 and 34 yards while gaining a total of 265 yards as the Owls swamped Alabama, 28-6 in the Cotton Bowl.

On Moegle's second touchdown run, one of the weirdest events in bowl history occurred when Alabama fullback Tommy Lewis leaped off the bench as Moegle was roaring past, along the 45-yard line, and downed him with a fierce block. At the time, Moegle was steaming along with only one man having a chance — and that a doubtful one — of stopping him.

Rice was leading, 7-6, midway in the second quarter. The Owls were in possession on their own 5. Alabama had just muffed a scoring opportunity. Moegle, taking a handoff from quarterback LeRoy Fenstemaker, went around right end as his blockers did their job efficiently and headed for the Alabama goal line.

As Moegle approached midfield near the sidelines in front of the Alabama bench, it appeared no player could stop him. No one, that is, except Lewis, who was on the bench, and suddenly ran onto the field bareheaded, and threw his body into Moegle's legs. Moegle was felled on Alabama's 41. Then the alternate captain of the Tide retreated quickly to the spot he had vacated and sat there with his head down in embarrassment as Coach Red Drew stood before him and looked at Lewis in disbelief. Referee Cliff Shaw ruled that Moegle should be credited with a touchdown. The play had started on the Owl 5-yard-line and thus was good for 95 yards.

Although Tide coach Harold (Red) Drew said the Lewis incident had no demoralizing effect on his team, the Southeastern Conference champions were never the same again. A letdown was evident.

It was Lewis who plunged the final foot for a touchdown on a 47-yard advance in the first quarter. Rice went ahead on a 79-yard run by Moegle. Moegle scurried 34 yards for another touchdown in the third period as he gained 265 yards of his team's whopping 379 rushing yards. He carried the ball only 11 times, averaging 24.1 yards. After this game, Moegle held four Cotton Bowl records and three all-time major bowl records.

In the third quarter, Moegle sizzled through right tackle and went 34 yards to score. In the final period, he almost did it again as he raced 20 yards down the right sideline. Center Ralph Carrigan caught Moegle by a heel to prevent him scoring again. The Owls gained a total of 448 yards to Alabama's 225. Moegle was the difference in the game. Except for his unbridled running, the affair might have been close. Rice was hampered by the early loss of its All-American fullback Kosse Johnson, who went out in the first period when his ailing ankle was sprained again.

The scoring action began when quarterback Bart Starr stole a Rice pass to put the ball in Alabama's possession on the Owl 49. Lewis surged through the middle of the line for 15 yards. On a keeper play, Starr got 12 through left tackle. Lewis got 13 more in two tries to put the ball on the 5. Rice was offside on the next play. With the ball on the 1, Lewis managed to get the ball to within inches of the goal line and then leaped high for the touchdown. The Rice line rolled him back, but he had crossed the line with his forward motion. The extra point try of Halfback Bobby Luna was blocked and Alabama led 6 to 0.

1959 LIBERTY BOWL

(12) Penn State 7, (10) Alabama 0

PHILADELPHIA (Dec. 19, 1959) — Quarterback Galen Hall led Penn State to a 7-0 victory over Alabama in the first Liberty Bowl game. Hall's pass to Roger Kochman on a fake field goal was good for 18 yards and the touchdown on the last play of the second period. Sam Stellatella added the extra point by placement and that was the ball game.

Fumbles plagued both clubs, each team losing the ball four times. In addition, Alabama recovered three of its own. The rash of fumbles was attributed to the 42-degree temperature that seemed colder because of a brisk wind.

Penn State completely dominated the first half but fizzled on three scoring chances before finally breaking through. The Nittany Lions fumbled and lost the ball on the Alabama eight in the first period. In the second quarter, they got to the one, but Hall's fourth down pass misfired. A field goal attempt by Stellatella from the Alabama 12 was blocked by Billy Richardson.

After a four-yard punt against the stiff wind by Tommy White, Penn State had one more chance on the Alabama 22 with less than a minute to go. They ran off one play, gaining four yards, and then came Hall's scoring pass to Kochman. This was the trickery coach Rip Engle had promised. It was Penn State's first fake field goal of the season.

Hall took over early in the second period after Lucas left the game because of a hip injury. Penn State's talented triple threat quarterback never got back into the ball game. While he was in, Lucas gained 54 yards in nine carries and completed one of four passes for 23 yards. Lucas, however, was the leading ground gainer.

On the fake field goal, Hall appeared to be ready to hold the ball for Stellatella's kick. Instead, he bounced up and pitched to Kochman, who made his way through the startled Alabama defense. It was Alabama's first defeat since its opening loss to Georgia, and Penn State's ninth victory in 11 games.

Two beautiful quick kicks by Gary O'Steen that carried 61 and 64 yards with the help of a following wind, kept Penn State penned up most of the first period. Still the Nittany Lions managed an 89-yard march to the Alabama 1 before Don Cochran, who recovered two fumbles, pounced on a ball jarred loose from Kochman.

Jay Huffman was named the outstanding lineman of the day for his fine center play and excellent linebacking. Engle's Penn State club, which has used a variety of formations in a successful season, leaned heavily to the unbalanced line with both ends on the same side of the center. In the dressing room, Alabama coach Paul "Bear" Bryant had this comment: "We just got a good old sound thrashing."

It was Penn State's first bowl victory in three attempts. In the dressing room, Coach Engle smiled as he said, "We beat them at their own game - defense."

A crowd of 36,211 braved the elements at cavernous Philadelphia Municipal Stadium (later named John F. Kennedy Stadium).

1960 BLUEBONNET BOWL

(9) Alabama 3, Texas 3

HOUSTON (Dec. 17, 1960) — A pair of linemen provided all the scoring as Texas and Alabama battled to a 3-3 deadlock in the second annual Bluebonnet Bowl played in Rice Stadium. A crowd of 68,000 saw Alabama End Tommy Brooker boot a 30-yard field goal in the third period to put the Crimson Tide out front. Then Texas tackle Dan Petty kicked a 20-yard field goal with just 3:44 left to play as the underdog Longhorns tied the score.

Alabama, with a 7-1-1 season record, went into the game as a slim one-point favorite. Except for one strong Alabama threat in the fading seconds of the first period, the game was one of booming punts by Texas' Bobby Nunis and Alabama's Laurien Stapp. The defenses played a mighty role in the game. Texas contained one Alabama drive on the one-yard line, and the Tide blunted Texas' offense and kept the Longhorns bottled up in their own end of the field most of the game.

Alabama got its score midway in the third period. Texas was forced to punt. Nunez' kick was taken on the Tide 40 by Bill Piper, who returned all the way to the Texas 34. Pat Trammel and Mike Fracchia worked to the 28 on two plays. Skelton hit and Norbie Ronsonnet with a pass on thee 14. Wilson carried to the 13 and then the Tide lost two downs on incomplete passes.

With fourth down and seven needed for a first down, the Tide elected to try a field goal. The ball was spotted on the 20-yard line and Brooker neatly toed it through the uprights with 7:21 remaining in the period.

Texas took the following kickoff and marched from the 23 to the Alabama 19 and bogged down. Petty came in for a field goal try. The ball was spotted on the 25, but Petty's kick was wide to the left. The big gainer in the Texas march was a 38-yard pass play from Mike Cotten to James Saxton. Texas finally broke into the scoring deep in the last period.

The Longhorns took over on a punt on the 26 and marched to the Tide three in 13 plays. A personal foul against Alabama aided the Texans in a key spot.

Texas pulled a fake field goal on the seven. Petty went in to boot, but instead of kicking, Cotton flipped a pass to Jack Collins on the four. Texas kicked its game-tying field goal on a fourth down and three situation. The ball was spotted on the 10 and Petty kicked good.

Alabama tried to come back via passes, but only got as far as the Texas 35. Texas mustered enough drive to move back into Bama territory and Petty attempted his third field goal try of the day from the 25. The kick was made just as the final gun sounded, but the kick was wide.

Statistics showed Texas had the best offense of the day, picking up 11 first downs to four and outgaining the Tide 124 yards to 65 on the ground. Alabama picked up 151 yards passing to 108 for Texas.

1962 SUGAR BOWL

(1) Alabama 10, (9) Arkansas 3

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 1962) — Alabama's defense proved to be the difference once again as the national collegiate football champs carved out a 10-3 victory over stubborn Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl Classic.

Alabama wasted no time in lighting up the scoreboard. With only eight minutes gone in the opening period, the Crimson Tide moved 79 yards, with Fullback Mike Fracchia's 43-yard dash to the Porker's 12 highlighting the march. Quarterback Pat Trammell, who called a near perfect game, carried the remainder of the way on a rollout.

A record crowd of 82,910 watched as Tim Davis booted a 32-yard field goal in the second period to put Alabama out in front, 10-0.

Coach Frank Broyles' Razorbacks, finding it hard to puncture Bama's granite like defense, cut the Tide's lead to seven points when Mickey Cissell split the uprights with a 23-yard field goal in the third period. Alabama Head Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, who guided the Crimson Tide to a perfect season (11-0), was bubbling with joy.

"I thought it was a great game," Bryant said with a smile. "I'm as proud of them as if the score had been 100-0. We came to play. Our boys rose up real well and stopped them on the big plays."

"Fracchia didn't let them catch their breath with his shots up the middle and Trammell, like always, did whatever he had to do. Our boys did a good job stopping Lance Alworth. He's a good competitor, but we just didn't give him a chance today. If we had, it could have been a different ball game."

Trammell, the Southeastern Conference total offensive leader in 1961, repeatedly picked up yardage with his seemingly slow style of running. However, the decisive factor was the hot pursuit of the Alabama line. The Crimson Tide, champions of the SEC, showed why they had the best defensive record in the country in 1961. They swarmed into the Arkansas backfield all afternoon. At the end of the first half, Alabama halted a Razorbacks drive on its own 10 and in the third period, halted the Hogs on the seven.

"We knew when we went into the game that we were going to have trouble grinding out yardage against this team," Broyles said. "But, we never thought it would be this hard. We just couldn't get our offense going. I guess the main reason was Alabama's great defense. Bama's offense was just what we expected - tough and aggressive. Our boys were tight and uneasy in the first half. That didn't help, but when you're playing the number one team in the nation, you expect that. In the second half, I thought we did a respectable job."

The game ended almost like it started, on a note of high drama. It started when Arkansas surged down the field with Alworth catching a 31-yard pass from quarterback George McKinney on the Alabama 43, only to fumble. After failing to move, Alabama punted to the Razorbacks' 20. Two plays later, Arkansas was the beneficiary of a pass interference call that gave the Razorbacks the ball on the Tide 40. McKinney immediately went to the air again, tossing one that barely eluded Alworth's hands at the goal line.

Alabama knocked down another pass and then Butch Wilson jumped high to intercept a third and stepped out of bounds inches short of the goal. Trammell butted up the middle three times and failed to budge the Razorbacks' line.

1963 ORANGE BOWL

(5) Alabama 17, (8) Oklahoma 0

MIAMI (Jan. 1, 1963) — In the Alabama dressing room after the Crimson Tide's 17-0 Orange Bowl victory over Oklahoma, a photographer asked Coach Paul Bryant to spell the name of a player whose picture he had just taken.

"That's Namath, son — N-A-M-A-T-H," Bryant said. "But don't worry about it. You'll learn how to spell it in the next couple of years."

If the photographer was unfamiliar with the name, the crowd of 73,380 that attended the 1963 Orange Bowl game — and millions more watching on television — were not.

Long before that game, Bryant said the precocious young man from Pennsylvania was ahead of Babe Parilli (whom he coached at Kentucky) as a sophomore. He rated Namath "potentially the finest quarterback I've ever coached."

Namath piloted his team 61 yards in ten plays for a touchdown in the first quarter. From the Oklahoma 5-yard line, he faked a handoff and a short pass, whirled, and sailed a long pass into end Richard Williamson's hands in the end zone.

A sleight of hand pitch-out to halfback Cotton Clark resulted in a 15-yard scoring sprint in the second period. It was the third play after Billy Piper returned a punt by Joe Don Looney to the Sooners' 34. First, Namath threw a pass to Williamson, good for 20 yards.

Next, and finally, Namath conducted a Tide surge from Oklahoma's 33 to the two-yard line. There, it was fourth down. Tim Davis, Alabama's placekicker, toed a 19-yard field goal. This third quarter opportunity arose when Looney, the nation's leading punter with an average of 43.4 yards, was hurried by guard Frankie McClendon's rush and got off a kick of only seven yards.

Lee Roy Jordan was as fine a linebacker as has ever played in the South. Perhaps no one in college football in 1962 had his almost instinctive ability to seek out the ball carrier so quickly and bring him down so abruptly. It is doubtful if Bryant ever praised a player quite as much.

Jordan finished the game with an Alabama bowl record 31 tackles.

Fifteen seniors finished the best three years (29-2-2) Alabama had ever known to that point in football. Only a matter of a few inches, the distance by which Jack Hurlbut failed to make a two-pointer after the only touchdown against Georgia Tech (Tech won, 7-6), separated the Tide from two straight national championships.

1964 SUGAR BOWL

(8) Alabama 12, (7) Ole Miss 7

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 1964) — This was no ordinary Sugar Bowl game. It snowed on the eve of the game and that was just the first of some unusual occurrences.

With junior standout quarterback Joe Namath suspended for disciplinary reasons, sophomore Steve Sloan, showing the poise and savvy of a veteran, guided the Crimson Tide to a 12-7 victory over the heavily favored Ole Miss Rebels, but it took four Tim Davis field goals to turn the trick.

Davis's kicks of 31, 46, 22 and 48 yards earned the senior from Columbus, Ga., the Outstanding Player award. His four field goals were a bowl record and his 48-yarder was the longest in bowl history at the time.

It was 3-0 after the first quarter, 9-0 at halftime and 12-0 going into the final quarter. The Rebels finally got on the scoreboard when Larry Smith took a five-yard pass from Perry Lee Dunn. Billy Irwin kicked good and it ended just that way, 12-7, Alabama.

With snow piled on the edge of the playing field, the Tide put on a great display of how to win under adversity. The alert Crimson Tide gobbled up six Rebels fumbles and intercepted three Rebels passes. And while Ole Miss piled up more yardage (248 to 194), it was Alabama that controlled the football by running 69 plays to only 48 for the Rebels.

In the final quarter the Tide defense stopped the Rebels on Alabama's 2, 9 and 28-yard lines to seal the verdict.

1965 ORANGE BOWL

(5) Texas 21, (1) Alabama 17

MIAMI (Jan. 1, 1965) — Favoring a knee that he had severely injured earlier in the 1964 season, Alabama quarterback Joe Namath put on a memorable show while nearly pulling out a comeback victory, but the Texas Longhorns rose up to stop Namath inches short of the goal line late in the game to win, 21-17, over the national champion Crimson Tide.

Namath was a shoo-in for the game's Most Valuable Player honors, hitting on 18 of 37 passes for 255 yards and two touchdowns. All of this after his knee was hurting so much that he couldn't start the game.

Texas struck first, scoring with just 23 seconds left in the first quarter when big Ernie Koy sped 79 yards. In the second period, Jim Hudson fired a 69-yard bomb to George Sauer to put Texas on top, 14-0.

The Tide battled back, marching 87 yards, with Namath passing seven yards to sophomore Wayne Trimble for the score.

Texas got a couple of breaks for its next score just before halftime. The Longhorns were seemingly stopped and went for a field goal. Alabama's Creed Gilmer raced through to block it and David Ray recovered for the Tide and rambled three yards before fumbling. Texas recovered to regain possession.

On the next play Hudson went back to pass and was dumped by Jim Simmons for a loss, but on the play, Alabama was guilty of holding a receiver down field and it gave the Horns a first down on the Tide 13. Three plays later, Koy went around right end from the one and it was 21-7 at halftime.

Namath then put the Tide into motion in the second half. He hit Tommy Tolleson, Wayne Cook and Ray Perkins for passes to move to the Texas 20, then hurled a perfect strike to Perkins for the score. In the fourth quarter, Namath got the offense going again, only to bog down and have to settle for a David Ray field goal to cut it to 21-17.

Jimmy Fuller intercepted a Texas pass in the fourth quarter, then Namath and Steve Bowman moved the ball within inches of the Longhorn goal, but on fourth down, linebacker Tommy Nobis and the Texas line stopped Namath and ended Alabama's hopes.

Moments later, when Alabama swarmed into the offensive again, Pete Lammons, who played a titanic role for Texas on defense, snared a pass on the Texas 32, and that was the ball game. There was less than three minutes to play and time ran out for Alabama.

Koy, son of a former major league baseball player, was the leading ground gainer of the game. He ran for 145 yards in 24 tries for a 5.5 average.

Alabama's leading ground gainer was Bowman, with 23 yards in 10 carries. This gave an indication of the might of the Texas defense, rated fifth best in the country on the ground.

Steve Sloan, who started the game at quarterback for Alabama on a fragile knee hurt in the season's final game, threw seven times for 43 yards. He and Namath threw 44 passes between them — an Orange Bowl record at the time.

1966 ORANGE BOWL

[4] Alabama 39, [3] Nebraska 28

MIAMI (Jan. 1, 1966) – The third-ranked Nebraska Cornhuskers and the fourth ranked Alabama Crimson Tide both entered their Orange Bowl matchup with longshot aspirations at the National Championship. Things looked up by game time as number one ranked Michigan State was upset by UCLA in the Rose Bowl and number two ranked Arkansas fell victim to LSU in the Cotton Bowl. The scene was set for the winner of the Orange Bowl to claim the national crown.

The Orange Bowl featured two explosive offensive teams with different approaches to their attack. Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide used the accurate throwing arm of quarterback Steve Sloan to rebound from an early season loss to Georgia and a tie with Tennessee, while Bob Devaney's Cornhuskers hit the ground running averaging 290 rushing yards per game and 32.1 points per game.

Alabama took the first lead five and a half minutes into the game. Sloan guided the Tide on a 61-yard drive to score on a 21-yard pass play to Ray Perkins. Perkins grabbed the scoring pass at the 15 and wiggled away from a pair of defenders to skip into the end zone.

The Huskers rallied back early in the second to tie the score. The first Husker tally came on a 33-yard pass from quarterback Bob Churchich to end Tony Jeter. Alabama coach Bear Bryant gave quarterback Steve Sloan the green light to throw on any down who then opened up an offensive onslaught to bury the Huskers by halftime.

Alabama scored two touchdowns and a field goal in the second period to post a 24-7 lead by halftime. The first score followed a 39-yard Sloan to Perkins pass that took the ball down to the NU 13. Leslie Kelley took the ball over from 4 yards out for the touchdown. The second score followed a 93-yard Tide drive, capped by an 11-yard pass from Sloan to Perkins. A David Ray field goal later in the period sent the teams to the locker rooms with the Tide sporting a 17-point lead.

Nebraska pulled back into the game early in the third period on a 49-yard touchdown pass from Churchich to Ben Gregory, but the point-after kick was missed. The Tide lengthened their lead with a 1-yard touchdown run by Steve Bowman and a two-point conversion to make the score 32-13 after three periods.

Nebraska wasn't ready to give up in the fourth period. Churchich scored his first touchdown of the day on a 1-yard plunge. Alabama kept the comeback in check later in the period by turning in another Bowman touchdown run, this time from three yards out. Nebraska added a late 14-yard touchdown pass from Churchich to Tony Jeter, but it wouldn't be enough as the Crimson Tide claimed the National Championship with a 39-28 Orange Bowl win.

Sloan's 20 for 28 passing performance broke the Orange Bowl pass completion record, set just one year prior by fellow Tide quarterback Joe Namath. Sloan's 296 yards in the air also set a new Orange Bowl standard. Perkins finished his day with 9 completions for 159 yards.

Nebraska was held to 232 yards rushing, almost 60 yards below their average, and were victimized by four fumbles and an intercepted pass. The Huskers finished the season 10-1 and ranked number five in the nation by the Associated Press.

1967 SUGAR BOWL

[3] Alabama 34, [6] Nebraska 7

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 1967) – Nebraska's hopes for a revenge victory over Alabama's Crimson Tide in the 1967 Sugar Bowl Classic ended abruptly – the first play of the game, to be exact.

The Cornhuskers, 39-28 Alabama victims in the 1966 Orange Bowl, picked the Sugar Bowl for a chance to meet the Tide again, and by doing so became the only Big 8 team to land a spot in the four major bowls. But that was the only satisfaction the Huskers could gain as The Tide struck early and quickly established dominant superiority.

On the first play after the opening kickoff, Tide quarterback Kenny Stabler blazed the ball through the soggy, leaden skies to All America end Ray Perkins sailing full speed at the NU 40. Perkins wasn't hauled down until he hit the Husker 27. Seven plays later Alabama scored and launched the rout that was to see the Tide lead, 17-0 at the quarter, 24-0 at the half and 27-0 before the Huskers could muster a fourth-quarter touchdown and avert a shutout.

It was a convincing display of Alabama speed, quickness and determination as the Tide sought to become the only major unbeaten claimant to the national title.

Stabler's pin-point passing, Perkins' amazing pass catching skills and some fine running by Stabler – he won the Miller-Digby Memorial Trophy as the outstanding player of the game – put the Cornhuskers in a huge hole early and they were never able to regain the initiative.

The heavier Cornhuskers, unable to utilize their ball-control strategy against the lighter, swifter Tide, were forced to play catch-up from the opening gong and simply couldn't master Alabama's rock-ribbed defense until the final period.

Nebraska, led by quarterback Bob Churchich, made a game try – Churchich tied a pass attempt record (34), set a new completion record (21) and passed for 201 yards – but five interceptions (two against Churchich) dashed comeback hopes at every turn.

Alabama's win was bolstered by a solid edge in statistics. The Tide out-rushed Nebraska 157-84, out-passed the Huskers 279-213 and out-downed NU, 19-16.

The Cornhuskers finally broke the scoring ice on the first play of the fourth quarter when Churchich capped a 70-yard, 9-play with a 15-yard, scoring toss to junior fullback Dick Davis. Davis took the ball at the 10 and powered in for the Husker touchdown and Larry Wachholtz kicked the point-after conversion.

Following the game, Nebraska Coach Bob Devaney confirmed what most of the fans were thinking when he said: "The Alabama team today is the best football team I've ever seen - they're No. 1, all right."

1968 COTTON BOWL

Texas A&M 20, [8] Alabama 16

DALLAS (Jan. 1, 1968) – "The big plays won for us again," said head coach Gene Stallings of Texas A&M as he reviewed his team's 20-16 triumph over Alabama in the Cotton Bowl. Big plays and Alabama mistakes - the kind of mistakes that led Alabama head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant to contend earlier in the 1967 seasons that the defense can outscore the offense.

Alabama was making the mistakes and the Aggie defense was cashing in on them. Bryant, who coached Stallings at A&M in the 1950s, took the young man with him to Alabama as an assistant, lamented over his team's mistakes, but spent his time telling Stallings how proud he was that he could bring A&M out of a four-game losing streak to the Southwest Conference championship, then victory in the Cotton Bowl to run his winning string to seven.

Bryant came across the field and carried Stallings around like a football team often does a winning coach. Stallings couldn't help himself – the Bear outweighed him by about 75 pounds.

The Aggies took the field with a 6-4 record compared with proud Alabama's 8-1-1. The Aggies, playing in their first bowl game in 26 years while Alabama was in its 21st, cashed in on a pass interception and a recovered fumble for touchdowns, then saw Wendell Housley smash 33 yards in two runs for the touchdown that sealed the game.

Ken Stabler ran for two Alabama touchdowns, and Steve Davis kicked a 36-yard field goal for the Alabama scores. Stabler worried the Aggies throughout with his passing. He had three of his throws intercepted and was smothered repeatedly by the vicious Aggie rush. Alabama scored first on an 80-yard drive with Stabler running the last three yards. A&M's Tommy Maxwell intercepted a Stabler pass to set up the tying touchdown, made by Larry Stegent, who took a 13-yard toss from Hargett.

Davis kicked his field goal opening the second period, and Alabama led 10-7. With only 21 seconds left in the half, the Aggies scored after a 56-yard drive with Hargett throwing for 59, three of which made up for an Aggie loss. His seven-yard toss to Maxwell in the end zone brought the score. Charlie Riggs missed the extra point try when the ball hit the cross bar and A&M led 13-10 at the half.

A 28-yard kick by Davis set the Aggies up on their 48 early in the third period, and A&M, behind the passing of Hargett and the running of Housley, slammed 52 yards for the touchdown that gave A&M victory. Hargett passed for 10 and ran for one and Stegent ran for seven before Hargett turned it over to Housley, who battered the Alabama line for 13 yards and then 20 more and the touchdown.

Alabama came back fighting and surged 83 yards for a touchdown, with David Chatwood running for 28, Ed Morgan chipping in with a six-yard dash and Stabler passing for 41. Stabler got the score with a run over tackle from the seven. There was no more scoring as A&M failed to cash in on a Stabler interception and again fumbled the ball away on what appeared to be another touchdown drive.

The Aggies had pushed to the Alabama 22 when Hargett fumbled and Alvin Samples recovered on the Tide 27. The Tide then started its last desperate drive with Stabler throwing the football. The Tide was aided by a personal foul against the Aggies that put the ball on the Alabama 44. Stabler pitched to All-American Dennis Homan on the A&M but the Aggies held and took over on their 26.

1968 GATOR BOWL (16) Missouri 35, (12) Alabama 10

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (Dec. 28, 1968) — Missouri startled Alabama with a newly-installed Power I offense that the Tigers perfected in secret workouts and blunted the Crimson Tide's attack with a vicious defense that swept the Tigers to a 35-10 victory before 68,011 in the 24th annual Gator Bowl.

It was the worst beating a Paul Bryant-coached Alabama team had ever suffered and the statistics told the story. Alabama had minus-45 yards rushing and a total offensive output of just 23 yards. Missouri banged out 402 yards rushing but didn't complete a single pass although it really wasn't necessary. Alabama made just six first downs to 21 for the Tigers.

McMillan scored three Tiger touchdowns on short runs and baffled Alabama throughout the nationally televised football battle with his deft pitchouts on the option. McMillan never completed a pass, but he never had to. He did have a pair of tosses picked off that gave Alabama its only points. Defensive back Donnie Sutton raced 38 yards with an interception for an Alabama touchdown in the second quarter, and Mike Dean's fourth quarter interception set up his 25-yard field goal.

The Missouri defense, anchored by ends Elmer Benhardt and Bill Schmitt, blunted Alabama's running and passing attack. Crimson Tide quarterbacks were thrown for losses nine times. Alabama, losing three games in a season for the first time since 1958, managed only three first downs in the first three quarters. The Tide stayed in contention until the late minutes only with the help of its two pass interceptions and a pair of Tiger fumbles.

But Roger Wehrli, Missouri's All-American safety, clinched the Tigers' fourth straight bowl triumph with a late interception that set up McMillan's third touchdown, a two-yard run. In the dosing minutes, Greg Cook ran 37 yards from scrimmage and Dennis Poppe raced 47 yards with an interception to pad the margin.

McMillan scored in the first quarter on a four-yard burst, and he gave the Tigers a 14-7 lead in the second period with a five-yard scoring run. The Tigers, who operated from the "regular I" during a 7-3 season, changed their attack during Gator Bowl workouts "to give us stronger running," Missouri head coach Dan Devine said.

The switch paid off with Cook, McMillan, Jim Harrison and Ron McBride all cracking through the Tide line. Missouri gained 404 yards rushing, with Cook collecting 179. Alabama gained only 45 yards on the ground and added but 68 through the air. Quarterback Scott Hunter was so harassed by the Missouri ends that he hit only seven of 25 throws and was thrown for losses totaling 61 yards.

Alabama, a slim favorite after its 8-2 season record, never led. The Tigers took the opening kickoff and McMillan drove the Tigers to a 7-0 lead in 11 plays. Alabama never led although the Tide did roll to a brief tie on Sutton's scoring interception.

Bryant had not lost three times in a season since his first year at Alabama in 1958. The Missouri explosion was particularly surprising because the Tigers rolled without completing a pass against a team that had given up only 104 points during the regular season.

1969 LIBERTY BOWL Colorado 47, Alabama 33

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (Dec. 13, 1969) — The enthusiastic Liberty Bowl committee wanted a high-scoring football game to enhance its reputation and they certainly got it when they matched Colorado and Alabama.

All-American Bob Anderson rushed for three touchdowns and 254 yards Saturday to lead the University of Colorado to a come-from-behind 47-33 victory over Alabama in the 11th annual Liberty Bowl.

Trailing 33-31 going into the final period, Anderson, who earlier had run four yards for a touchdown, turned in scoring jaunts of two and three yards to carry the Buffaloes to victory.

Alabama's Bear Bryant had told his team "honor and pride" were awaiting them if they could win the post-season game since they had posted the worst regular season record (6-4) in more than a decade.

Colorado jumped off to a 17-0 lead and went to the dressing room at halftime leading 31-19. Colorado scored on the opening drive with Ward Walsh blasting over from the 13 to cap an 80-yard drive in eight plays. Later in the quarter, Dave Haney kicked a 30-yard field goal to extend the Colorado lead to 10-0. The Buffaloes made it 17-0 via the power running of Anderson, who barged over from four yards out to cap an 80-yard march in just eight plays.

But the Tide got in a few surprises of their own, with dropback passer Scott Hunter dashing 31 yards on a surprise run to make it 17-7. Later in the quarter Alabama's George Ranager took a pitchout and got a key block from Johnny Musso to score from the six and it was 17-13, as Alabama went for two and failed.

But it took the Buffaloes only six plays to respond with Walsh popping over from the 15. Alabama wasn't finished, however, and drove 72 yards in seven plays to score with Musso going in from the two. Again, the Tide went for two and failed, but it was 24-19 with just 46 seconds left in the first half. Jim Duke's kickoff was fielded by Bob Mastern on the Buffs' 9, where Mastern handed the ball off to Steve Engle, who raced 91 yards to score for a 31-19 Colorado lead at halftime.

Alabama received to open the second half. On second and 10 from its 45-yard line, Neb Hayden arched a long pass to Griff Langston, who gathered it in and raced home to score, to trim the Colorado lead to 31-26.

Alabama's Steve Williams intercepted a CU pass a few minutes later and the Tide was at it again. Hayden again went to the air and hit Musso with a 10-yard touchdown pass to put the Tide out in front of the hectic offensive show by a 33-31 margin.

Colorado's Anderson then slid off left tackle from the two to put the Buffs in front for good, 38-33. Alabama's Hayden was caught in the end zone later in the game for a safety to give Colorado a 40-33 lead.

With time running out and Alabama trying to make a last-ditch comeback, the Crimson Tide went for it on fourth and 18 from its own 18 and could not convert. Colorado then marched down the short distance with Anderson scoring from the three with just 45 seconds left to make it a 47-33 final score.

1970 BLUEBONNET BOWL Alabama 24, (20) Oklahoma 24

HOUSTON (Dec. 21, 1970) — Two offensive-minded football teams battled to a 24-24 deadlock in Houston's Astrodome in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl as Alabama and Oklahoma fought tooth-and-nail down to the wire.

There was a total of 843 yards total offense in the game but, while the defenses weren't anything to brag about, both teams did make some key stops along the way.

Alabama scored first as tight end Randy Moore gathered in a four-yard Scott Hunter pass to cap a 54-yard, eight-play drive. Oklahoma responded with a touchdown drive to tie the game with Joe Wylie scoring from the two. It was 7-7 after one quarter and things were just heating up.

In the second quarter, Alabama marched to within the shadow of the Oklahoma end zone, only to have an interception kill the drive. The Sooners came back with a 58-yard scoring run out from swift Greg Pruitt to go on top, 14-7.

After a missed field goal attempt by Alabama, Oklahoma extended its lead to 21-7 as Pruitt followed a key block from Wylie and dashed 25 yards to score. With the game in danger of getting out of hand, Alabama was able to bounce back just 14 seconds left in the second quarter as Hunter hit David Bailey with a five-yard scoring pass to narrow the deficit to 21-14 at halftime.

In the third quarter, Alabama's Richard Ciemny kicked a 20-yard field goal to narrow the gap to 21-17. That set up an intense fourth quarter.

With 7:36 left and Alabama facing a fourth down at the Sooner 25, running back Johnny Musso took a handoff and started wide to his right. He then stopped and fired a left-handed pass back to quarterback Hunter. That pass caught the Sooners napping, with Hunter making a dash to score. The play gave Alabama the lead, 24-21.

With only 59 seconds left, OU field goal specialist Bruce Derr hit on a 42-yard attempt to tie the game at 24-24. But Alabama was able to mount one final threat. Oklahoma tried an onside kick, but it was recovered by the Tide had it at the OU 40. Musso broke loose for 21 yards to the 19. Dave Brungard got two yards, then Hunter was sacked for a one-yard loss.

With just five seconds left Alabama called time out. Ciemny lined up for a 34-yard field goal try that would win the game, but Oklahoma's John Shelley got a hand on it and deflected the kick to preserve the tie.

Hunter completed 13 of 26 passes for 174 yards as the Crimson Tide rolled up a total offense of 428 yards. Oklahoma, with Leon Crosswhite gaining 111 yards in 20 carries and Pruitt adding 97 in eight carries, finished with a 415 total.

Pruitt took the game's outstanding back award while Alabama linebacker Jeff Rouzie was named the top lineman.

1972 ORANGE BOWL

(1) Nebraska 38, (2) Alabama 6

MIAMI (Jan. 1, 1972) – It was billed as the National Championship Game as Nebraska entered the game ranked first with Alabama ranked second. But the Cornhuskers quickly salted away not only the game but the national title with a 38-6 win that was greatly aided by a mistake-filled effort by the Crimson Tide.

Played before 78,151 in 70-degree weather, the Orange Bowl showed no ill effects from a two-hour downpour that ended just before the game. Nebraska's incomparable Johnny Rodgers' 77-yard punt return in the opening quarter served notice that the Huskers' one touchdown favorite odds were not nearly enough.

But it was the work of the Huskers' defense that was responsible for keeping the Huskers' unbeaten string going up to 32 and winning streak to 23. The Blackshirts held the Tide to a single touchdown. The unit set up three touchdowns by recovering fumbles and a fourth via an interception returned to the Tide 1-yard line.

With Nebraska clinging to a 6-0 lead eight seconds before the end of the first quarter, the Blackshirts forced a punt by Alabama's Gregg Gantt. It was not the long, driving type of punt, beyond the defensive cover that is Rogers' favorite type. He gambled by picking up a bounce with enemies in close at his 23. He darted to his right, shaking loose from the first foe. A key block by Jim Anderson allowed the junior sprinter to turn the corner. Another block was supplied by Jerry List, who lost his helmet in the process. From midfield on, it was no contest as Rodgers logged his fourth punt return touchdown of the season and sixth of his career. The 77-yarder was three yards short of the Orange Bowl record.

If that play didn't take the starch out of the Tide, the next play did. Steve Williams was decked by Randy Borg while returning the kickoff. The ball popped free and into the inviting arms of John Peterson 27 yards from the Tide goal. Seven plays later, the Huskers were sitting happily on a 21-0 lead. Tagge's 20-yard pass to Gary Dixon, only the second reception of the year by Dixon, carried it to the nine. Two carries by Dixon netted two yards and Tagge passed to substitute fullback Maury Damkroger, who was jolted out of bounds inches from the end zone. Tagge's fourth-down sneak for the touchdown came with 12:43 left in the half.

Alabama came back in the second half with grit and determination to earn whatever comfort can be found in statistics. The Tide's All-American halfback Johnny Musso gained a much-deserved 79 yards on 15 carries, but he, like other highly touted backs, toiled in the shadows of NU's Kinney, who rushed for 99 yards on 20 carries.

Alabama's most effective weapon was the option running and draw plays of its quarterbacks, Terry Davis during a third quarter bid and Butch Hobson after Davis was injured in the fourth quarter. After Husker cornerback Joe Blahak punted, Alabama's initial post-intermission threat ended with an end-zone interception, the Tide rolled 55 yards, with Davis stepping 28 and 10 yards before turning the left side on fourth and three and taking Blackshirts Dave Mason and John Dutton into the end zone with him. But that was the extent of Alabama's challenge until the game-ending drive that ended on Nebraska's eight.

Nebraska added three more points on a 21-yard Sanger field goal on the last play of the third quarter and a final touchdown following Anderson's interception. Nebraska's last touchdown was scored by backup quarterback Van Brownson.

1973 COTTON BOWL

(7) Texas 17, (4) Alabama 13

DALLAS (Jan. 1, 1973) – Billed as "The Battle of the Wishbones", this Cotton Bowl clash found Texas storming from behind in the fourth quarter to capture a 17-13 decision on a cold and blustery day in which the Crimson Tide was unable to get it together on offense.

Following Steve Wade's interception for Alabama, the Crimson Tide's Gregg Gantt kicked a Cotton Bowl record 50-yard field goal to give the Tide an early 3-0 lead. After an exchange of punts, Wade grabbed his second interception of the young game and raced 42 yards to the Texas 31. On the next play, Wilbur Jackson took a pitch wide to the right and behind Joe LaBue's clearing block, cruised untouched for the touchdown and Bill Davis quickly added the extra point to make it 10-0.

Texas drove to a field goal of 24 yards by Billy Schott to pull Texas within 10-3. A short time later, with just eight seconds remaining in the first half, Bill Davis banged through a 30-yard field goal for Alabama to push its halftime lead to 13-3.

A short Tide punt in the third quarter gave Texas good field position and the wishbone-driven Horns drove 59 yards in 15 plays. Quarterback Alan Lowry raced in from three yards out and Schott's kick cut the Alabama lead to 13-10.

Alabama reeled off an impressive fourth quarter drive from its 20 to the Texas 34 where on first down Terry Davis went for broke and tried to hit Wayne Wheeler with a touchdown pass, only to have Texas defensive back Terry Melancon intercept in the end zone.

Texas, going to the air behind Lowry, marched to the Tide 34, from where Lowry bootlegged the final 34 yards, tightrope walking the sidelines for the winning touchdown. Television replays and newspaper still photos showed that Lowry may have stepped out of bounds on his winning run, but the play stood, and Schott's kick made it 17-13.

The Tide wasn't finished, though, and marched from its 10 to the Texas 43, where Jackson was stopped short on a fourth and one play, Texas taking over and hammering the final nail into the Tide's coffin.

1973 SUGAR BOWL

(3) Notre Dame 24, (1) Alabama 23

NEW ORLEANS (Dec. 31, 1973) – It was the first meeting between two giants of college football – Alabama and Notre Dame. The game was the latest version of "The Game of the Century," and it certainly lived up to every inch of newspaper space and moment of airtime on radio and television.

Notre Dame won 24-23, in one of the true classics of college football history. The game had everything – six lead changes, outstanding plays in all phases of the game, a tense finish and dramatic play calling. With the close victory, Notre Dame vaulted from third to first in the final Associated Press (AP) rankings. Alabama had finished first in both polls in the regular season and remained the United Press International (UPI) champion, as that ranking did not have a post-bowl survey.

Alabama could have put the game away in the third quarter, but the Tide couldn't deliver the knockout punch. Notre Dame ran back a kickoff for a touchdown and dominated the early going. Led by quarterback Tom Clements, who sprayed passes of 19, 26 and 14 yards to split end Pete Demmerle, the Irish offense scored first in the opening quarter. Fullback Wayne Bullock capped a 64-yard scoring drive with a six-yard run into the end zone.

Alabama responded in the second quarter, producing three long drives that resulted in a pair of scores – the first when Randy Billingsley scored on a six-yard run and Bill Davis added the extra point that put Alabama up by one (7-6) with 7:30 remaining. On the ensuing kickoff, Notre Dame's Al Hunter stunned the crowd with a dazzling 93-yard return, the longest in Sugar Bowl history. The Irish went for two and converted for a 14-7 lead.

Alabama moved deep into Notre Dame territory late in the second quarter but had to settle for a 39-yard field goal by Davis. At the start of the second half, Alabama marched 93 yards to take a 17-14 lead after Wilbur Jackson's five-yard scoring run.

A short time later, Notre Dame linebacker Drew Mahalic recovered a Tide fumble in mid-air and took the ball to the Alabama 12-yard line. On the first play from scrimmage, Eric Penick dashed 12 yards for the score. The extra point gave the Irish a 21-17 lead with 2:30 left in the third quarter.

Early in the fourth period, the game took a wild turn with three turnovers in 90 seconds. Alabama gambled with a trick play that paid off. With the ball on the Notre Dame 25, second-string quarterback Richard Todd handed off to halfback Mike Stock, then raced to the sidelines where he took a return pass from Stock and went in for the score – but Davis missed the conversion try and Alabama was left with a 23-21 lead and 9:33 remaining.

Notre Dame responded by driving 79 yards in 11 plays. The Irish reached the Alabama 3-yard line and Thomas came on to kick a 19-yard field goal with 4:26 remaining for the final 24-23 margin.

1975 ORANGE BOWL

[9] Notre Dame 13, [2] Alabama 11

MIAMI (Jan. 1, 1975) — A rematch of the previous year's national championship showdown produced another painful, close loss for Alabama. Notre Dame once again proved to be the spoiler for Alabama's national championship dreams, upsetting the Crimson Tide, 13-11.

Alabama was ranked first in the nation in the United Press International (UPI) poll and second by the Associated Press (AP) going into the game, with Notre Dame being eighth and ninth. A year before when the two had met with the Sugar Bowl as the setting, Notre Dame won 24-23 and vaulted to the national title.

Notre Dame built a 13-0 lead in the first half and withstood a furious Alabama rally in the game's final minutes.

The scoring started midway through the first quarter when Alabama fumbled a Notre Dame punt and Al Samuel recovered for the Irish at the Crimson Tide's 16-yard line. Three plays later Notre Dame faced a fourth-and-one play at the Alabama 7-yard line. Wayne Bullock powered his way over the left side for three yards and a first down. On the next play, he rumbled into the end zone on a four-yard run for the first Irish score. Dave Reeve added the extra point.

With 50 seconds left in the first quarter, the Irish offense took control at its own 23-yard line as quarterback Tom Clements engineered a 77-yard scoring drive in 17 plays, taking 7:21 off the clock. The Irish attempted only one pass in the march, rushing 16 times for 68 yards on the drive. An offside call on Alabama on a field-goal attempt revived the drive. The Irish made the most of the opportunity, with Mark McLane breaking free from nine yards out for the score. Reeve missed the point-after, but Notre Dame led 13-0.

A Notre Dame fumble on their next possession gave the Tide the football on the Irish 40-yard line. Alabama went to the air with quarterback Richard Todd hitting Ozzie Newsome for 11 yards and Jerry Brown for 12 yards, as the Tide marched to the Notre Dame 8-yard line. The Irish defense held, and Alabama scored on a 21-yard field goal by Danny Ridgeway with 1:45 left before halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter Alabama — which averaged only 11 passes a game during the season — again went to the air. Todd carried the Tide to the Irish 12-yard line but then threw an interception to John Dubenetzky.

On fourth down of the next Tide drive, needing five yards for a first down, Todd threw a 48-yard touchdown pass to Russ Schamun with 3:13 remaining. The Tide added two points on a conversion pass from Todd to George Pugh to close the deficit to 13-11.

With 1:39 left, Alabama got the ball back at its own 38-yard line needing only a field goal to win. Todd tossed to Schamun for a 16-yard gain and hit Randy Billinsley for an eight-yard reception to the Irish 38. But Notre Dame's Reggie Barnett intercepted Todd's next throw to clinch the verdict in favor of the Irish.

For Alabama, linebacker Leroy Cook was the defensive standout while fellow linebacker Ronnie Robertson led in tackles with 11. Alabama outgained the Irish in total offense, 285 to 204, but had four turnovers. Todd completed 13 of 24 passes, six of them to the freshman Newsome for 68 yards and five to Schamun for 126.

[4] Alabama 13, [8] Penn State 6

NEW ORLEANS (Dec. 31, 1975) — Alabama ended its eight-year bowl losing streak in a memorable way with a hard-fought victory over an outstanding team. The Crimson Tide's first bowl victory since January 1, 1967 (a 34-7 victory over Nebraska in the Sugar Bowl) was a 13-6 victory over the Penn State Nittany Lions.

It was the first Sugar Bowl played inside the climate-controlled Louisiana Superdome, matching third-ranked Alabama (10-1) against seventh-ranked Penn State (9-2).

Richard Todd, Alabama's senior quarterback, put on an offensive show, completing 10 of 12 passes for 205 yards. In running the Tide's wishbone offense to near perfection, he was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Todd passed 55 yards to split end Ozzie Newsome to set up the game's only touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Todd, who had suffered a cut finger on Christmas Day, came out with his finger bandaged, and Penn State stacked its defense while daring him to throw. That strategy cost the Nittany Lions dearly in the early going. Joe Dale Harris, a surprise starter, ran a turn-in pattern while Todd released his throw just before being engulfed by the defense.

With State's minimal coverage, Harris broke free and turned the short pass into a 54-yard gain. That play eventually led to a 25-yard field goal by Danny Ridgeway and a 3-0 Alabama lead that held up to the half.

Penn State's Chris Bahr tied the score with a 42-yard field goal in the third quarter, but Todd brought the Tide back quickly. At the Penn State 35 following a timeout, Todd pump faked PSU freshman Bill Crummy and Newsome broke back to the sideline and caught the pass 25 yards downfield, being brought down at the 10. Todd lost four yards recovering a fumble, but Mike Stock swept into the end zone behind a ferocious block by Newsome.

Bahr cut the margin to 10-6 with a 37-yard field goal in the fourth quarter, but Ridgeway answered for Alabama with a 28-yard kick for a 13-6 lead. With 3:19 left, Penn State got its last chance. The Nittany Lions inched out to their 39 before Alabama stopped the Nittany Lions on a fourth-and-one play with 1:15 to go.

[16] Alabama 36, [7] UCLA 6

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (Dec. 20, 1976) — A Liberty Bowl-record crowd of 52,737 braved freezing temperatures and gusting winds at speeds up to 31 miles per hour at the 18th annual Liberty Bowl. This game, playfully referred to as "The Refrigerator Bowl", was blown open by the Alabama defense, which stopped the Bruins twice on fourth down plays — once at the Crimson Tide 1-yard line, and another time by an interception on a third down at the Alabama 1.

After Bucky Berrey opened the scoring with a 37-yard field goal midway through the first quarter for a 3-0 Alabama lead, the Crimson Tide defense began asserting its dominance. Alabama sophomore linebacker Barry Krauss, the game's most valuable player, intercepted a pass and rambled 44 yards for the Tide's first touchdown. "Our defense was simply magnificent most of the time," said Alabama head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. "Not only were we stopping them, our defense put some points on the board, too."

Late in the first quarter, running back Johnny Davis plunged one yard for the Tide's first offensive touchdown and a 17-0 Alabama lead. The lone scoring play in the second quarter came about when Alabama used trickery to move the lead to 24-0. Quarterback Jack O'Rear handed off to running back Tony Nathan, who drifted to his right before throwing back to O'Rear on a 20-yard scoring play.

Two more field goals by Berrey in the third quarter — from 25 and 28 yards out — extended the lead to 30-0 early in the fourth quarter. The three field goals by Berrey set a Liberty Bowl record.

After UCLA notched its only score on a 61-yard run by Leotis Brown with 9:32 left in the fourth quarter, Alabama closed the scoring when Rick Watson broke through on a 1-yard run with 22 seconds left in the game for the final 36-6 margin.

1978 SUGAR BOWL

[3] Alabama 35, [9] Ohio State 6

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 2, 1978) — Alabama had rebounded nicely after an early-season 31-24 loss at Nebraska, racing into its Sugar Bowl encounter with the Ohio State Buckeyes riding a strong crest of momentum that had set the Crimson Tide up for a shot at a national title if things broke their way in the other New Year's Day bowl games.

Alabama won easily, 35-6, and with the upset by fifth-ranked Notre Dame of top-ranked Texas in the Cotton Bowl, it appeared the Crimson Tide were in position to claim another national championship. But in a controversial and tight vote, the Irish vaulted from fifth to first, with Alabama finishing a close second.

Alabama quarterback Jeff Rutledge and the Crimson Tide offense wasted no time in getting the game under their control. On the Tide's second possession, a 10-play, 76-yard march, running back Tony Nathan scored from a one-yard out.

Rutledge guided Alabama 76 yards in the first quarter with Tony Nathan scoring from one-yard out.

Rutledge and the Crimson Tide then pushed Ohio State around on an 11-play, 76-yard touchdown drive. The scoring play came when fullback Johnny Davis moved to his right on a fake at the Buckeye 27 while split end Bolton, who had lined up as a right halfback, rolled out of the backfield and raced down the sideline. Rutledge dropped back and handed the ball to Bolton, who was barely in bounds. The extra point was missed, but Alabama led 13-0.

After the Alabama defense again stopped the Buckeyes at the Crimson Tide 28, Rutledge took the Tide 72 yards for a touchdown. He hit Richard Neal with a three-yard scoring pass for the touchdown and added another pass to Neal on a two-point conversion for a 21-0 lead late in the third quarter.

Ohio State fought back to within 21-6 on the ensuing possession, marching 85 yards in seven plays to score on a 38-yard pass from Gerald to Jim Harrell with 13:34 left in the game. A two-point conversion attempt was stopped by Alabama.

Sophomore quarterback Steadman Shealy assumed control of the Alabama offense in the final quarter and engineered two touchdown drives. The first was an 84-yard march in 14 plays that ended with a 1-yard run by Major Ogilvie with 6:30 left. A short time later, Johnny Davis capped a 24-yard drive in four plays following a Buckeyes turnover by scoring on a 7-yard run with 5:09 left.

Rutledge finished as the game's Most Valuable Player, hitting on 8 of 11 passes for 109 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Johnny Davis, the Tide's bullish senior fullback, led the Alabama ground assault with 95 yards on 24 carries.

[2] Alabama 14, [1] Penn State 7

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 1979) — One vivid image was permanently etched into the minds of the 76,824 in the Superdome and the millions of television viewers who watched the 45th annual Sugar Bowl on New Year's Day, 1979. Penn State, the nation's No. 1 team, was stopped on two consecutive plays inside the one-yard line by the Alabama defense to preserve a 14-7 victory for Alabama's second-ranked Crimson Tide. The famous goal line stand won a national championship for Paul "Bear" Bryant and the Crimson Tide.

The outcome of this tight defensive battle was determined by a small number of critical decisions and crucial plays in a game in which the nation's top two teams proved to be amazingly evenly matched. The teams battled evenly for the entire first half and appeared headed for a scoreless deadlock as halftime approached.

With the ball at the Alabama 33-yard line in the half's final moments, the Crimson Tide appeared content to run out the clock with 1:11 left. But Penn State called a timeout after two consecutive plays to stop the clock, hoping to get the ball back and set up a field goal. But Alabama senior halfback Tony Nathan countered with runs of 30 and 7 yards down to the Penn State 30-yard line.

Suddenly, Alabama was within range of a score to end the half and had the time to get even closer to the Penn State end zone. Within field goal range, Alabama presumably would position itself for a go-ahead kick in the final seconds of the second quarter. But Penn State coach Joe Paterno's plan backfired enormously when Crimson Tide quarterback Jeff Rutledge dropped back and found split end Bruce Bolton wide open in the end zone for a 30-yard touchdown pass with just eight seconds left in the half. Alan McElroy kicked the extra point to give Alabama a 7-0 halftime lead.

An interception by Penn State's Pete Harris at Alabama's 48-yard line late in the third period set up Penn State's only touchdown. Nittany Lions quarterback Chuck Fusina hit Scott Fitzkee deep in the end zone for a touchdown. Matt Bahr's extra point kick tied the game at 7-7 with 4:25 left in the third quarter.

A few moments later Alabama halfback Lou Ikner ran 62 yards with a Penn State punt before being dragged down at the Nittany Lions' 11-yard line. Three plays later, Major Ogilvie rammed into the corner of the end zone, sprung by a key block by tight end Rick Neal. McElroy kicked the extra point to extend the Alabama lead to 14-7 with 21 seconds left in the third quarter.

The Nittany Lions had a chance to tie the score when the Lions' Joe Lally fell on a misdirected pitchout by Rutledge on an option play at the Tide 19 with 7:57 remaining. Penn State drove to a third down and goal at the Alabama one. But the Alabama defense sealed off its end zone in a tremendous defensive effort, climaxed by Crimson Tide linebacker Barry Krauss stopping Penn State tailback Mike Guman short of the goal line.

[2] Alabama 24, [6] Arkansas 9

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 1980) — A tweak in the offensive scheme played a major role as the University of Alabama reached a new pinnacle of success by beating Arkansas, 24-9, in the 46th annual Sugar Bowl. In the process of winning its fifth straight bowl, four of them Sugar Bowls, this unbeaten Alabama team became the first Tide squad in the school's history to win 12 games in a season. A record Sugar Bowl crowd of 77,468 and millions of viewers on national television watched Alabama win.

In the weeks preceding the Sugar Bowl game, Alabama head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant installed a double wing with motion off the wishbone formation. The Crimson Tide could run its basic plays off the set, but its real value was in catching the Arkansas players and coaches off-guard.

After the Razorbacks took an early lead on a 34-yard field goal by Ish Ordonez, courtesy of a lost Alabama fumble on the opening kickoff, the Tide showed its new look. The Crimson Tide immediately embarked on a seven-play, 82-yard drive featuring a fullback in motion and plenty of counter-action movement, slowing the aggressive Arkansas defense.

Alabama's Major Ogilvie took a pitchout from quarterback Steadman Shealy and scored from 22 yards out midway through the first quarter, marking the third straight year in which Ogilvie scored a Sugar Bowl touchdown.

On the fourth play after the ensuing kickoff, another Razorback fumble was recovered by Crimson Tide linebacker Thomas Boyd on the Arkansas 22. Four plays later, Ogilvie scored his second touchdown on a one-yard run to put the Tide ahead 14-3 with 3:46 left in the first period. That deficit forced the Arkansas offense into an accelerated passing game.

When the Tide's Alan McElroy kicked a 25-yard field goal for a 17-3 lead at intermission, it appeared that Alabama was content with sitting on its lead and running out the clock.

But Arkansas quarterback Kevin Scanlon, who had been punished throughout the first half, gathered himself and found his touch, guiding the Razorbacks 80 yards to a touchdown after the second half kickoff. The two-point conversion fell short and the Razorbacks now trailed 17-9.

But Bryant's troops were at their best when it counted, racing 98 yards in 9 plays to the touchdown. Steve Whitman ran for six yards to start the drive. Ogilvie rushed for seven to the Tide 15. Billy Jackson's 35-yard sprint with a Shealy pitchout keyed the march, reaching the 50-yard line. Jackson came right back on the next play with a 14-yard run up the middle to the Arkansas 36. Ogilvie gained six off guard, then Shealy ran an option keeper for 22 yards at the Arkansas 11.

After two plays and a five-yard penalty on the Tide, Alabama faced third-and-11 at the Arkansas 12-yard line. Offensive coordinator Mal Moore suggested the play, "43 Read", to Shealy, who ran the option play to the right side of the line and handed to Whitman, who raced through the Arkansas defense for the clinching touchdown. The 98-yard drive, Alabama's longest of the season, sealed the outcome.

[9] Alabama 30, [6] Baylor 2

DALLAS (Jan. 1, 1981) — Alabama capped off a 10-2 season by decking Southwest Conference champion Baylor 30-2 in the 45th Cotton Bowl Classic. For only the second time since 1971, Alabama had failed to win the Southeastern Conference championship, finishing second behind eventual national champion Georgia. The Tide had been upset by Mississippi State (6-3) to snap the nation's longest winning streak at 28, then fell to old nemesis Notre Dame (7-0).

But against Grant Teaff's Baylor Bears, Paul "Bear" Bryant's Crimson Tide was impressive. The Alabama defense was the primary factor, as the likes of middle guard Warren Lyles, E.J. Junior and Thomas Boyd shut down Baylor's previously unstoppable running tandem of Walter Abecrombie and Dennis Gentry. The pair had combined for nearly 2,000 yards during Baylor's 10-1 regular season, but on this sunny day in Dallas, they were limited to a combined total of 54 yards.

Major Ogilvie, Don Jacobs and Mark Nix scored touchdowns for the Crimson Tide and sophomore Peter Kim added a Cotton bowl record three field goals to send Alabama to its record-tying sixth consecutive bowl victory. Baylor's offense was all but blunted by the swarming Crimson Tide defense, which helped bring Bryant his 306th career coaching victory.

Kim kicked field goals of 29 and 28 yards in the first half and added a 42-yarder in the third quarter. His three field goals equaled a Cotton Bowl record set in 1972 by Penn State's Alberto Vitiello. Ogilvie, who carried 15 times for 74 yards, scored Alabama's first touchdown of the game, going over from the 1 in the second quarter and thus becoming the first person ever to score a rushing touchdown in four consecutive bowl games.

Alabama, which finished with 241 yards on the ground, added a pair of touchdowns in the final quarter on a one-yard run by Jacobs and a three-yard run by Nix with 1:16 to play. Baylor, shut out 45-0 by Alabama during the 1979 season, could manage only a safety that coming in the second quarter when defensive tackle Tommy Tabor tackled Alabama's Lewis in the end zone as Lewis was trying to throw the ball.

Alabama and Baylor both finished the season with 10-2 records and the game was never a contest after the Bears missed on their only good touchdown opportunity late in first quarter.

1982 COTTON BOWL

[6] Texas 14, [3] Alabama 12

DALLAS (Jan. 1, 1982) — Alabama marched into Dallas as the Southeastern Conference co-champion and its head coach, Paul "Bear" Bryant, entered as the winningest man in the history of the game, but Fred Akers' Texas Longhorns were not impressed.

Five weeks after Bryant had earned his record-breaking 315th head coaching victory against in-state rival Auburn, the Longhorns came from behind to hand Alabama a 14-12 defeat.

The Longhorns overcame a 10-0 deficit with two touchdowns in the fourth quarter, then gave the Crimson Tide an intentional safety before weathering a counter-charge. Not only did the victory by Texas keep alive a Longhorns jinx of never having lost to Alabama, but it kept Bryant from winning an NCAA record seventh consecutive bowl game in seven years.

Alabama quarterback Walter Lewis's six-yard touchdown pass to Jesse Bendross and Peter Kim's 24-yard field goal gave the Longhorns a big fourth quarter hill to climb.

Texas quarterback Robert Brewer, starting only his fourth game for the Longhorns, raced 30 yards for a touchdown on a tricky draw play. After a punt, Brewer directed the Longhorns 80 yards in 11 plays climaxed by Terry Orr's eight-yard touchdown run. Included in the drive was a 37-yard completion to tight end Lawrence Sampleton on a third-and-10 play.

Alabama's Joey Jones returned the ensuing kickoff a Cotton Bowl record 61 yards, but cornerback William Graham intercepted Lewis on the next play at the Texas 1, setting up an ending that was steeped in strategic decisions by both head coaches.

Akers ordered Texas punter John Goodson to take a safety with less than a minute to play. And Texas held Alabama after it got a free punt from its own 20.

The win improved Texas' record to 10-1-1, while the loss dropped Alabama to 9-2-1. Brewer, who completed 12 of 21 passes on the day for 201 yards, was named the offensive most valuable player and Alabama linebacker Robbie Jones, who had 12 tackles, was the defensive MVP.

1982 LIBERTY BOWL

Alabama 21, Illinois 15

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (Dec. 29, 1982) — The 1982 Liberty Bowl is remembered almost solely as the last football game Alabama played under the direction of legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, who announced his retirement from coaching just two weeks prior to the game.

At the end of an atypical season, Alabama entered the 1982 Liberty Bowl coming off three straight season-ending losses. Big Ten Conference foe Illinois, 7-4 and boasting a potent offense and in the midst of a resurgence under 46-year-old head coach, Mike White, was appearing in its first bowl in 19-years.

Alabama retired Coach Bryant in proper fashion by registering a 21-15 victory over the Fighting Illini. The win gave Coach Bryant a final record of 323-85-17 — the most wins by any head coach in college football history up to that point.

"Many thanks to the staff for one heck of a job," he said afterward in a crowded press interview tent. "The players' preparation and the coaches' preparation, especially in this circus-type atmosphere, were exceptional. I am thankful to have won my final game. Whether the team likes it or not, they will always be remembered for winning my last game. I am proud they wanted to win this one for me."

Alabama jumped ahead in the early going as fullback Ricky Moore started the scoring with a four-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. After Illinois closed the gap to 7-6 on a one-yard run by Joe Curtis and failed extra point in the second quarter, the Tide took the lead into the locker room at halftime.

In the third quarter, split end Jesse Bendross ran scored on a reverse from 8 yards out to put Alabama up 14-6. Then, Illinois rallied behind quarterback Tony Eason on a two-yard pass from Eason to wide receiver Oliver Williams to draw within 14-12 after a failed two-point conversion attempt.

The Crimson Tide surged further ahead in the final quarter as Craig Turner scored the last touchdown of the Bryant Era for Alabama on a one-yard run with 7:34 left in the game for a 21-12 lead. Illinois roared back and drew closer on a 23-yard field goal by Mike Bass with 6:12 remaining, but the Fighting Illini could get no closer due to a clutch defensive effort spearheaded by cornerback Jeremiah Castille's three interceptions. Castille earned Most Valuable Player honors for that performance.

Alabama won the game despite giving up 444 yards of total offense and surviving a Liberty Bowl record, 423 yards of passing from Eason. Alabama's bruising ground attack plowed for 217 yards while the Tide defense allowed only 21 yards on the ground.

Bryant died on January 26, 1983, less than four weeks following the Liberty Bowl.

1983 SUN BOWL

Alabama 28, [6] SMU 7

EL PASO, Texas (Dec. 24, 1983) — Alabama entered the 50th Annual Sun Bowl after a disappointing 7-4 regular season. Playing before the largest crowd (41,412) ever to witness an event in El Paso, Texas, sports history up to that point, the Crimson Tide football team gave the fans their money's worth by shocking sixth-ranked Southern Methodist (SMU), 28-7. That crowd braved wind gusts of up to 35 miles per hour and temperatures in the 20s.

Fullback Ricky Moore ran for two first-period touchdowns and Walter Lewis riddled the nation's second best defense with his passing to lead Alabama to its most impressive victory of the season. Moore carried 28 times for 113 yards and his sixth consecutive 100-yard effort, capped early drives of 59 and 51 yards with touchdown runs of 1 yard and 11 yards to give the Crimson Tide a 14-0 lead after one period. Lewis, who completed 9-of-14 passes for 148 yards and was named the game's most valuable player, scored from a yard out to end an 86-yard drive midway through the second quarter. He lofted a 19-yard touchdown pass to split end Joey Jones 43 seconds before halftime to make it 28-0.

SMU quarterback Lance McIlhenny fumbled a snap from center on the Mustangs' first possession and Alabama cornerback Sammy Hood, who was blitzing, recovered at the Tide 19. Alabama needed only 64 seconds and three plays to make it 14-0. Lewis passed 32 yards to Richardson, scrambled for eight and flipped a pitchout to Moore, who started right, cut back sharply and scored from the 11 without a hand being laid on him.

The Crimson Tide went 86 yards in 6:22 for its third touchdown. Reserve tailback Linnie Patrick started it with a 14-yard run and Lewis whipped passes of 18 yards to tight end Preston Gothard and 17 to Jones. Lewis fooled the SMU defense with a fake to Moore up the middle, hesitated for a second and then darted around right end to score easily. Freshman Van Tiffin's conversion made it 21-0.

Free safety Freddie Robinson intercepted a McIlhenny pass at the Alabama 38 with 1:09 left in the half and Lewis needed only four plays and 26 seconds to make it 28-0. Lewis found Jones in the rear of the end zone behind cornerback Fred Nichols for Alabama's final touchdown. SMU scored with 3:41 left in the third period with McIlhenny tossing a touchdown pass to split end Marquis Pleasant, another freshman.

After SMU's third period score, the Mustangs threatened on two other occasions. But tailback Reggie Dupard fumbled the ball away at the Tide 21 with 4:16 left in the third period and McIlhenny threw an incomplete pass on fourth down from the Alabama nine with 7:02 remaining.

It was Alabama's 37th bowl game and 25th in a row, both national records, but the first since head coach Ray Perkins succeeded the late Paul "Bear" Bryant as head coach. The victory enabled the Crimson Tide to snap a two-game losing streak which had dropped them out of the Top 20 rankings and wind up 8-4 in Perkins' first season, the same record as Bryant's final team a year earlier.

SMU, the nation's winningest team over the span of 1981-82 with a 31-2-1 record before the Sun Bowl debacle, finished the season with a 10-2 record. The Mustangs two setbacks in that three-year stretch were by two and three points to Texas.

1985 ALOHA BOWL

[15] Alabama 24, USC 3

HONOLULU, Hawai'i (Dec. 28, 1985) — Alabama dominated the second half to hand Southern Cal a 24-3 defeat in the fourth annual Aloha Bowl in Honolulu to end the 1985 season with a 9-2-1 record. Before a crowd of 35,183, the Crimson Tide victory tied USC with the most bowl victories (21) as the traditional football powers met for only the second time in bowl competition.

The first half was a defensively-dominated sloppy affair that ended in a 3-3 tie. Alabama was whistled for 68 yards on seven penalties in the first half. The Tide scored on its first possession, driving 54 yards from its own 15-yard line to the USC 31 where Van Tiffin kicked a 48-yard field goal. Early in the second quarter, USC tied the score on a 24-yard field goal by Don Shafer with 9:36 left in the half after UA stopped the Trojans at the eight-yard line on a drive that started from the USC 37.

The charged up Crimson Tide scored a touchdown on its second possession in the third quarter. Greg Richardson returned a punt 14 yards to the Trojans 42. Ten plays later, fullback Craig Turner dove into the end zone from the one. Tiffin converted the extra point for a 10-3 lead.

Moments later, Kermit Kendrick intercepted a USC pass and returned it 16 yards to the Trojans 44. Five plays later, Alabama quarterback Mike Shula hit wide receiver Clayton Whitehurst in the end zone for a 24-yard touchdown pass. Tiffin converted for a 17-3 lead with 13:25 left in the fourth quarter.

Alabama forced USC to punt on its next possession and Richardson called for a fair catch on the Trojans 44. Seven plays later, flanker Albert Bell ran a reverse around the left side for a 14-yard touchdown with 8:25 remaining. Tiffin kicked the extra point for the 24-3 final score.

Alabama freshman running back Gene Jelks gained 79 yards on 17 carries and was named the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player. Junior All-American linebacker Cornelius Bennett had nine tackles, broke up one pass, and pressured opposing passers throughout the game to earn the Most Valuable Defensive Player honor. The game was televised nationally by Innovative Sports TV.

1986 SUN BOWL

[13] Alabama 28, [12] Washington 6

EL PASO, Texas (Dec. 25, 1986) — Alabama's memorable 1986 senior class went out in impressive style with a dominant 28-6 victory over Pac-10 Conference runner-up Washington. The win gave the Crimson Tide a 10-3 record against one of the nation's toughest schedules. Alabama head coach Ray Perkins' final team at the Capstone opened the season 7-0, only to lose three of its final five regular season games to finish with a 9-3 record.

Senior All-American linebacker Cornelius Bennett was selected the game's most valuable player. He led the defense that allowed Washington's high-powered offense just 62 yards on the ground, and 241 yards total offense. The Tide didn't allow a touchdown.

After a scoreless first quarter, All-American halfback Bobby Humphrey broke loose on a 64-yard sprint for the game's first score with 13:55 left in the second quarter. The Huskies' kicker, Jeff Jaeger, booted a 31-yard field goal with 5:55 left and added a 34-yarder with 44 seconds remaining as Alabama took a 7-6 halftime lead.

Midway through the third quarter, Alabama's Freddie Robinson recovered a Washington fumble on the Huskies' 47-yard line. In six plays, quarterback Mike Shula sharply guided the Crimson Tide to a touchdown, completing two passes to Humphrey and a 32-yard scoring strike to Greg Richardson. All-American placekicker Van Tiffin converted his second point-after kick of the day with 6:24 remaining in the period and Alabama led, 14-6.

On the Crimson Tide's next possession, Humphrey ran three plays for 15 yards. Then Shula hit Angelo Stafford for 27 yards, Richardson for 25 and Humphrey for an 18-yard touchdown pass. The six-play, 83-yard drive took but 2:11 off the clock and with Tiffin's conversion kick, Alabama was in charge 21-6.

Alabama scored again on its next possession, covering 92 yards in 16 plays. Humphrey ran in the score from three yards out after gaining 48 yards on ten carries and catching three passes for 30 yards from Shula on the drive. Tiffin converted at the 7:16 mark in the last quarter for the final 28-6 margin.

Shula, starting his 27th consecutive game for Alabama, completed 15 of 26 passes for 176 yards with two touchdown passes in his final collegiate game. Humphrey ended a sensational year with three touchdowns and his 159 yards rushing gave him eight 100-yard rushing games for the season.

A crowd of 48,722 witnessed the game and CBS televised it nationally.

1988 HALL OF FAME BOWL

Michigan 28, Alabama 24

TAMPA, Fla. (Jan. 2, 1988) — In a battle of two traditional football powers, Alabama and Michigan met for the first time in the second Hall of Fame Bowl in Tampa, Fla., and the Wolverines won, 28-24, on a fourth down play in the game's final minute.

NBC televised the game nationally and 60,156 fans looked on as Alabama head coach Bill Curry faced Michigan assistant head coach Gary Moeller, who replaced head coach Bo Schembechler, who had suffered a heart attack three weeks prior to the game.

A 51-yard Philip Doyle field goal at 8:43 in the first quarter gave the Crimson Tide a 3-0 lead. Michigan's All-American halfback Jamie Morris, who finished with a career-high 234 rushing yards on the day, proceeded to score three unanswered touchdowns. Two came in the second quarter from 25 and 14 yards out, enabling Michigan to build a 14-3 lead at halftime. On Michigan's second possession of the third quarter, Morris broke through the left side of his line for a 77-yard touchdown sprint with 9:36 remaining.

Down 21-3, Alabama came to life and scored three touchdowns for the lead. With 4:55 left in the third quarter, tight end Howard Cross took a 16-yard scoring strike from quarterback Jeff Dunn to complete a 72-yard drive, but the Tide failed on a two-point conversion. On Alabama's next possession, the team put together an 85-yard drive with All-American tailback Bobby Humphrey leaping over from the one-yard line.

After forcing Michigan to punt on its next two possessions, the passing of Dunn and the running of Humphrey completed a 79-yard drive with Humphrey scoring on a determined 17-yard run. Dunn completed a two-point play to Clayton Whitehurst for a 24-21 lead with 4:49 remaining to play.

Starting from its own 38-yard line after the kickoff, Michigan quickly moved to Alabama's 20-yard line where the Wolverines faced a fourth-and-three situation. From there, quarterback Demetrius Brown completed a beautifully executed touchdown pass to flanker John Kolesar with 50 seconds left in the game to give the Wolverines a 28-24 victory. Kolesar, who beat Alabama cornerback John Mangum, jumped high into the air on the play to catch the winning pass, his only reception of the day.

Dunn completed 23 of 40 passes for 269 yards and Humphrey rushed for 149 yards on 27 attempts to lead Alabama offensively.

1988 SUN BOWL

[20] Alabama 29, Army 28

EL PASO, Texas (Dec. 24, 1988) — Resilient Alabama, behind a record-setting performance by senior quarterback David Smith, rallied to defeat upset-minded Army 29-28 in the 55th annual Sun Bowl Classic. Smith shattered passing records set by such esteemed Alabama greats as Steve Sloan and Joe Namath in guiding the Crimson Tide to the win on a near perfect day in El Paso.

A 51-yard run by Army fullback Ben Barnett set up the first score of the game, a one-yard run by Mike Mayweather, with less than three minutes elapsed.

Alabama cut the lead to 7-3 in the first quarter on a 37-yard field goal by Philip Doyle but, early in the second period, the Cadets took a 14-3 lead when quarterback Bryan McWilliams capped a 69-yard, six-play drive with a 30-yard touchdown run on a wishbone option play. Alabama settled for another Doyle field goal, this time from 22 yards out, to draw within 14-6.

The end of the first half brought some of the game's most pivotal moments. While the Alabama defense was trying to figure out the intricacies of the Black Knights' wishbone, Army went to the air on a halfback pass, but passer Calvin Cass overshot a wide-open Otto Leone for what would have been an easy score. Instead, Army had to settle for a field goal attempt from the Alabama 24-yard line. The Crimson Tide's Derrick Thomas blocked the kick, keeping Army from adding to its lead.

David Smith rapidly drove Alabama 76 yards in 1:12 for a score. With only 35 seconds left in the first half, Doyle converted the extra point to narrow the lead to 14-13. Five plays later and with only a few ticks left on the clock, Army lined up for another field goal try, this time from the Alabama 27-yard line. Keith Walker's 44-yard attempt was blocked, again by the omnipresent Thomas.

Trailing 28-20, the Crimson Tide and Smith did not panic, driving to the Army two-yard line where the Army defense stiffened, and Doyle was called on to kick a 32-yard field goal with 7:25 left.

Now behind 28-23, Alabama surged to the winning touchdown. A 19-yard pass from Smith to Todd Richardson and a 16-yard run by Wayne Shaw led to senior David Casteal leaping into the end zone for the winning score.

Smith, the game's Most Valuable Player, completed 33 of 52 passes for 412 yards and two touchdowns, setting Alabama bowl records for attempts, completions and yardage. Thomas was voted the game's best lineman.

1990 SUGAR BOWL

[2] Miami 33, [7] Alabama 25

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 1990) — On the first day of the 1990s, Miami clinched the 1989 National Championship with a 33-25 victory over seventh-ranked Alabama in a game that was Bill Curry's last as head coach of the Crimson Tide.

Miami struck early, moving ahead 7-0 with 4:55 left in the first quarter on a three-yard run by fullback Stephen McGuire. The Tide had held the Hurricanes on downs and forced a field goal attempt by Carlos Huerta, but Alabama was offside, giving Miami a first down at the three-yard line to set up McGuire's touchdown run.

Two series later, a short punt and a 10-yard return by Gene Jelks which put Alabama within striking range from the Miami 36. It took nine plays to move that distance against the Miami defense, but a four-yard reception of a Gary Hollingsworth pass by Marco Battle scored the Tide touchdown and tied the score at 7-7.

The Hurricanes answered quickly by going 78 yards in five plays with Craig Erickson and Wesley Carroll connecting on three completions for 50 yards, including an 18-yarder for the score. Carlos Huerta's extra point was blocked by Alabama's Mike Ramil, leaving the score at 13-7.

The second quarter fireworks continued with Tide freshman Antonio London recovering a fumbled Miami punt to set up an eventual 45-yard field goal by Philip Doyle. Nine plays later, the Hurricanes went up 20-10 after Alex Johnson scored from three yards out. The Tide struck back with its most impressive drive of the night, covering 80 yards in 11 plays and scoring on a seven-yard pass from Hollingsworth to Lamonde Russell with 40 seconds left in the half.

Alabama was back in business seconds later when senior Lee Ozmint intercepted an Erickson toss and ran it back 23 yards to the Miami 19. Three plays later Doyle tried a 40-yard field goal on the final play of the first half. Doyle had the distance to hit it from better than 60 yards, but the kick sailed to the left and the halftime score read Miami 20, Alabama 17.

Both teams came out slow in the second half and failed to score in a conservative third quarter. The fourth quarter, however, began with the Hurricane offense in high gear, as Erickson hit tight end Rob Chudzinski for an 11-yard score. Only minutes later, Erickson found his other tight end, Randy Bethel, from 12 yards out to give Miami a commanding 33-17 lead.

Late in the game, Alabama made a heroic comeback effort as Hollingsworth hit Miami native Prince Wimbley with a scoring pass from nine yards out with 2:53 left. A Hollingsworth to Russell two-point conversion pass pulled the Tide within eight, 33-25. However, Alabama's on-side kick attempt failed, and the Hurricanes had little trouble running out the clock and claiming not only the Sugar Bowl crown but the unanimous No. 1 ranking in the nation as well.

Miami's Dennis Erickson became only the second coach in college football history to win the national championship in his first season at a school, and Craig Erickson was named the game's Most Outstanding Player. For Alabama, Hollingsworth threw for 214 yards and three touchdowns. On defense, Alabama was led by defensive backs Lee Ozmint and Efrum Thomas, both of whom had a team-leading nine tackles.

1991 FIESTA BOWL

(18) Louisville 34, (25) Alabama 7

TEMPE, Ariz. (Jan. 1, 1991) — The Louisville Cardinals, behind four first-quarter touchdowns, jumped to a 25-0 lead over the Crimson Tide and coasted to a 34-7 victory in the 1991 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Arizona.

The game marked the second time that Louisville head coach Howard Schnellenberger, an assistant coach at Alabama from 1961-65, had faced the Tide as a head coach. Schnellenberger, an assistant under the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant, helped coach the Tide to an impressive 49-5-1 record, including three SEC and national championships (1961, '64 and '65).

Offensively, the Tide compiled only 189 yards total offense. Alabama's vaunted defense, ranked first in passing defense, third in total defense, fourth in scoring defense and sixth in rushing defense, gave up an Alabama bowl-record 458 yards passing. The Cardinals rushed for another 113 yards to set an opponent record for most yards gained in a bowl game (571). The Tide defense was unable to stop the Cardinals' Browning Nagle, who hit on 20-of-33 attempts for 451 yards and three touchdowns.

The Cardinals jumped ahead with 7:35 left in the first quarter when Nagle hit Latrell Ware for a 70-yard scoring pass with 7:35 left. Ralph Dawkins came back with 3:40 remaining to score on a five-yard burst that capped a six-play, 26-yard drive. After an Alabama punt, Louisville breezed to a 19-0 lead by driving 77 yards in six plays. That march was capped by a 37-yard pass from Nagle to Anthony Cummings. After a misconnection on a two-point conversion pass, the lead remained at 19-0 with 54 seconds left in the first period.

Just 53 seconds later, Louisville blocked an Alabama punt and the Cardinals' Ray Buchanan recovered it in the end zone for a touchdown. The Cardinals went for two, but George Teague stopped a run by Ralph Dawkins on the one-yard line and the Cardinals' led, 25-0, with one second left in the first quarter.

The Tide's only score came when Charles Gardner intercepted a Jeff Brohm pass and returned it 49 yards for a touchdown with 7:32 left in the second quarter.

Louisville rounded out the scoring when Nagle threw 19 yards to Anthony Cummings and Bama quarterback Danny Woodson was called for intentional grounding in the end zone.

1991 BLOCKBUSTER BOWL

(8) Alabama 30, (15) Colorado 25

MIAMI (Dec. 28, 1991) — Alabama relied on a second half rally and three Jay Barker touchdown passes to come from behind and defeat defending national champion Colorado, 30-25, at Joe Robbie Stadium in South Florida.

This game was marked Colorado's switch to a one-back, pass-oriented offense after the Buffaloes had been primarily an option running team for several years leading up to the contest. But Alabama adjusted quickly and successfully to the scheme.

David Palmer was honored with the "Brian Piccolo Award" as the game's most valuable player and he put the Crimson Tide on the scoreboard first in his usual fashion, a punt return. Palmer took the punt on Alabama's 48-yard line, ran through four Colorado defenders and scooted down the right sideline 52 yards for the score. Matt Wethington's point-after kick gave Alabama a 7-0 lead with 8:49 left in the first quarter.

Colorado's Ron Woolfork blocked an Alabama punt to give the Buffaloes the ball on the Alabama three-yard line and two plays later Scott Phillips ran it in from the one 1 with 1:34 remaining in the opening period. Jim Harper kicked the extra point to tie the game. Two possessions later, Colorado took the lead when linebacker Ted Johnson tackled Alabama running back Martin Houston in the end zone for a safety with 13:15 left in the second quarter.

Neither team could generate much offense, but the Alabama defense provided the necessary boost when Mark McMillian intercepted a Darian Hagan pass on the 50-yard line and ran it back 49 yards to the one. The Tide lost seven yards in three plays and settled for a Wethington field goal. The Buffaloes used the final 43 seconds in the half and kicked a 33-yard field goal as time ran out.

In the second half, the Alabama offense woke up and drove the ball to Colorado's eight. An apparent David Palmer touchdown was called back because of an illegal substitution, but on the next play (third-and-13) Barker and Siran Stacy connected on a 13-yard pass for six points. The two-point conversion failed, and Alabama led, 16-12.

The lead didn't last long. The Buffaloes scored just 18 seconds later on a 62-yard pass from Hagan to Michael Westbrook to put CU back in front, 19-16. At this point, both offenses were moving. Alabama marched 75 yards its next possession, scoring on a 12-yard pass from Barker to Kevin Lee. Wethington's conversion kick put the Tide up, 23-19, with 6:55 left in the third quarter.

A 15-play drive in the fourth quarter culminated with a five-yard touchdown pass from Barker to Palmer and gave the Tide a 30-19 lead with 8:10 remaining. But the Buffaloes cut the lead to five on a 13-yard pass from Hagan to Charles Johnson with 3:30 left. Colorado got the ball back with 1:49 left and drove to the Alabama 33-yard line before being stopped on a fourth-and-one play with 40 seconds left.

1993 SUGAR BOWL

(2) Alabama 34, (1) Miami 13

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 1993) — All week long Alabama coach Gene Stallings said he did not consider his Crimson Tide an underdog. In front of 76,789 in the Superdome and a national television audience, Alabama proved the skeptics wrong as the Tide handily defeated the No. 1-ranked Miami Hurricanes, 34-13, winning the national championship for the first time since 1979.

Alabama's defensive strategy stifled Miami's rushing game, only allowing the Hurricanes 48 yards on the ground. Gino Torretta passed for 278 yards but was ineffective. With Alabama leading 13-6 at the half, the defense took control of the game early in the third quarter. On UM's first play from scrimmage in the second half, Torretta was intercepted by Tommy Johnson, who returned the ball to the Miami 20-yard line. Six plays later, Derrick Lassic scored from a yard out to increase UA's lead to 20-6.

Alabama's defense had been giving Torretta problems all day but the one play that virtually spelled the end for Miami came on their next possession. The Tide pulled all 11 players up to line with Torretta operating from the shotgun. His errant pass was snared by George Teague who high-stepped 31 yards for the second Tide touchdown in 16 seconds.

Teague was matched against Miami tailback Jonathan Harris, who was lined up in a slot to the right. Teague jammed Harris as he tried to come off the line of scrimmage. Torretta, who was pressured all night by the Alabama defense, chose to force a throw towards Harris. But Teague stepped in front of Harris, caught the pass at the 31, took off toward the right sideline and high-stepped the last five yards into the end zone for a 21-point lead. This play by Teague would be a big one in the Tide's victory, however, it would not be the only one he would be remembered for in this game.

Trailing 27-6, the Hurricanes offense took the field to mount a successful drive. On Miami's second down and 10 play, Teague made one the biggest defensive plays of the season, although it was null and void because of a five-yard offside penalty called against Alabama. Torretta hit his favorite receiver, Lamar Thomas, who was streaking down the sideline for an apparent six points. Teague streaked down the sideline, ran Thomas down, stripped the ball from him, and proceeded to advance the ball in the other direction for a short gain. The play may not be officially recorded in the record books, but it will stand as one of the best defensive plays ever.

The Tide relied on a ground attack to move the ball on offense. Out of the 285 total yards gained, 267 of them came on the ground. Derrick Lassic controlled UA's ground game cutting and weaving his way to 135 yards rushing on 28 carries and two touchdowns. His efforts gained him the Miller-Digby Sugar Bowl Most Valuable Player Award.

Alabama was outgained, 326 yards to 285. Tide quarterback Jay Barker, who led his team to victory for the 17th time in 17 starts, completed just 4 of 13 passes for 18 yards, with two interceptions. Meanwhile, Torretta's decisive mistakes were the result of an overwhelming Alabama defensive effort that all but eliminated Miami's ability to run. Miami was held to 48 rushing yards, 42 of which came during an inconsequential final drive long after a Crimson celebration had begun.

1998 MUSIC CITY BOWL

(24) Virginia Tech 38, Alabama 7

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (Dec. 29, 1998) — Virginia Tech's special teams generated 14 points and cornerback Anthony Midget returned an interception 27 yards for a touchdown as the 24th-ranked Hokies routed Alabama, 38-7, in the inaugural Music City Bowl.

Linebacker Phillip Summers also set up a touchdown with an interception for the Hokies, whose defense picked off 24 passes in 1998, the second-highest total in the country. Playing in front of a sellout crowd of 41,600 at Vanderbilt Stadium, the Hokies recorded their first victory over Alabama in 11 tries. Tech quarterback Al Clark ran for a 43-yard touchdown, running back Lamont Pegues added a pair of one-yard scores and running back Shyrone Stith added a four-yard touchdown for Virginia Tech (9-3), which snapped a two-game bowl losing streak.

Freshman Andrew Zow and Michael Vaughn hooked up on a five-yard second-quarter touchdown to account for Alabama's only scoring in a game that began with temperatures hovering around 40 degrees. The conditions worsened as the contest progressed, with freezing rain falling for most of the final three quarters. Alabama's 31-point setback was surpassed only by a 38-6 loss to Nebraska in the Orange Bowl on New Year's Day 1972. Alabama (7-5) had its five-game bowl winning streak snapped.

Virginia Tech led 10-7 at halftime, but the Crimson Tide self-destructed in one of Alabama's worst second halves of the season. On Alabama's second possession of the third quarter, Zow's pass over the middle was picked off by Summers at the Tide 3-yard line and Virginia Tech entered the end zone three plays later on Pegues' first one-yard plunge.

Alabama's next drive was quickly halted, and defensive end Corey Moore broke through the line to block Pope's kick, giving Virginia Tech possession at the Alabama 29. It took the Hokies four plays to score this time, with Stith's four-yard scamper making it 24-7. Moore was voted the game's most valuable player. Winston's muff late in the third period was recovered by safety Cory Bird at the Alabama 19 and Pegues' one-yard scoring run 1:29 into the fourth quarter ended any hopes of an Alabama comeback. For emphasis, Midget picked off Zow and sprinted into the right corner of the end zone with 7:33 remaining.

Clark completed 7-of-14 passes for 71 yards and was intercepted once while carrying nine times for 55 yards. Stith added 71 yards on 10 attempts for the Hokies, who needed just 278 total yards to record the blowout. Zow was 19-of-35 for 224 yards but was picked off three times for Alabama, which was held to 274 yards, including just 50 on the ground. Shaun Alexander carried 21 times for 55 yards and caught eight passes for 87 yards.

Tech began the onslaught on its first possession when Clark faked to Pegues, burst up the middle and outran the Tide secondary for a 43-yard touchdown just 2:35 into the contest.

Alabama tied the game just under six minutes into the second period when Zow found Vaughn in the back of the end zone. But Graham connected from 44 yards moments later to give the Hokies a three-point halftime advantage.

2000 ORANGE BOWL

(8) Michigan 35, (5) Alabama 34

MIAMI (Jan. 1, 2000) — In a meeting between two of college football's most storied programs, Michigan came from behind twice, then held on in overtime to win. Alabama's Ryan Pflugner missed an extra-point attempt by inches on the final play of overtime to give the Wolverines a 35-34 victory over the Crimson Tide in the Orange Bowl.

Michigan's Tom Brady threw for 369 yards and four touchdowns, including three to David Terrell who caught 10 passes for 150 yards. After Michigan's Shawn Thompson caught a 25-yard touchdown pass on the first play of overtime, Alabama scored on Andrew Zow's 21-yard pass to Antonio Carter. But Pflugner's extra-point attempt was just wide to the right.

The Wolverines won even though they lost a fumble at the Alabama 1 in the fourth quarter and had a 36-yard field goal attempt blocked to force the overtime. Shaun Alexander, the Southeastern Conference Player of the Year, rushed for 161 yards and three touchdowns in his final game for Alabama. His scores came on runs of 5, 6 and 50 yards, and teammate Freddie Milons scored on a 62-yard punt return.

The eighth-ranked Wolverines (10-2) managed just one first down in the opening 28 minutes but completed their third consecutive 10-win season. The sixth-ranked Crimson Tide (10-3) lost in their 50th bowl game, an NCAA record.

The Wolverines' first six possessions produced just one first down, which came on a 5-yard gain on a fake punt. The offense finally mustered a first down with 1:18 left in the opening half, then scored two plays later on a 27-yard pass from Brady to Terrell. The Wolverines erased deficits of 14-0 and 28-14 thanks to Terrell, who tied Orange Bowl and Michigan bowl records with three touchdown receptions.

Brady, who was 34-for-46, led Michigan to three touchdowns in a 12-minute span in the third quarter. The comeback wasn't the first by the Wolverines, who rallied from fourth-quarter deficits to win three times during the regular season. Alabama's Phillip Weeks blocked a field-goal attempt by Hayden Epstein as time ran out in the fourth quarter, forcing the overtime. Earlier in the period, Michigan's Anthony Thomas lost a fumble at the Alabama 1.

Alexander turned a third-and-1 run into a 50-yard touchdown, breaking three tackles to give Alabama a 21-14 lead in the third quarter. Less than three minutes later, Milons caught a 51-yard punt, weaved across the field and scored untouched to make it 28-14.

The Wolverines made the score 14-14 on their first series of the second half. Terrell caught a short pass from Brady, eluded cornerback Milo Lewis, and sprinted to the end zone, completing a 57-yard play. Terrell beat Lewis again in the third quarter for a 20-yard score.

Alabama picked up only one first down in the opening quarter, but a 32-yard run by Alexander got the Tide rolling. The play started a 76-yard drive that ended with Alexander's 5-yard touchdown run. Three minutes later, Alabama scored again on Milons' 23-yard punt return, and a late-hit penalty gave the Tide the ball at the Michigan 31. Alexander's 6-yard touchdown run made the score 14-0.

2001 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Alabama 14, Iowa State 13

SHREVEPORT, La. (Dec. 27, 2001) — Andrew Zow, playing with a bruised calf, tossed a 27-yard touchdown pass to Terry Jones with 4:44 remaining as the Crimson Tide ended Alabama head coach Dennis Franchione's first season with a victory as the Crimson Tide trimmed Iowa State, 14-13, before a national television audience on ESPN. The game marked Alabama's 51st bowl appearance and the first for the Tide in the Independence Bowl.

The final score wasn't indicative of the tempo of the game. Iowa State's offense gave the Alabama defense all it wanted and racked up 456 yards of total offense and 23 first downs. But the Tide defense held when it had to, and the offense scored when it counted most. Iowa State's defense dominated throughout, but Alabama free safety Wayne Bacon blocked Tony Yelk's punt, giving the Crimson Tide possession at the Cyclones' 29-yard line.

Two plays later, Zow connected with Jones for the winning score, enabling Alabama (7-5) to rally from a 10-0 deficit and finish the season with a winning record. Zow, who was sacked four times, completed 11-of-19 passes for 119 yards with an interception. The Crimson Tide were held to just 150 yards on the ground.

Iowa State (7-5) had a chance to regain the lead in the final minute, but Yelk's 47-yard field goal was wide right with 46 seconds left. It was his third miss of the game. Seneca Wallace drove the Cyclones into field goal range on their final possession. He converted a second-and-25 with a 26-yard completion to Jack Whitver at midfield, then kept the drive alive by hitting Lane Danielson for 14 yards on 4th-and-7 from the Alabama 47. For the game, Wallace completed 25-of-42 passes for 284 yards.

But Yelk's field goal missed the upright by inches and Zow took two snaps to run out the clock. Yelk kicked a 36-yard field goal to open the scoring 1:42 into the contest before Joe Woodley scored on a one-yard touchdown run to make it 10-0 with 14:24 left in the second quarter. Alabama got on the board on Zow's eight-yard touchdown run with 9:19 left in the second and Yelk failed to extend the lead, missing a 25-yard field goal with 26 seconds left in the half.

Yelk converted a 41-yarder to make it 13-7 with 2:11 left in the third period but kept Alabama within one score by missing a 40-yarder 4:22 into the final period.

Cyclones running back Ennis Haywood rushed for 125 yards on 20 carries, marking the first time Iowa State had lost in 13 games when its leading runner surpassed the century mark. Ahmad Galloway paced Alabama on the ground with 90 yards on 16 carries.

2004 MUSIC CITY BOWL

Minnesota 20, Alabama 16

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (Dec. 27, 2004) — A turnaround 2005 season for Alabama ended in a way indicative of the regular season as Crimson Tide rode a game-winning 45-yard field goal by Jamie Christensen to a 13-10 win over explosive Texas Tech in the 2006 AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic at the Cotton Bowl Stadium in Dallas. The victory produced the Tide's 28th 10-win season and, when the dust settled, Alabama finished ranked eighth in both final national polls.

Although the kick by Christensen was by no means perfect, it was enough to keep Alabama in the win column and marked his third game-winning field goal of the season. Alabama's defense dominated the game early as the Red Raiders were forced to punt after their first possession of the game.

The Tide's first possession resulted in a 76-yard touchdown pass from Brodie Croyle to Keith Brown on the Tide's second play of the game as Croyle flicked a play-action pass to the streaking Brown. Christensen's point-after kick was good, giving the Tide an early 7-0 lead.

The Tide defense held the Red Raiders in check until late in the first quarter when Alex Trlica hit a 34-yard field goal, cutting the Alabama lead to 7-3.

With 2:39 left in the second quarter, a 38-yard field goal attempt by Christensen was blocked and allowed Tech to take possession at the Alabama 46-yard line. Tech quickly marched to the Alabama 21 and as the second quarter neared an end Trlica attempted a 37-yard field goal on the final play of the first half, but Alabama defensive lineman Mark Anderson burst through to block the attempt to keep Alabama's halftime lead at 7-3.

In the third quarter, the Crimson Tide was able to put more points on the scoreboard when Christensen kicked a 31-yard field goal to extend the Alabama lead to 10-3. Early in the fourth quarter, Tech managed to tie the game at 10-10 as quarterback Cody Hodges connected with Jarrett Hicks on a 12-yard touchdown pass. Trlica's conversion kick tied the game.

Alabama then went to work from its own 14-yard line, moving to the Red Raider 28-yard line in the game's waning seconds. With just five seconds left in the game, Christensen nailed a 45-yard field goal that barely cleared the crossbar, giving the Tide the 13-10 victory, Alabama's national-leading 30th victory in a postseason bowl game.

Playing his last game as the Alabama quarterback, senior Brodie Croyle earned the game's Offensive Most Valuable Player honor as he completed 19 of 31 passes for 275 yards and one touchdown. Alabama linebacker DeMeco Ryans was named Defensive MVP after garnering seven tackles to lead the Crimson Tide defense.

(13) Alabama 13, (18) Texas Tech 10

DALLAS (Jan. 2, 2006) — A turnaround 2005 season for Alabama ended in a way indicative of the regular season as Crimson Tide rode a game-winning 45-yard field goal by Jamie Christensen to a 13-10 win over explosive Texas Tech in the 2006 AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic at the Cotton Bowl Stadium in Dallas. The victory produced the Tide's 28th 10-win season and, when the dust settled, Alabama finished ranked 8th in both final national polls.

Although the kick by Christensen was by no means perfect, it was enough to keep Alabama in the win column and marked his third game-winning field goal of the season. Alabama's defense dominated the game early as the Red Raiders were forced to punt after their first possession of the game.

The Tide's first possession resulted in a 76-yard touchdown pass from Brodie Croyle to Keith Brown on the Tide's second play of the game as Croyle flicked a play-action pass to the streaking Brown. Christensen's point-after kick was good, giving the Tide an early 7-0 lead.

The Tide defense held the Red Raiders in check until late in the first quarter when Alex Trlica hit a 34-yard field goal, cutting the Alabama lead to 7-3.

With 2:39 left in the second quarter, a 38-yard field goal attempt by Christensen was blocked and allowed Tech to take possession at the Alabama 46-yard line. Tech quickly marched to the Alabama 21 and as the second quarter neared an end Trlica attempted a 37-yard field goal on the final play of the first half, but Alabama defensive lineman Mark Anderson burst through to block the attempt to keep Alabama's halftime lead at 7-3.

In the third quarter, the Crimson Tide was able to put more points on the scoreboard when Christensen kicked a 31-yard field goal to extend the Alabama lead to 10-3. Early in the fourth quarter, Tech managed to tie the game at 10-10 as quarterback Cody Hodges connected with Jarrett Hicks on a 12-yard touchdown pass. Trlica's conversion kick tied the game.

Alabama then went to work from its own 14-yard line, moving to the Red Raider 28-yard line in the game's waning seconds. With just five seconds left in the game, Christensen nailed a 45-yard field goal that barely cleared the crossbar, giving the Tide the 13-10 victory, Alabama's national-leading 30th victory in a postseason bowl game.

Playing his last game as the Alabama quarterback, senior Brodie Croyle earned the game's Offensive Most Valuable Player honor as he completed 19 of 31 passes for 275 yards and one touchdown. Alabama linebacker DeMeco Ryans was named Defensive MVP after garnering seven tackles to lead the Crimson Tide defense.

2006 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Oklahoma State 34, Alabama 31

SHREVEPORT, La. (Dec. 27, 2006) — Ending the 2006 season in the PetroSun Independence Bowl, Alabama scored two late touchdowns to erase a 14-point deficit, but a 27-yard field goal by Oklahoma State's Jason Ricks with 8.9 seconds left pinned a 34-31 loss on Alabama at Independence Stadium.

OSU running back Dantrell Savage ran for 112 yards and a touchdown and made the key play on the winning drive. He took a screen pass from quarterback Bobby Reid for 26 yards on third-and-9 to the Alabama 15 to put Ricks in prime position. Alabama tried to ice Ricks with three timeouts. But the sophomore sent the kick through the uprights, and he snatched off his helmet and ran to the sideline with it extended over his head.

The kick saved the Cowboys (7-6) from a fourth-quarter collapse and gave them both a winning record and their first bowl victory since 2002. Oklahoma State blew a 14-point lead, setting up the Crimson Tide for the tying touchdown with a fumbled kickoff return.

Alabama (6-7) was playing in its NCAA-record 54th bowl game and looking for its 31st bowl victory but for much of the night the Crimson Tide's vaunted postseason history seemed a distant memory.

The Cowboys scooped up an Alabama fumble on the Tide's 38-yard line to set up the opening score. Savage ran the final yard to cap a 38-yard drive and make it 7-0 Oklahoma State. Alabama tied it on an 18-yard touchdown pass from quarterback John Parker Wilson to Matt Caddell with 3:32 remaining in the first quarter.

Oklahoma State went ahead 14-7 on Keith Toston's 4-yard run. The Cowboys stretched their lead to 17-7 on a 28-yard field goal by Ricks. Alabama cut the margin to 17-14 on a 1-yard run by fullback Tim Castille. But Alabama was unable to stop the Cowboys' final drive of the half. Oklahoma State took it 64 yards, capped by a 7-yard run by Toston for a 24-14 halftime lead.

In the third quarter, Jamie Christensen kicked a 24-yard field goal to pull Alabama three points closer. Then Reid hit Adarius Bowman for a 10-yard score to give Oklahoma State a 14-point lead, 31-17. Alabama played flat until late in the fourth quarter. With the Tide trailing 31-17, Javier Arenas returned a punt 86 yards to pull Alabama to within a touchdown with 10:50 left in the game.

Then Grant Jones fumbled the ensuing kickoff and Chris Rogers, who forced the fumble, recovered to give Alabama a first down on the Oklahoma State 21. Six plays later, left tackle Andre Smith caught a lateral from John Parker Wilson and ran two yards to tie the game at 31-31.

Oklahoma State, ranked 16th nationally in total offense, outgained Alabama, 419 to 276. The Cowboys rushed for 207 yards compared to 108 yards for the Tide. Jeremy Nethon had 11 tackles including seven solo for Oklahoma State and was selected the game's Most Valuable Player honor.

For OSU, Reid completed 15 of 29 attempts for 212 yards with a touchdown and an interception, and Keith Toston added 58 yards and two touchdowns. John Parker Wilson completed 18 of 33 for 168 yards and a touchdown for Alabama. He was intercepted twice.

2007 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Alabama 30, Colorado 24

SHREVEPORT, La. (Dec. 24, 2007) — Alabama used a 20-point first quarter and relied on a stingy second-half defense to withstand Colorado in the PetroSun Independence Bowl, gaining 388 total yards in a 30-24 win over the Buffaloes at Independence Stadium.

Alabama (7-6) dominated the first quarter of the game, opening with two field-goal-scoring drives to take a 6-0 lead before an unsuccessful fake punt by Colorado (6-7) led to the Crimson Tide's first touchdown of the night, a 15-yard pass from quarterback John Parker Wilson to receiver Keith Brown for a 13-0 lead 10 minutes into the game.

After a Colorado punt, the Tide took the ball 63 yards in five plays on its next possession, capping the drive with a 34-yard touchdown pass from Wilson to receiver Matt Caddell for a 20-0 first-quarter lead.

A blocked punt by Caddell on Colorado's next possession set up the Tide at its own 35-yard line and, six plays later, Wilson hit receiver Nikita Stover for his third touchdown pass of the night, a 34-yarder, to extend Alabama's lead to 27-0 with 12:20 left in the first half. Wilson completed 13 of his first 15 passes for 185 yards and three touchdowns.

Late in the half, Colorado quarterback Cody Hawkins found receiver Tyson DeVree for a four-yard score to cut the Tide lead to 27-7. A 25-yard pass from Hawkins to Dusty Sprague with four seconds left in the second quarter cut the Alabama lead to 27-14 at the half.

A third quarter Colorado field goal cut the Alabama lead to 10 and, with the Alabama offense stalled, the Buffaloes got the ball back at the Alabama 20 with 8:25 left in the game and a chance to cut the Tide lead even more. But Alabama defensive tackle Brandon Deaderick tipped a Hawkins pass and linebacker Darren Mustin made a diving interception to give Alabama the ball on Buffaloes' 22.

Seven plays later Alabama was able to extend its lead to 30-17 with a 26-yard field goal from Leigh Tiffin, his third of the night, with 4:36 left in the game. Colorado then went 69 yards in just 45 seconds to cut the Alabama lead to 30-24 with a touchdown pass from Hawkins to DeVree, but the Tide was able to convert two first downs on its next possession, running the clock down to one second before the Buffaloes took over at their own 20. Colorado's lateral-filled final play was stopped at the Buffaloes' 45-yard line.

Wilson was 19-of-32 passing for 256 yards, with three touchdowns and one interception. The Alabama defense was led by end Wallace Gilberry, who recorded five tackles-for-loss in an eight-tackle performance in his final game for the Tide, tying the Alabama single-game record for tackles-for-loss. Safety Rashad Johnson had 13 tackles while Mustin had eight stops to go with his interception.

[6] Utah 31, [4] Alabama 17

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 2, 2009) — Fourth-ranked Alabama battled back from an early 21-0 deficit, cutting its deficit against No. 6 Utah to 21-17 in the second half, but the Crimson Tide was unable to overcome the deficit, falling to the Utes, 31-17, in the 75th Allstate Sugar Bowl in New Orleans. Alabama finished the season with a 12-2 record while Utah finished the season as college football's only undefeated team at 13-0.

Utah scored 21 first-quarter points, capitalizing on a John Parker Wilson interception and getting a pair of touchdown passes from Brian Johnson to take a 21-0 lead into the second quarter. Alabama responded with 17 unanswered points, starting the comeback with a 52-yard field goal by Leigh Tiffin and getting a 73-yard punt return for a touchdown by Javier Arenas that cut the largest deficit the Crimson Tide had faced all season to 21-10 at halftime. A fumble on Utah's first possession of the third quarter gave Alabama the ball in the Utes' territory, and a 4-yard touchdown pass from Wilson to Glen Coffee cut the lead to 21-17 with 11:14 to go in the third. Utah, however, closed the game on a 10-0 run.

Wilson completed 18-of-30 passes for 177 yards, with one touchdown and two interceptions. Julio Jones was Wilson's leading receiver, finishing with seven catches for 77 yards. Coffee (36 yards) and Mark Ingram (26) combined for 62 yards on the ground.

Utah quarterback Brian Johnson threw for 336 yards and three touchdowns on his way to being selected the game's most outstanding player, a fitting finish to the career of Utah's winningest quarterback (26-7).

Utah's defense was impressive, intercepting Wilson twice and sacking him eight times, with the seventh sack forcing a fumble that ended the Crimson Tide's last threat with just more than five minutes remaining. The Utes' front seven was significantly outweighed by Alabama's offensive line, playing without left tackle Andre Smith, the Outland Trophy winner who missed the game due to a suspension.

Johnson adeptly spread the ball around, completing passes to seven receivers while the Utes almost completely ignored the running game. Johnson connected with receiver Freddie Brown 12 times for 125 yards. Johnson's touchdowns went for 7 yards to Brent Casteel, 18 yards to Bradon Godfrey and 28 yards to David Reed. Matt Asiata ran for a 2-yard score, set up by Reed's leaping catch at the 2. An Alabama comeback appeared to be building early in the second half, when Dont'a Hightower stripped Johnson, and Bobby Greenwood recovered at the Utah 30. Willson drove the Tide for a score, hitting Coffee for an easy 4-yard touchdown pass on a rollout to close the gap to 21-17.

At the point, it appeared to be only a matter of time before the Tide would overtake the underdog Utes. But Johnson opened Utah's next drive with a 33-yard pass over the middle to Brown. That started a 71-yard scoring drive that ended with Reed's touchdown. The Tide drove right back into Utah territory, but Ingram was stopped for no gain on third-and-2 from the Utah 32. But Tiffin missed a long field goal attempt, hooking a 49-yarder just left of the upright.

2010 BCS CHAMPIONSHIP

PASADENA, Calif. (Jan. 7, 2010) —The No. 1-ranked Alabama football team held true to its ranking, defeating second-ranked Texas, 37-21, in the 2010 BCS National Championship at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. The 2009 national championship was the 13th in Alabama history.

The Crimson Tide defense ended any hopes of a Longhorn comeback when blitzing linebacker Erik Anders forced a fumble by Texas quarterback Garrett Gilbert with only 3:08 remaining in the game. Alabama later forced two more turnovers and scored two touchdowns to seal the 2009 national championship.

After Texas jumped ahead 6-0 in the first quarter, the Crimson Tide took the lead with running back Mark Ingram punching in a two-yard rush to put Alabama up 7-6 with 14:18 remaining in the second quarter.

Trent Richardson joined in on the ground attack when he busted a 49-yard touchdown run at the 7:59 mark of the second quarter, stretching Alabama's lead to 14-7.

Placekicker Leigh Tiffin extended the Tide's lead by connecting on a 26-yard field goal. Two plays later, defensive tackle Marcell Dareus intercepted Gilbert's shovel pass and returned it 28 yards for an Alabama touchdown. The 10-point swing gave the Crimson Tide a 24-6 lead heading into halftime.

After Texas scored 11 unanswered points in the second half, pulling within 24-21, Anders forced a fumble at the three-yard line and linebacker Courtney Upshaw recovered for the Tide. The Texas fumble led directly to Ingram's one-yard touchdown run, putting Alabama up 31-21.

Javier Arenas came up with his second interception of the game with 1:55 remaining and Richardson turned the turnover into points once again, scoring a touchdown on a two-yard run. Tiffin missed the extra point attempt, making the final score 37-21.

Alabama head coach Nick Saban became the first head coach in major college football history to win a national championship at two different schools, previously winning the BCS national championship in 2003 at LSU. Saban also became the second head coach to win two BCS national championships, joining Urban Meyer of Florida.

The victory in Pasadena came 84 years after Alabama won its first national championship in the 1926 Rose Bowl game and marked the fifth Alabama team to end a national championship campaign at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena.

2011 CAPITAL ONE BOWL

(15) Alabama 49, (7) Michigan State 7

ORLANDO (Jan. 1, 2011) – Mark Ingram ran for two scores to break the school record for career touchdowns, and 15th-ranked Alabama rolled past No. 7 Michigan State 49-7 in the most lopsided Capital One Bowl in the game's history.

The 2009 Heisman Trophy winner had 59 yards rushing on 12 carries and a 30-yard reception against the team he rooted for as a kid. Greg McElroy threw for 220 yards and one touchdown, and the game got so out of hand that the Crimson Tide (10-3) pulled most of their starters early in the third quarter. Ingram also moved past Shaun Alexander's mark (41) with 42 career touchdowns.

The margin of victory topped East Texas State's 33-0 victory over Tennessee Tech in the 1953 game, then known as the Tangerine Bowl. The bowl dates back to 1947.

The Crimson Tide found the end zone on their first five possessions, held the Spartans (11-2) to 171 total yards and sacked Kirk Cousins four times in their most dominant performance all season. Cousins had 120 yards passing, threw one interception and was under pressure all game. Edwin Baker was held to 14 yards rushing for a Spartans team that felt snubbed by the BCS after sharing the Big Ten title. Instead, they were bullied and bruised by a team that knows the big stage well.

Alabama (10-3) took the opening kickoff 79 yards on 13 plays and Ingram scored on a 1-yard run to the right side.

Michigan State (11-2) took its opening drive and looked to have something going, but quarterback Kirk Cousins was intercepted by Alabama's Robert Lester. A short time later, Richardson scored on an 8-yard run to help the Tide grab a 14-0 lead.

The Spartans again looked to have something going in the second quarter, driving to Alabama's 7-yard line, but linebacker Courtney Upshaw hit Cousins from the blindside, forcing a fumble that stalled another Michigan State drive. Upshaw finished with five total tackles, two sacks, and three tackles for loss. He was voted the game's most valuable player.

On the following drive, Alabama drove 80 yards on seven plays and scored when Ingram burst through on the left side for a 6-yard touchdown to put the Tide up by three scores. The touchdown was Ingram's 42nd career rushing touchdown, making him the school's all-time leader, passing Shaun Alexander.

McElroy, playing his final game for Alabama, was nearly flawless. The fifth-year senior was 13-of-17 for 220 yards and even made a block that sprung Julio Jones on a 35-yard reverse for a score.

The Spartans managed only 48 yards on the ground. It was the second fewest yards allowed on the ground by an Alabama team since 1962. Edwin Baker, the Big Ten's third-leading rusher, was held to 14 yards on 12 carries. Alabama outgained Michigan State 546-171 in total yards.

Cousins was sacked four times and the last one, by Alabama linebacker Alex Watkins, forced him to the sidelines. He was replaced by redshirt freshman Andrew Maxwell, who didn't fare much better. Maxwell was sacked twice and was replaced by Keith Nichol who connected with wideout Bennie Fowler for a 49-yard touchdown pass with 5:45 left to avoid the shutout.

2012 BCS CHAMPIONSHIP

(2) Alabama 21, (1) LSU 0

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 9, 2012) – A staunch defensive effort, combined with a record-setting night from kicker Jeremy Shelley, propelled the University of Alabama football team to its 14th national championship with a 21-0 victory over LSU in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

The Crimson Tide's defense held LSU to 92 total yards and five first downs as defensive player of the game Courtney Upshaw and Jerrell Harris each had seven tackles. As a unit, the defense had 11 tackles for loss, four sacks and an interception.

Fifteen of Alabama's 21 points came from the leg of Shelley, who converted on a bowl-record five field goals from 23, 34, 41, 35 and a career-long 44 yards. The defense provided the offense with excellent field position all evening and quarterback AJ McCarron did a masterful job under center completing 23-of-34 passes for 234 yards to earn offensive player of the game honors.

"We knew that he was going to have to play well, because we knew that we were going to throw the ball," Saban said of his quarterback. "He showed great leadership and poise in making good decisions."

Thanks to Shelley, the Tide carried a 15-0 lead into the final quarter when LSU mounted its first legitimate charge after being held to 55 yards in the previous three quarters. Upon crossing midfield for the first time all game, the drive stalled and left the Tigers facing 4th and 18 to gain on the Alabama 40. The Tide defense came through again, as Dont'a Hightower sacked LSU's Jordan Jefferson and knocked the ball loose at the 50-yard line. Nick Gentry fell on the fumble to end the drive and set up the Tide offense at midfield with 6:15 left to play.

Four plays later, Trent Richardson raced 34 yards for the first touchdown of the game. The Heisman Trophy semifinalist finished with 96 yards on 20 carries and 107 all-purpose yards.

Alabama put up the first points of the game when Shelley capped off a five-play, 20-yard drive with a 23-yard field goal with five minutes left in the first quarter. Shelley came up big for the Tide on two more occasions in the first half, connecting from 34 and 41 yards to give Alabama a 9-0 lead at the break.

Alabama held LSU to one first down throughout the first half, while collecting 13 of its own. The Tide also amassed 156 total yards compared to the Tigers' 26 total yards in the first 30 minutes.

2013 BCS CHAMPIONSHIP

(2) Alabama 42, (1) Notre Dame 14

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. (Jan. 7, 2013) – The Alabama Crimson Tide established its dominance early on the way to a dominant performance as the Tide earned the programs 15th national championship in football with a 42-14 victory over Notre Dame in the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship Game.

Playing before a Sun Life Stadium record crowd of 80,120 the Tide raced to touchdowns on their first three offensive possessions and built a lead that eventually reached 35-0 in the third quarter. The title, Alabama's third in the past four seasons, concluded a 13-1 season for the Tide while Notre Dame fell to 12-1 with the loss. Tide quarterback AJ McCarron passed for four touchdowns and 264 yards while completing 20 of 28 attempts without throwing an interception.

Running back Eddie Lacy rushed for 140 yards and a touchdown while averaging seven yards per carry, wide receiver Amari Cooper caught six passes for 105 yards and two scores and running back T.J. Yeldon rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown as the Tide offense flourished behind an outstanding performance by its offensive line. Alabama gained 529 total yards while exhibiting incredible balance, rushing for 265 yards and passing for 264.

The Crimson Tide romped to its second consecutive BCS championship, cruising to the second-most lopsided BCS championship game victory to date. Alabama (13-1) became the third team to win three national titles in four seasons since polls started being used to crown champions in 1936, and the first since Nebraska from 1994-97.

The Fighting Irish (12-1) didn't score until they were down 35-0 late in the third quarter. In a matchup of tradition-rich programs tied for the most AP national championships with eight, Notre Dame was looking for its first national championship in 24 years. The Crimson Tide got its ninth.

The Tide marched with ease on the opening drive, going 82 yards on five plays to take a 7-0 lead on Lacy's 20-yard touchdown run up the middle with 12:03 left in the first quarter.

Lacy set up Alabama's second touchdown with another 20-yard run, this time to the Irish 2. Instead of running into a Notre Dame goal-line defense that has become known for goal-line stands, McCarron faked a handoff and found tight end Michael Williams all alone for the score and a 14-0 lead. Alabama made it 3 for 3 on the next drive when Yeldon scored from a yard out on the first play of the second quarter.

Lacy landed one more blow with 31 seconds left in the half when McCarron found Lacy for an 11-yard score to make it 28-0. Alabama turned a Ha Ha Clinton-Dix interception in the third quarter into another long scoring drive, capping it with a McCarron a 34-yard touchdown pass to freshman Amari Cooper.

McCarron earned Offensive Most Valuable Player honors while linebacker C.J. Mosley earned Defensive MVP honors by virtue of his team-best 8 tackles.

2014 SUGAR BOWL

(11) Oklahoma 45, (3) Alabama 31

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 2, 2014) – The tenth-ranked Oklahoma Sooners (11-2) used a surprising quick-tempo offensive attack keyed by pinpoint passing from quarterback Trevor Knight to upset third-ranked Alabama (11-2), 45-31, in the 2014 Allstate Sugar Bowl.

Four Alabama turnovers led directly to 28 Oklahoma points that proved to be too much to overcome for the Crimson Tide before a crowd of 70,473 at Mercedes-Benz Superdome (capacity: 72,003). The Tide churned out 516 yards of offense but could not erase a 14-point halftime deficit largely due to the turnovers that the Sooners converted into points, as one turnover resulted in a touchdown and two others were converted into touchdowns on the ensuing play after the miscues.

Additionally, Alabama suffered five total turnovers in the game and had two offensive possessions into the Oklahoma red zone end without points, one on a turnover and another on a missed field goal. The Tide failed to capitalize on a dominant third quarter performance before the Sooners clinched the outcome in the final period.

Tide quarterback AJ McCarron set the Alabama single-season passing yards record during the game as he completed 19 of 30 passes for a career-high 387 yards and two touchdowns with two interceptions, connecting nine times for 121 yards to wide receiver Amari Cooper and three times for 139 yards to DeAndrew White. That marked the fifth time in Alabama history that two receivers eclipsed the century mark in yardage and the first time it happened in a bowl game.

Freshman running back Derrick Henry rushed for 100 yards and a touchdown on eight carries and had one catch for 61 yards and a score. For the defense, Tide cornerback Eddie Jackson led the team with 10 tackles while safety Landon Collins had nine stops and an interception.

Despite outgaining the Sooners in total offense, 516 to 429, the Tide lost largely due to failures in the red zone and turnovers. Oklahoma's fast-paced offense had the Tide defense off balance in the first half and during key points of the game overall. The Sooners managed 348 passing yards against the Tide as Sooners' quarterback Trevor Knight completed 32 of 44 attempts for four touchdowns with one interception. Knight earned Most Outstanding Player honors for his performance.

The decisive portion of the game came in the second quarter with the score knotted at 17-17. After a touchback on the kickoff, Alabama started at its 25 and constructed a 67-yard drive in 11 plays that consumed 6:19 of clock but ended in frustration.

Alabama marched to a first down at the Sooner 20. A pass to Cooper yielded seven yards to the OU 13 on first down, and then Yeldon gained two more to set up third-and-one. On the next play, Yeldon gained four yards and a first down at the OU seven-yard line, but he fumbled when hit by OU's Joe Palange and the OU defensive end Geno Grissom scooped up the ball and returned it 26 yards to the OU 34 with 5:26 left in the half. Five rapid-fire plays by the OU offense moved the Sooners to a fourth-and-one at the Alabama 45 where Clay's two-yard run converted the first down. After a two-yard run by Clay on first down to the Tide 43, the Sooners called timeout. On the next play, Knight launched a perfectly thrown touchdown bomb to Jalen Saunders who had beaten Alabama's Deion Belue on the play for a 43-yard touchdown pass. Hunnicut's kick gave the Sooners a 24-17 lead with 2:59 left in the second quarter. It was a lead the Sooners would never relinquish.

Alabama responded with a march to the OU 48, but McCarron's second-down pass was intercepted by OU cornerback Zack Sanchez, who returned the pickoff 41 yards to the Tide 13 with 1:12 left in the second quarter. On the first play after the turnover, OU receiver Sterling Shepard took a pitchout on a reverse and raced 13 yards for a touchdown. Hunnicut's conversion kick was good, and the Sooners had a 31-17 lead over the Crimson Tide with 1:05 left in the half. Alabama drove within field goal range as the half was drawing to a close, but Foster's 32-yard field goal attempt was wide right as the first half clock expired.

Alabama twice drew within a touchdown in the second half but could not contain the Sooner offense at key points in the late going.

2015 CFP SEMIFINAL AT THE SUGAR BOWL

(4) Ohio State 42, (1) Alabama 35

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 2015) – Ohio State quarterback Cardale Jones, making only his second collegiate start, accounted for 290 total yards (243 passing and 47 rushing and Buckeyes running back Ezekiel Elliott ran for an Allstate Sugar Bowl-record 230 yards to lead Ohio State to a 42-35 upset of top-ranked Alabama in the second semifinal of the 2014 College Football Playoff. The No. 4 Buckeyes (13-1) kicked off at the Superdome right after No. 2 Oregon finished its 59-20 rout of reigning national champion Florida State in the Rose Bowl.

The victory gave Ohio State a spot opposite Oregon in the first College Football Playoff National Championship played eight days later on January 12. Alabama, meanwhile, was denied a shot at the Crimson Tide's fourth national title in six years while suffering a loss in the Sugar Bowl for the second consecutive year.

Jones threw a 47-yard touchdown to Devin Smith that put the Buckeyes ahead for good early in the third quarter. He also converted a crucial third-down play with a spinning, one-yard dive when Ohio State was clinging to a 34-28 lead. On the next play, Elliott took a handoff, broke one attempt at a tackle, and was gone for an 85-yard touchdown that essentially clinched the victory with 3:24 remaining. The Ohio State victory snapped a 0-for-10 streak of futility against Southeastern Conference opponents in bowl games, its only victory vacated by an NCAA ruling.

Alabama, which finished its season 12-2, didn't go down quietly as the Crimson Tide became the first team in history to win at least 11 games in four consecutive seasons. Quarterback Blake Sims threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Amari Cooper with 1:59 remaining. The Buckeyes recovered the onside kick, but Alabama got it back one more time. The Tide's final chance ended when a desperation heave into the end zone was picked off by Tyvis Powell as time ran out, Sims' third interception of the game.

Alabama's third consecutive Sugar Bowl loss, dating back to a defeat against Utah following the 2008 season, was especially painful, costing the Tide a chance to advance in college football's first playoff. "I'm proud of this team," Saban said. "They excelled all year long and kept Alabama at the forefront of college football."

But Saban never liked the feel of the game, even after Alabama raced to an early 21-6 lead by taking advantage of a pair of turnovers and coming up with two red zone stops. "We really weren't stopping them. We had the momentum of the game because of the turnovers," Saban said. "We did not control the football game like we usually do."

After throwing an interception, Jones led one of the biggest drives of the game at the end of the first half, completing three straight passes for 37 yards, then broke off a 27-yard run up the middle when his receivers were covered. After a timeout with 19 seconds remaining, Ohio State pulled out a trick play with wide receiver Michael Thomas making a spectacular catch. Jones handed off to receiver Jalil Marshall on an apparent end-around, Marshall flipped it to Evan Spencer coming the other way, and Spencer suddenly pulled up and threw toward Thomas. Thomas leaped up to make a twisting catch and somehow got his left foot down just inside the line for a 13-yard score that gave the Buckeyes all the momentum going into halftime.

Ohio State built on that momentum at the beginning of the third quarter, scoring two more touchdowns to complete a stunning 28-0 spurt that pushed the Buckeyes ahead 34-21.

For the Tide, Sims ended the night with 237 passing yards and three touchdowns while accounting for 266 total yards and four touchdowns overall. Derrick Henry rushed for 95 yards and a touchdown while receiver Amari Cooper closed his career with a game-high nine catches for 77 yards and two touchdowns.

2015 CFP SEMIFINAL AT THE COTTON BOWL

(2) Alabama 38, (3) Michigan State 0

ARLINGTON, Texas (Dec. 31, 2015) – The Crimson Tide (13-1 overall), ranked No. 2 in the College Football Playoff (CFP) rankings, produced a dominant performance for a 38-0 victory over the No. 3 Michigan State Spartans (12-2) in the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic in front of a crowd of 82,812 at AT&T Stadium (capacity: 71,815). With the victory, Alabama advanced to the CFP National Championship Game against the No. 1 Clemson Tigers at University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz.

The Alabama defense produced an excellent performance against a quality opponent, shutting down the Spartans' offense for much of the game, holding the Spartans to only 29 rushing yards and 239 total yards. Meanwhile, Tide cornerback Cyrus Jones produced game-changing plays with an interception to stop an MSU scoring threat and a punt return for a touchdown that sealed the verdict. The Tide defense registered four quarterback sacks, posted six tackles for loss, and intercepted two passes.

Linebacker Reggie Ragland led Alabama with seven tackles while linebacker Dillon Lee had six stops and intercepted a pass. Linebacker Ryan Anderson had four tackles, including a sack and two tackles for losses. Linebacker Reuben Foster and safety Geno Matias-Smith also had four tackles in the game. Alabama limited MSU's outstanding quarterback, Connor Cook, to 186 passing yards on 17 completions in 33 attempts with an interception and no touchdowns.

Alabama's offense produced 440 total yards (286 passing, 154 rushing) led by senior quarterback Jake Coker's then-career-best 286 passing yards and two touchdowns. Coker was deadly accurate, completing 25 of 30 pass attempts. Freshman wide receiver Calvin Ridley had 138 receiving yards on eight catches for two touchdowns, setting a new Alabama freshman record for single-season receiving yards in the process (1,031 yards). Heisman Trophy winning running back Derrick Henry rushed for 75 yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries, becoming only the 25th running back in NCAA history (encompassing all divisions) to rush for 2,000 yards in a season. He entered the CFP title game with 2,061 rushing yards in 2015.

After a scoreless first quarter, the teams continued in a standoff well into the second quarter until the Tide moved 80 yards in six plays to a touchdown to break on top, 7-0, on a 1-yard run by Henry with 5:36 left in the first half. Clutch plays in the passing game keyed the drive that was highlighted by a 50-yard pass from Coker to Ridley that reached the MSU 1-yard line. Henry's touchdown run was his 24th, breaking the Southeastern Conference record for rushing TDs in a season (previously held by Auburn's Tre Mason in 2013 and Florida's Tim Tebow in 2006). Placekicker Adam Griffith connected on a 47-yard field goal to give the Tide a 10-0 lead with 1:25 left in the half. Tide cornerback Cyrus Jones made a huge play at the end of the first half. The Spartans marched to the Tide 12 in the final minute of the half before Jones leaped high to intercept a Connor Cook pass at the Tide 2-yard line in the waning seconds of the half, ending a scoring threat and protecting the Tide's 10-0 lead heading into halftime.

Alabama extended the lead to 17-0 on the opening drive of the second half, moving 75 yards in nine plays to pay dirt on a six-yard pass to Ridley along the sideline in the end zone. Later in the third period, Jones returned an MSU punt 57 yards for a touchdown to give the Tide a 24-0 lead with 3:24 left in the third period. Just 1:04 later, Coker and Ridley connected on a 50-yard touchdown bomb to move the Tide to a 31-0 lead with 2:20 left in the third period. Henry closed the scoring with an 11-yard run with 7:52 left in the game.

"I think last year when we came to this game, we were just happy to take part in the game," said Saban, who improved to 9-0 against his former assistants, with all nine wins coming by double digits. "I think this year we wanted to sort of take the game and really thought our guys had a vision of what they wanted, and everybody paid the price for what they had to do in preparation."

2016 CFP NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

[2] Alabama 45, [1] Clemson 40

PHOENIX, Ariz. (Jan. 11, 2016) – In a scintillating matchup of contrasting styles, the Alabama Crimson Tide (14-1) showed incredible resourcefulness and resilience to earn its 16th football national championship in the Arizona desert. The national title was the Tide's fourth in seven seasons (since 2009) for the Crimson Tide and gave Tide head coach Nick Saban five national crowns in his career, including four with the Tide.

Tight end O.J. Howard caught five passes for a career-high 208 yards, quarterback Jake Coker passed for a career-best 335 yards, running back Derrick Henry rushed for 158 yards and Kenyan Drake returned a kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown to lift the Tide to a 45-40 victory over the top-ranked Clemson Tigers (14-1) before a crowd of 75,756 (capacity: 71,000) in the College Football Playoff Championship Game at the University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz.

Howard's receiving yardage set an Alabama record for a tight end and was the fifth-most by any Tide player, regardless of position. Meanwhile, Henry broke season and career school records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns during the game.

A 50-yard run by Henry opened the scoring to put the Crimson Tide up early, 7-0, with 7:55 left in the first period. Clemson responded on the next possession on a 31-yard touchdown pass from Deshaun Watson to wide receiver Hunter Renfrow, evening the score at 7-7 with 5:18 left in the first quarter.

After a missed field goal by Alabama ended a scoring threat, Clemson moved 73 yards in seven plays to another Watson-to-Renfrow touchdown pass, this one from 11 yards for a 14-7 lead on the final play of the first period. Moments later, Tide safety Eddie Jackson intercepted a Watson pass to set up the tying touchdown as Alabama moved 42 yards to a 1-yard dive by Henry to tie the score at 14-14. The Tide held off another Clemson scoring threat in the final minute of the half. A 27-yard pass from Watson to wide receiver Charone Peake reached the Tide 39. Two plays later, Greg Huegel's 44-yard field goal attempt was blocked by Alabama's D.J. Pettway and fell short.

After forcing a punt on Clemson's opening possession of the second half, Alabama raced 64 yards in three plays to take a 21-14 lead on a 53-yard pass from Coker to tight end O.J. Howard with 12:53 left in the third period. Clemson came right back with a 55-yard drive to a 37-yard field goal by Huegel with 10:10 left in the third quarter, narrowing the Tide lead to 21-17. Clemson moved ahead on its next possession on a 1-yard run by Wayne Gallman, capping a 60-yard drive to give the Tigers a 24-21 lead with 4:48 left in the third period.

Alabama evened the score at 24-24 on a 33-yard field goal by Griffith with 10:34 left. On the ensuing kickoff, Griffith booted an onside kick that bounced high and into the hands of the Tide's leaping Marlon Humphrey to give Alabama the ball at the 50. One play later, Coker found Howard wide open again for a 51-yard touchdown pass to give the Tide a 31-24 lead with 9:45 left in the fourth period. Clemson stormed right back, driving 61 yards to a 31-yard field goal by Huegel with 7:47 on the clock. Kenyan Drake returned the kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown to extend the Tide lead to 38-27 with 7:31 on the clock.

The Tigers stormed back on a 75-yard touchdown drive capped by a 15-yard pass from Watson to Artavis Scott with 4:40 on the clock. A two-point conversion try on a run by Watson was stopped and Alabama held a 38-33 lead. Two plays later, on a second-and-12 play, Coker found Howard in the left flat and Howard raced past defenders for 63 yards to the Clemson 14. Six plays later, Henry sealed the victory with a 1-yard dive to give the Tide a 45-33 lead with 1:07 left in the fourth period. A pass by Watson to Leggett with 12 seconds left for a Clemson touchdown provided the final 45-40 margin.

2016 CFP SEMIFINAL AT THE PEACH BOWL

ATLANTA (Dec. 31, 2016) – Led by a Crimson Tide bowl-record 180 yards on the ground from running back Bo Scarbrough and an opportunistic and often stifling defense, the No. 1-ranked University of Alabama football team won the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, 24-7, over No. 4 Washington in front of a record crowd of 75,996 at the Georgia Dome.

Scarbrough, the Peach Bowl Offensive Most Valuable Player, opened and closed the Tide's scoring. He bulled his way 18 yards into the end zone in the first quarter to tie things up with Washington and then powered 68 yards early in the fourth quarter to make it 24-7. In between he added nearly 100 yards rushing. Senior linebacker Ryan Anderson, the Peach Bowl Defensive MVP, scored Alabama's 11th defensive touchdown of the season in the waning moments of the first half, intercepting a pass and returning it 26 yards for a score.

Defensively, Alabama tallied five sacks of Washington quarterback Jake Browning for losses totaling 38 yards, nabbed two interceptions returned for 54 yards and one touchdown and had seven tackles for losses totaling 48 yards. Junior cornerback Anthony Averett led the Tide with six solo tackles, including a 13-yard sack and a forced fumble. Senior linebacker Reuben Foster had nine total tackles with a team-best six assists.

Alabama won the toss and deferred its option to the second half. Washington chose to receive the opening kickoff. The two teams traded three-and-outs to start the game before the Huskies took over on their own 36-yard line for their second possession of the game. Washington marched 64 yards in eight plays to a touchdown, scoring on a 16-yard pass from Browning to wide receiver Dante Pettis. Place kicker Cameron Van Winkle tacked on the point-after, putting Washington ahead, 7-0, with 7:56 left in the first quarter.

Alabama answered Washington with a touchdown drive of its own on the next possession. After starting with a two-yard run by running back Damien Harris, quarterback Jalen Hurts threw a sideline pass to tight end O.J. Howard for a first-down pickup of 16 yards. Harris then rushed twice for a total of 11 yards and another first down. Hurts then picked up another first down with an 11-yard rush followed by a 12-yard, first-down rush by Scarbrough that put the ball on the Washington 26. Hurts ran for five more yards before Scarbrough closed out the possession with a run of three yards, followed by a punishing 18-yard rush, bulging his way into the end zone. Place kicker Adam Griffith's point-after attempt was good, and Alabama knotted the score at 7-7.

Washington was driving the ball on its next possession, picking up 33 yards and two first downs before Alabama's Averett stripped the ball from receiver John Ross following a seven-yard completion, forcing a fumble that defensive end Jonathan Allen recovered at the 50. Following the turnover, Alabama drove to the Washington 23-yard line as the first quarter expired. Coming out of the quarter break, Griffith came on for a 41-yard field goal attempt, driving the ball through the uprights to put Alabama ahead, 10-7 with 14:55 left in the first half.

Late in the second quarter, Anderson picked off a Browning pass, returning the interception 26 yards for a touchdown. Griffith connected on the point-after attempt and Alabama extended its lead to 17-7 with just over a minute left in the second quarter. The pick-six was the Alabama defense's 11th touchdown (by eight different players) of 2016.

The Tide's final score of the game came early in the fourth period off another rushing touchdown from Scarbrough. Starting at it two-yard line, Alabama gained one yard on its first two plays before Scarbrough burst through for 12 yards and a first down. A Hurts to Howard toss picked up 16 more followed by a one-yard rush by Hurts. Scarbrough, touching the ball for the second time in the drive, powered his way 68 yards to the end zone and another score, breaking two tackles on the weaving run. Griffith's PAT was good, and Alabama pushed its lead to 24-7 with 11:56 remaining.

2017 CFP NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

[2] Clemson 35, [1] Alabama 31

TAMPA, Fla. (Jan. 9, 2017) – In a national championship game that seesawed back-and-forth throughout the second half, The University of Alabama football team came up just short in the final seconds against Clemson, falling to the Tigers, 35-31, in the 2017 College Football Playoff National Championship Game. The two teams played in front of a Raymond James Stadium-record 74,512 fans.

The Tide, playing in its second consecutive national championship game and third College Football Playoff in as many years, battled to the last second in a contest where the lead changed hands three times in the last four minutes and 38 seconds of the game.

Alabama freshman quarterback Jalen Hurts was 13-of-31 for 131 yards and a touchdown throwing the ball. He also added 63 rushing yards, including a 30-yard rushing touchdown with 2:07 left in the game. Sophomore running back Bo Scarbrough rushed for 93 yards and two touchdowns on 16 carries before leaving the game midway through the third period with an injury. Senior tight end O.J. Howard led all receivers with 106 yards and a touchdown on four receptions.

In the first quarter, Alabama marched down the field on a series of runs to score the first points of the game on a Scarbrough 25-yard touchdown run. Place kicker Adam Griffith kicked the extra point to put the score 7-0 in Alabama's favor.

Later in the second quarter, Bama struck again, this time Scarbrough picked up key blocks downfield, running through a great clearing block by tackle Cam Robinson, racing 37 yards into the end zone. Griffith's extra point was true to give Alabama a 14-0 lead with 10:42 left in the half. Clemson answered with a touchdown of its own, when Watson then bounced to the outside and raced to the pylon, getting the score on an eight-yard run and putting the Tigers on the board. Greg Huegel made the extra point to cut Alabama's lead to 14-7 with 6:09 left, which would be the final score of the half.

Clemson opened the second half with the ball and picked up a quick first down on a three-yard run by Gallman followed by an eight-yard Watson to Renfrow pass. An incomplete pass was followed by Alabama's Ryan Anderson stripping Watson of the ball, forcing and recovering the fumble, before returning it 12 yards to the Clemson 16.

After the turnover, Griffith converted a 27-yard field goal attempt, extending Alabama's lead to 17-7 with 12:25 left in the third quarter.

The Tigers responded by scoring in four plays, traveling 42 yards, closing with a 24-yard Watson to Renfrow touchdown pass with 7:10 left in the third quarter to cut the Alabama lead to 17-14. Later in the third, Hurts found a wide-open Howard for a 68-yard touchdown pass in an echo of last year's championship game. Griffith made the extra point and Alabama's lead went to 24-14.

Watson opened the fourth quarter with a four-yard rush before finding Williams for a four-yard touchdown pass. Huegel made the point after attempt, to pull Clemson with three, with Alabama leading 24-21.

Minutes later, after the teams traded three-and-outs, Watson mixed three complete passes for 52 yards with 20 yards rushing before handing the ball off to Gallman, who plunged in from one-yard out for a touchdown and a 28-24 Clemson lead following Huegel's extra point.

Alabama responded quickly, with Hurts racing up the middle for 30 yards and a touchdown. Following Griffith's extra point, Alabama was back on top, 31-28, with 2:01 on clock.

Clemson opened the next drive with three-straight completions that gained a combined 25 yards to the Alabama 43. Watson then threw to Renfrow for a six-yard pickup and Leggett for a 17-yard completion to the Alabama nine-yard line. A pass interference penalty on the Tide put Clemson first-and-goal on the two-yard line with nine seconds on the clock. Watson then hit Renfrow for a two-yard touchdown pass with one second remaining. Huegel's point after attempt was good and Clemson led, 35-31.

2017 CFP SEMIFINAL AT THE SUGAR BOWL

[4] Alabama 24, [1] Clemson 6

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 2018) – The No. 4-ranked University of Alabama football team defeated No. 1-ranked Clemson, 24-6, in the 84th Allstate Sugar Bowl at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans.

The Crimson Tide (12-1) scored 14 points off two turnovers by the Tigers (12-2) in the third quarter to put the game out of reach.

On the defensive side of the ball, Alabama dominated with five sacks, allowing Clemson just 188 total yards of offense, while holding the Tigers to their lowest point total since the 2014 season.

Sophomore linebacker Mack Wilson grabbed his first career pick-six to go along with six tackles and a pass breakup, while junior defensive lineman Da'Ron Payne got his first-career interception and caught a one-yard touchdown pass, also a first in his time at UA. Senior linebacker Rashaan Evans led the team with nine tackles including one sack and a pass breakup.

On offense, sophomore quarterback Jalen Hurts finished 16-of-24 with 120 yards and a pair of touchdowns through the air while picking up 40 rushing yards on 11 carries in the win. Junior running back Damien Harris led the Tide on the ground with 77 yards on 19 attempts.

The Alabama defense forced the potent Clemson offense into a three-and-out on the opening drive of the game. The Tigers responded in kind, as the Tide was forced to punt after its first three plays from scrimmage. Clemson took over at its own 16-yard line before being forced to punt again after another three-and-out.

The UA offense started its second drive from its own 47-yard line. Alabama used a heavy dose of the run game, with three different players carrying the ball for 40 yards on seven carries, before senior placekicker Andy Papanastatos converted a 24-yard field goal attempt to get the Tide on the board. The field goal capped a 10-play 47-yard drive, giving Alabama a 3-0 lead with 5:23 left in the opening quarter.

On the following Clemson drive, the Alabama defense came up with yet another three-and-out. After sophomore defensive back Trevon Diggs returned the punt 14 yards, the UA offense took over at the Tiger 46-yard line.

Alabama took full advantage of the favorable field position, scoring the game's first touchdown when Hurts found junior wide receiver Calvin Ridley for a 12-yard pitch-and-catch to cap an eight-play, 46-yard scoring drive. Following the Papanastatos point after, the Tide led 10-0 with 12 seconds remaining in the first quarter.

At the end of the first quarter, Clemson had a total of -7 yards of offense, while UA had amassed 102 yards.

The Tigers answered to begin the second quarter, going 54 yards on 13 plays and ending with a 44-yard field goal to cut the Tide lead to 10-3 with 10 minutes remaining in the first half.

The two sides traded punts before Alabama took over at its own 41-yard line, where UA put together a drive down to the Clemson 20-yard line where Papanastatos' field-goal attempt hit off the left upright and bounced out to keep the score at 10-3 heading into the half.

After an Alabama fumble 12 seconds into the second half, Clemson capitalized with a 42-yard field goal to cut the UA lead to 10-6 with 12:45 left in the third quarter.

With Clemson gaining momentum to start the second half, the Tigers controlled the ball at the UA 35-yard line when sophomore linebacker Anfernee Jennings came with the pressure that forced Tiger's quarterback Kelly Bryant to throw the ball directly to Payne who returned his first career interception 21 yards to the CU 42. A personal foul on Clemson during the return then advanced the ball to the Clemson 27-yard line.

Four plays into the drive, Harris converted a crucial fourth-and-one with a four-yard rush to the CU 14-yard line. Three plays later, Hurts found the aforementioned Payne who came into the game in the jumbo package, for a one-yard score to cap the seven-play, 27-yard drive. After the Papanastatos kick, the Tide led 17-6 with 5:40 left in the third quarter.

On the next play from scrimmage, Bryant dropped back to pass when the ball was tipped by senior defensive back Levi Wallace into Wilson's hands who returned it 18 yards for the touchdown. The Tide scored 14 points in 13 seconds after Papanastatos converted the PAT to put UA up 24-6 with 5:27 remaining in the third quarter.

The two sides each punted multiple times in the fourth quarter with no change in the score. Alabama made a final stand with 1:43 left in the game, keeping the Tigers out of the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the UA five-yard line to seal the win.

2018 CFP NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

[4] Alabama 26, [3] Georgia 23 (OT)

ATLANTA (Jan. 8, 2018) – The No. 4-ranked University of Alabama football team defeated third-ranked Georgia, 26-23, on a game-winning 41-yard touchdown pass from freshman Tua Tagovailoa to fellow freshman wide receiver DeVonta Smith in the 2018 College Football Playoff National Championship Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta.

The Crimson Tide won its 17th national championship and fifth in the last nine seasons with the win over the Bulldogs. Alabama head coach Nick Saban improved to 12-0 against his former assistants with the win over UGA's Kirby Smart.

Tagovailoa was named Offensive MVP after going 14-of-24 for 166 yards, three scores through the air and 27 yards on the ground, all in the second half.

On defense, junior Da'Ron Payne was named the Defensive MVP with six tackles in the game. Sophomore linebacker Mack Wilson led the team with 12 tackles, including two tackles-for-loss. Senior defensive back Tony Brown and sophomore defensive lineman Raekwon Davis each had an interception in the win.

Georgia received the ball first in the overtime period, starting at the UA 25-yard line. The Alabama defense pushed Georgia back nine yards to the 34-yard line, where the Bulldogs netted a 51-yard field goal attempt to go up 23-20.

Lining up on the UGA 25-yard line in Alabama's first overtime possession, Tagovailoa was sacked on the first play for a 16-yard loss to the 41-yard line. On the next play from scrimmage, Tagovailoa found Smith sprinting down the field for a 41-yard touchdown reception to give Alabama the 26-23 win in thrilling fashion.

The game opened with a scoreless first quarter before Georgia took a 3-0 lead on a 41-yard field goal with 14:14 left to go in the first half. The Bulldogs extended the lead to 6-0 on the next drive, going 70 yards on 13 plays to set up a 27-yard field goal.

Georgia found the end zone late in the first half to go up 13-0 following a one-yard touchdown run with just seven seconds left in the first half of play.

The Tide began the second half with Tagovailoa in at quarterback. On the second drive of the half, UA faced a third-and-seven from its own 47-yard line when Tagovailoa escaped multiple Bulldog defenders and scrambled for nine yards to keep the drive alive. Alabama capitalized with Tagovailoa completing four-straight passes, including a six-yard touchdown pass to freshman Henry Ruggs III, capping a seven-play 56-yard scoring drive that cut the lead to 13-7 with 8:52 left in the third quarter.

Georgia quickly responded with an 80-yard touchdown pass to put the Bulldogs up 20-7 with 6:52 remaining in the third quarter.

But following that score, the Crimson Tide defense stiffened, limiting the Bulldogs to just 71 yards of offense and a single field goal the rest of the way to spur the UA rally.

The comeback started on the next Georgia drive when sophomore defensive lineman Raekwon Davis intercepted a Bulldog pass and galloped 19 yards to the UGA 40-yard line. The Tide capitalized on the turnover, with a 43-yard Andy Papanastatos field goal to cut the deficit to 20-10 with 5:15 remaining in the third quarter.

Alabama cut the lead to 20-13 with 9:24 left in the fourth quarter as Tagovailoa engineered an eight-play, 71-yard drive that ended with a 30-yard Papanastatos field goal. Freshman running back Najee Harris provided a spark off the bench with a 16-yard scamper to begin the drive, followed by a 35-yard run two plays later to put the Tide in position for the score.

Alabama then came up with a big stop on defense, stuffing Georgia on a third-and-two to force a three-and-out and the Tide took over on its own 34-yard line with 7:10 remaining in the game. Tagovailoa drove UA down the field where the offense was faced with a fourth-and-four from the UGA seven-yard line. The true freshman scrambled around in the backfield before finding junior wide receiver Calvin Ridley in the end zone for the seven-yard touchdown. Papanastatos' extra point tied the game at 20-20 with 3:56 left in the game.

After a Georgia three-and-out, Alabama was wide left on a field goal attempt at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime.

2018 CFP SEMIFINAL AT THE ORANGE BOWL

[1] Alabama 45, [4] Oklahoma 34

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. (Dec. 29, 2018) – The No. 1 Alabama football team jumped out to a 28-0 lead and never looked back against No. 4 Oklahoma, winning 45-34 in the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Capital One Orange Bowl Saturday at Hard Rock Stadium in Miami Gardens, Fla.

Sophomore quarterback Tua Tagovailoa was impressive, going 24-of-27 for 318 yards and four touchdowns through the air. Sophomore wide receiver DeVonta Smith led the team with six catches for 104 yards and a score. Junior running back Josh Jacobs added 158 total yards and a touchdown, while senior running back Damien Harris racked up 48 yards on the ground and two touchdowns.

On the defensive side of the ball, sophomore linebacker Dylan Moses led the way with six tackles, while sophomore defensive back Xavier McKinney totaled five tackles to go along with a game-high four pass breakups.

The Tide started the game with a bang when Tagovailoa found Smith on a slant route across the middle for a 50-yard pitch-and-catch on the first play from scrimmage. Six plays later, Harris found the end zone from one yard out to get UA on the board. Following redshirt freshman Joseph Bulovas' extra point the Tide held a 7-0 advantage with 11:54 left in the opening quarter.

After an Oklahoma three-and-out, Alabama added to its total when Tagovailoa found sophomore wide receiver Henry Ruggs III in the back of the end zone for a toe-tap 10-yard touchdown. Bulovas' point after pushed the lead to 14-0 with 5:54 on the clock in the first quarter.

The Crimson Tide scored its third touchdown on its third offensive drive of the quarter after Harris found his way untouched into the end zone for his second one-yard score to cap a five-play, 61-yard drive. Bulovas' extra point extended the lead to 21-0 with 1:33 remaining in the first.

Alabama continued to pour on the points in the second quarter when Tagovailoa connected with Jacobs out of the backfield who then rumbled 27 yards for the Tide's fourth touchdown of the game. After Bulovas knocked through the extra point, UA held the 28-0 advantage with 13:01 left before the half.

The Sooners responded with a pair of scoring drives, scoring a touchdown with 11:48 to go in the second quarter before adding a field goal with 7:30 remaining in the half.

On its next offensive possession, Alabama added a field goal of its own after Bulovas knocked through a 37-yard attempt to make it 31-10 at the halftime break.

At the end of the first 30 minutes of play, the Tide outgained the Sooners 318-191 and held OU quarterback Kyler Murray to just 6-of-13 passing. The 10 points at the half were the lowest by Oklahoma all season.

Oklahoma scored twice in the third quarter, a 26-yard field goal and a 49-yard receiving touchdown to trim Alabama's lead to 31-20 heading into the fourth quarter.

Tagovailoa put the Tide up 38-20 to begin the final quarter after finding Smith for another quick slant touchdown, this time from 10 yards out with 13:08 left in the game. Bulovas' point after completed the methodical nine-play drive that accumulated 87 total yards.

The Sooners answered with its second touchdown of the half to cut the Alabama advantage to 38-27 with 8:31 to go in the contest.

The Tide bounced back with another touchdown when Tagovailoa connected with sophomore wideout Jerry Jeudy from 13 yards out to end a five-play, 46-yard scoring drive. Following the extra point from Bulovas, Alabama held the 45-27 edge with 6:08 remaining.

Oklahoma found the end zone again with 4:23 left in the game to cut the lead to 45-34. However, Alabama recovered the ensuing onside kick and ran out the clock for the victory.

The Tide compiled 528 yards of total offense and controlled the ball for 36 minutes of the game in the victory.

2019 CFP NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

[2] Clemson 44, [1] Alabama 16

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (Jan. 7, 2019) – The No. 1 Alabama football team fell against No. 2 Clemson, 44-16, in the 2019 College Football Playoff National Championship Game in Levi's Stadium Monday night in Santa Clara, Calif. The Crimson Tide ended the season at 14-1, while the Tigers finished at 15-0.

Sophomore quarterback Tua Tagovailoa finished the game 22-of-34 for 295 yards to go along with two touchdowns and two interceptions. Sophomore wide out Jerry Jeudy ended the contest with five catches for 139 yards and a score.

On defense, sophomore defensive back Xavier McKinney had seven tackles and a pass breakup, while junior linebacker Mack Mack and senior defensive end Isaiah Buggs each had six tackles.

Alabama opened on defense, forcing Clemson into a three-and-out. On the Tide's third offensive play, Tagovailoa was picked off by A.J. Terrell who took the ball 44 yards for a touchdown. Clemson led 7-0 with 13:20 on the first quarter clock.

Tagovailoa quickly bounced back with a 62-yard touchdown strike to Jeudy to cap a three-play, 75-yard scoring drive. Redshirt freshman Joseph Bulovas' extra point tied the game at 7-7 with 12:05 remaining in the opening quarter.

A minute and a half later the Tigers found the end zone after connecting for a 62-yard pitch-and-catch of their own before finishing off the drive with a 17-yard rush from Travis Etienne to take the 14-7 with 10:35 on the clock.

Alabama battled back by going on a methodical 10-play, 75-yard touchdown drive, with Tagovailoa finding senior tight end Hale Hentges wide open in the back of the end zone for the one-yard score. Bulovas' extra point was no good, giving the Tigers a 14-13 advantage with 6:23 to go in the first.

Following a Clemson three-and-out, the Tide took the 16-14 lead with 14:18 remaining in the second quarter after Bulovas converted a 25-yard field goal to cap an 11-play, 45-yard drive.

The Tigers answered by driving 65 yards in 11 plays, capped by an Etienne one-yard run to put Clemson up 21-16 with 11:38 to go before halftime.

The Tigers got the ball back after Tagovailoa's second interception was returned 46 yards to the UA 47-yard line. Eight plays later, the Tigers found the end zone for the fourth time in the half when quarterback Trevor Lawrence linked up with Etienne from five yards out to go up 28-16 with 4:38 left before the halftime break.

The Tigers extended their lead to 31-16 and carried the lead into the half after a 36-yard field goal with 45 seconds to go.

In the first half, Alabama outgained Clemson 266-224 while controlling the ball for 19:26 of the first 30 minutes of action.

Alabama drove the ball down the field to begin the second half but came up empty after a fake field goal attempt failed. On the ensuing Clemson drive, the Tigers connected for a 74-yard touchdown throw to go up 37-16 with 8:26 left in the third quarter. Later in the third, CU went on a 12-play, 89-yard drive capped by a five-yard throw-and-catch to push the lead to 44-16 with 21 seconds in the quarter.

The two sides traded possessions in the final quarter, with no further scoring.

2020 CITRUS BOWL

[13] Alabama 35, [14] Michigan 16

ORLANDO, Fla. (Jan. 1, 2020) – No. 13 Alabama football beat No. 14 Michigan, 35-16, in the Vrbo Citrus Bowl at Camping World Stadium in the first game of the new year. With the win, the Crimson Tide climbs to 11-2 for the season, while the Wolverines fall to 9-4. The victory gave Alabama its ninth consecutive season with 11-or-more wins, the longest streak in the poll era (since 1936).

Junior wide receiver Jerry Jeudy used a career day to earn Citrus Bowl MVP honors, totaling a career-high 204 receiving yards on just six catches, averaging 34 yards per reception, including an 85-yard touchdown catch from redshirt sophomore quarterback Mac Jones on the Tide's first offensive play of the game. Jones went 16-for-25 for 327 yards and three touchdowns through the air with completions to six different targets.

Junior defensive back Xavier McKinney and redshirt senior linebacker Anfernee Jennings had 10 total tackles apiece to lead the Crimson Tide defense. Freshman linebacker Shane Lee led UA with seven solo stops and had nine tackles overall. McKinney and Lee both came up with sacks while Jennings and senior defensive lineman Tevita Musika combined for a third sack. Senior defensive back Shyheim Carter and sophomore defensive back Josh Jobe came up with interceptions, both of which came in the second half.

Alabama opened the game and the second half with a pair of long touchdown catches, with Jones connecting with Jeudy for an 85-yard strike on the Tide's first offensive play of the day before opening the second half with a 42-yard touchdown toss to junior wide receiver DeVonta Smith.

In between the Tide's first two passing touchdowns, Najee Harris leapt into the endzone for a nine-yard touchdown in the second quarter, giving him a rushing touchdown for the seventh game in a row. Michigan scored four times in the first half, with a first-quarter touchdown and three field goals, including a 57-yarder to close the first half.

In the fourth quarter, redshirt junior tight end Miller Forristall scored on a 20-yard reception from Jones in his first game back after missing the final four regular-season games. Harris iced the game by going up the middle to punch it in for a two-yard touchdown late in the fourth quarter to make it 35-16, the final score.

Jeudy finished the game with six receptions for a career-best 204 yards, starting with an 85-yard touchdown grab on the Tide's first offensive play of the game. Jeudy's 85-yard reception from Jones was the second longest completion in Citrus Bowl history.

Jeudy's 204 receiving yards put him over 1,000 yards for a season for the second time in his Alabama career, giving him 1,163 yards in 2019. Jones threw for 327 yards and three touchdowns, spreading the ball to six different receivers, including three that scored touchdowns. Harris accounted for 24 of the Tides' 30 rushes, rolling up 136 yards and two touchdowns, including 69 yards in the fourth quarter, giving him 1,262 rushing yards on the season.

2021 CFP NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

(1) Alabama 52, (3) Ohio State 24

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. (Jan. 11, 2021) – The top-ranked Alabama football team won its 18th national championship with a dominating 52-24 win over No. 3 Ohio State in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game at Hard Rock Stadium in Miami Gardens, Fla. Alabama finished its season a perfect 13-0, its second undefeated national championship season under head coach Nick Saban (also 2009).

In addition to being the Crimson Tide's 18th national championship overall, it was Saban's seventh as a head coach, giving him the most in collegiate football history, and his sixth at Alabama. Saban broke a tie for the most titles with Paul "Bear" Bryant.

DeVonta Smith was the game's Offensive MVP after setting championship game records for the most receptions (12) and receiving touchdowns (three) while accounting for 215 of the Crimson Tide's 464 receiving yards, all of which came in the first half. Christian Barmore was named the Defensive MVP after totaling five tackles, a sack and two tackles for loss in a disruptive performance.

Mac Jones threw for a CFP Championship Game record 464 yards on 36-of-45 passing, including five touchdowns to match the CFP title game record. Najee Harris became just the fifth player to score both rushing and receiving touchdowns in a BCS/CFP title game with two on the ground and one through the air. He totaled 158 yards of total offense, including 79 yards rushing on 22 attempts and 79 yards receiving on seven catches.

Christian Harris and Dylan Moses led the Tide defense in tackles with six each.

2022 CFP SEMIFINAL AT THE COTTON BOWL CLASSIC

(1) Alabama 27, (4) Cincinnati 6

ARLINGTON, Texas (Dec. 31, 2021) – The No. 1/1/1 University of Alabama football team won its 41st bowl game on New Year's Eve, defeating No. 4/4/4 Cincinnati, 27-6, in the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the 2021 Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas.

With the win, Alabama advances to its sixth CFP Championship Game in Indianapolis, Ind., on Jan. 10, when it will face the winner of the CFP Semifinal game between No. 3 Georgia and No. 2 Michigan. The Cotton Bowl victory also gives the Tide 41 bowl wins, the most in college football history.

Running back Brian Robinson Jr. was named the game's Offensive MVP, while linebacker Will Anderson Jr. brought home Defensive MVP honors. Robinson Jr. recorded a career-high and Alabama bowl record 204 rushing yards on 26 carries, while Anderson Jr. led a Tide defense that held the Bearcats to just 218 yards of total offense.

Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Bryce Young tallied 181 yards on 17-of-28 passing with three touchdowns through the air, giving him the Alabama single-season passing yards record with 4,503 through 14 games. JaCorey Brooks led the Tide's receivers with 66 yards on four catches including a touchdown. Slade Bolden hauled in UA's first score of the game, while Cameron Latu added another touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Safety Brian Branch led the Tide with eight tackles, including six solo stops and a sack to go with two pass breakups. Anderson Jr. added six tackles, including a team-high two sacks.

Will Reichard connected on a 26- and 43-yard field goal and added three extra points in the game.
